 The Above Stands for the Club That Will Give the Big Boat Excursion.

The committee of gentlemen that originated and so successfully managed the Patriotic Entertainment for the benefit of the Red Cross, at the Armory, January 8, are arranging to give a Big Boat Excursion on steamer Red Wing and barge Manitou, July 22. That's a long way off but they expect to take the biggest crowd ever.

They will have a ticket selling contest for a prize of a magnificent diamond ring that will be placed on exhibition at Gittelson's jewelry store, 398 Wabasha street on next Monday. Go and see the beauty and see if it is not some prize to work for.

The committee is comprised as follows: C. E. Jones, chairman; Thomas Lewis, vice chairman; G. L. Lee, recording secretary; J. Louis Ervin, financial secretary; J. W. Milton, R. B. Beard, S. M. Lewis, Billie Williams, J. T. Clairbourne.

Persons desiring to enter the contest for the diamond ring should call to see J. Louis Ervin, 309 Court Block.

DR. JOHN ROY FRENCH.

First Colored Man Commissioned and Called to Duty in the Dental Reserve Corps.

It will be remembered that Dr. John R. French, our dentist was commissioned a First Lieutenant Dental Reserve Corps last September, but was not called to service and he remained in St. Paul and followed his profession. He some time ago applied to be put in active service and last Tuesday received a telegram from the War Department ordering him to report for duty and directed him to proceed to Fort Riley, Kans., and to report to the Commanding General of the 92d Division at Camp Funston.

According to best information Dr. French is the first colored dentist to be commissioned and assigned to duty. He has secured his uniform in which he makes a fine appearance and left yesterday evening for Fort Riley taking with him the best wishes of the many friends he has made in St. Paul.

A THREE CORNERED CONTEST.

For the Nomination for Senator in the 38th Senatorial District.

The prospects for something of a lively contest for the nomination of a State Senator for the 38th Senatorial district seems to be foregone conclusion and it doubtless will arouse considerable interest among the voters.

The candidates are: James Handlan, the present Senator of the District; B. G. Novak, a member of the House of Representatives, who desires to take a higher seat in the Legislature; and Henry J. Crepeau, manager of the Meier Typetting Co. The candidates are all "fine fellows" and the voters must exercise their best judgment in making their selection. They have until June 17th, the date of the primaries to think the matter over.
