The management reserves the right to refuse undesirable persons.

Dr. C. E. Cheeks of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in the city last Saturday and has taken charge of Dr. J. R. French's dental parlors, 409 Court Block.

LADIES wishing anything in the line of hair work or scalp treatment may have their wants supplied by calling on Mrs. Elizabeth Batties, 972 Rice street.

Mrs. Florence Duckett and Mrs. Mae L. B. Graves of the St. James Mite Missionary Society will leave this week to attend the annual convention which meets at Des Moines June 26 to 27.

Mayor L. C. Hodgson will deliver the address of welcome to the Federation of Women's Clubs at Memorial Baptist church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

The special sermon for the Elks of the Twin Cities preached by Rev. J. M. Henderson at St. James A. M. E. church last Sunday evening was a masterful effort and was highly appreciated by those present.

PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER—MRS. H. I. WILLIAMS, OFFICE OF ATTY. W. T. FRANCIS, SUITE 329 AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK BUILDING, COR. CEDAR AND FIFTH STREETS. ALL WORK CONFIDENTIAL.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams and daughter, Miss Elythella, went up to Anoka on the 12th inst., to attend the graduation of Miss Anna Marie Arnold. They were the guests jointly of Mrs. W. J. Arnold and Mrs. Clarence Jackson.

The most popular picnic each year is that given by the MEN'S EPISCOPAL CLUB of St. Paul and Minneapolis, and as usual it will be the big event this year, with their outing and picnic at Parker's Lake on Wednesday, July 17.

LADIES—Who desire any of the Overton Hygienic "High Brown" Preparations can be supplied by calling upon the agent, Mrs. A. W. Jordan, 791 Rondo, or Tel. Dale 8199, and deliveries will be made anywhere in the city. (11-24-17.)

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of the State Federation of Colored women will hold a two-days' session at Memorial Baptist church, June 26-27. The ladies are actively planning to make the meeting one of the best ever held.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tandy and daughter, Miss Kathryn, left last Tuesday to motor to Chicago, where Mrs. Tandy and daughter will remain for two weeks and then join Mr. Tandy who went on to Biddeford Pool, Me., to spend the summer.

CONSERVE by having your family washing done by the IDEAL WET WASH LAUNDRY, 430-432 Rice street, corner Memorial Baptist church. Save both money and labor. Call N. W. Cedar 6112 or Auto. 24 996. They will tell you all about it.

LADIES—Mrs. H. Milner, 494 Rice street, is prepared to shampoo your hair and give scalp treatments. Old hair switches made to look like new also transformations and puffs to order. All work strictly confidential and at reasonable prices. Residence calls made. Tel. N. W. Cedar 3706.

Mrs. Nancy Church returned last Tuesday evening after an eight months' stay in Los Angeles, Calif. She went West to visit Mr. Josephine Taylor who was quite sick and subsequently died a few weeks ago. She is now at home with her sister, Mrs. Charles Saunders, 650 Fuller avenue.

Mrs. Lillie Hamilton, expert manicurist, licensed chiropodist and hair artist who has been in the profession for more than five years has opened a Beauty Shop at 381½ Rondo street, corner of Western, and is prepared to take care of hair, face, hands and feet in the most approved manner. Tel. Summit 3079.

Mr. George Kelly was awarded $1,000 damages in the District Court this week, for having wrongfully been ejected from the Great Northern Railroad by an over officious conductor last December, and was imprisoned in jail in New Rockford, N. D., where he suffered from a freezing temperature and the "cooties."

Mrs. M. Love, the "beauty artist," who has been serving customers at her home, 257 Rondo street, has recently opened new parlors at 310 Rondo street and is better than ever prepared to take care of customers for hair dressing, massaging, manicuring, chiropody, electric treatments, etc. Those desiring her services are invited to call or telephone Dale 3245 for appointments or residence calls.

A Splendid Sacred Song Service will be given at St. Phillips Episcopal church, corner of Aurora and Mackubin streets, by the best available musical talent, under the direction of Mrs. Lillian McKnight, Miss May Williams, accompanist, on Sunday evening, July 7th, beginning promptly at 6 o'clock. A silver offering will be taken at the door to be devoted to a very worthy object. Public cordially invited.

Mrs. Mary B. Talbert of Buffalo, N. Y., president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, who has been in St. Paul for the past two weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Hardy, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emma Burnett, 518 St. Anthony avenue, made splendid addresses at several of the churches, halls, receptions, etc., of the Twin Cities during her visit, all of which were excellent and timely. She has been deluged with social courtesies, automobile rides, luncheons, dinners, receptions, and declares she had a most delightful time in every way. She left yesterday for Des Moines and Buxton, Ia.; Kansas City and Beatrice, Kans.; Omaha, Neb., and Denver, Colo.

LABOR DELEGATES HONORED.

The Sterling Club held an informal reception at the Union Hall on Wednesday evening last in honor of the colored delegates to the National Federation of Labor convention now being held in St. Paul. Frederick D. McCracken presided. The address of welcome was delivered by Attorney Hammond Turner, and Delegate Miller of Norfolk, Va., responded. Addresses also were delivered by Rev. J. M. Henderson, Rev. T. J. Carr, Atty. W. T. Francis, and S. Edward Hall. The remarks of Delegate Lancaster of Mobile on the labor situation affecting colored people in the South was very interesting. A good crowd was present. Refreshments were served. The efforts of the Sterling Club are to be commended and filled a long felt want in this community.

Flour Hoarding

Six pounds of wheat flour, or a month's supply for each member of the family, is the limit fixed by the Food Administration. No true American would violate this ruling.

But flour in small quantities is expensive, home baking is inconvenient. That is why it is more economical and satisfactory to eat wholesome and nourishing
