SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1919.

Miss Katherine Tandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tandy, 593 Iglehart Ave., graduated from Mechanics Art High School on Thursday night, finishing a four year course in three and a half years.

This said that music is an aid to good digestion so A. A. Coleman, proprietor of the New Floros Cafe, 12 W. Sixth Street, has installed an electric piano and now his patrons may have music with their meals.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walker 936 St. Anthony Ave., and Mrs. Walker's mother and brother returned Tuesday from Louisville, Ky., where they took the remains of their brother and son, George Faulkner, for burial.

Ladies, doubtless you will want your hair washed, new switches, transformations, curls, etc. if so, call at the hair parlors of Mrs. Lizzie Battles, 252 W. Seventh Street, and she will supply your wants. Switches dyed for 50 cents.

Mr. Don Faucette, 419 Sherburn Avenue, is employed in Swift's Pork Cutting department, South St. Paul, has been laying off returned days this week on account of his strenuous labors. He is about all right again, however.

The lovers of a good, big time must be sure to get ready to take in the big concert and ball to be given by the 16th Battalion Home Guard Band at Arcadia Dancing Academy, Minneapolis, Monday evening, Feb. 10. Don't forget it.

Mrs. Lee Coleman, 944 St. Anthony Avenue, entertained Thursday of last week in honor of her husband's birthday. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cleary, Mrs. L. D. Gross, Mrs. L. F. Day, Mrs. L. W. Pleasants. The ladies presented Mr. Coleman a handsome brass ash tray.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. R. M. Johnson met with a serious and painful accident in having a heavy bench fall on his right foot, fracturing two toes. He was confined to his residence until last Monday, under the care of his physician, but is now able to be about.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, 520 St. Anthony Avenue, on last Tuesday evening entertained her Sunday school class, of which she is teacher, also members of the Home Workers department of which she is superintendent. About twenty-five ladies were present and enjoyed the occasion hugely.

On last Sunday afternoon, Misses Lucelle Elliott and Beatrice Green, Messrs. James Stevens and James Henley visited the Misses Lindsay at Stillwater. The time was pleasantly passed with music and song followed by a dainty lunch after which the party returned to the Sainted City.

The St. Paul Chapter, American Red Cross, has awarded Mrs. Florence E. Johnson and Mrs. Maude Hoage, each a medal and bar in recognition of 1,600 hours service. Mesdames T. R. Morgan, W. R. Godette, H. B. Rogers and C. H. Miller were each awarded medals for more than 800 hours service.

Rabbi Rypins, who was sent as delegate from the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. to New York City to attend the National convention held there the first week in January will address the Sunday Forum on February 2nd at St. James A. M. E. church at 4 a. m., and make his report at that time.

Harris, who will be remembered as president of the great Educational Congress held in St. Paul a few years ago, has been elected to an important position in the 50th General Assembly of Missouri. Prof. R. L. Logan and C. W. Stokes have also been given positions.

Messrs. J. J. Johnson and A. W. Williams, 548 Wabasha Street, are never more happy than when they are entertaining their friends. Last Sunday they gave a six o'clock dinner in honor of Sergt. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson of Minneapolis, with a magnificent roast goose as the piece de resistance with the fixins that go with it, from soup to nuts. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Mr. Henry Pryor, the famous chef, has purchased the cafe near the corner of Kent Street and St. Anthony Avenue, where his many friends may find him from early morn until midnight ready to satisfy their gastronomic desires in style on short notice. If you are wanting strictly first class home cooking you may find it at PRYOR'S CAFE. Nothing but the best will be served. Call and be convinced.

The Astoria Sanitary System, the clothes cleaning, repairing and pressing establishment, 368 Wabasha Street, formerly conducted by W. Evans and R. E. Anderson, has made a change in proprietors. W. Evans has retired from the firm and Archie Brown succeeds him. The firm name now is Anderson & Brown. Mr. Brown brings to the firm considerable practical experience and customers may rest assured that wants will be properly cared for. Your patronage solicited.

The wedding of Miss Anna T. McMakin and Mr. Eugene M. Harris was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Berry, 599 St. Anthony Ave., Thursday evening, Jan. 23. Rev. J. C. Anderson officiating. The wedding march was played by Mrs. B. C. Archer. The bride's sister was maid of honor and Mr. Theodore Collier was the best man. A number of practical presents were received, refreshments were served and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

The case of Don Romulus Bonaparte against his wife Lulu Bonaparte, which has been on trial for several days in the District Court was decided by Judge Orr last Thursday. The Court denied Mr. Bonaparte's application for divorce but granted a divorce to Mrs. Bonaparte, giving her the care and custody of the two children, and requiring him to pay her attorney's fees and $30.00 per month for the support of the children. This was a hard fought legal battle between Lawyer J. Louis Ervin, who represented Mr. Bonaparte, and Lawyer W. T. Francis, who represented Mrs. Bonaparte.

Lieutenant Paul P. Wigington returned last Saturday from Camp Dix, New Jersey, where he has been stationed for the past five months. Lieut. Wigington enlisted as a private in April, 1918, at Camp Dodge. He was rapidly promoted successively to sergeant, first sergeant of the Headquarters Company of the 368th Infantry, and then to Battalion Sergeant-Major. On recommendation of his Colonel he was ordered to the Fourth Officers' Training School at Camp Pike, Ark., where he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant, sent to Camp Dix and assigned as Battalion Personnel Adjutant of the 413th R. L. Battalion.

The meeting of the Sunday Forum at Pilgrimage Hill last Sunday afternoon was well attended and all who were present were much pleased with the program presented. Mr. Claude Jackson gave a tenor solo; Mr. J. H. Loomis introduced the speaker, D. W. Lawler, Esq., who made an extraordinary good address that was so heartily enjoyed that the eloquent speaker was accorded a unanimous rising vote of thanks. Mr. Jackson sang another solo and six members of the Folk Song Coterie rendered several of the selections that have made this organization quite famous. Mrs. S. L. Maxwell made report of matters of local importance that was very gratifying. Don't fail to go to the meeting of the Forum at St. James A. M. E. church tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, another treat will be furnished to you there.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our friends, neighbors and Rev. J. C. Anderson for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our late bereavement in the loss of Mrs. L. W. Pleasants. The floral offerings, Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walker, F. Daniel Faulkner.

CORRECTIONS.

Several typographical errors occurred in the matter published last week in regard to the late Mrs. J. H. Dillingham, viz: Miss Toller is not Mrs. Dillingham's daughter, but a daughter of her niece, Mrs. Eveline Toller, 47th and Dearborn, Chicago. Instead of Mrs. Lyvers and Mrs. Harris at Mrs. Jackson's breakfast, it should read Mrs. Lyvers and Miss Harris; instead of reading "died in estate," it should read, "died intestate."

A BAD PRECEDENT.

A bill has been formulated and has been, or is about to be presented to the Minnesota Legislature that may set a precedent that will produce much trouble in the future. The bill is entitled: "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Organization and Equipment of an Additional Battalion of Infantry for the Minnesota National Guards." One of the provisions of the bill is: "A SEPARATE battalion of infantry, to be composed of COLORED PERSONS, etc." may be organized. The statutes of Minnesota, or of any other state, for that matter, should not contain any law that makes any distinction among its citizens on the ground of color.

ST. PAUL BRANCH.

Of Equal Rights League Resurrected and Officers Elected.

Last Sunday evening at the residence of Mrs. W. R. Hardy, 518 St. Anthony Avenue, a meeting was held and the St. Paul Branch of the Equal Rights League formulated and adopted a constitution and by-laws and elected officers as follows: J. Q. Adams, honorary president; Hammond Turner, president; Mrs. W. R. Hardy, vice president; W. H. Gaston, secretary; Mrs. R. D. Wiley, corresponding secretary; W. Walton, treasurer. A committee was appointed to fix time and place for future meetings of the League.

Mr. R. N. Travis has just received a letter from Sergt. Huey Mc Carthey—Somewhere in France—stating that the Minnesota boys are expecting to return home in a short time, and wish him to arrange for a Big Home Coming Reception and Exhibition Drill at the Armory, which he has decided to do. That it will be a Hum Dinger no one can doubt. Just wait and watch for further particulars.

ST. PAUL-SUNDAY FORUM.

Will Meet at St. James A. M. E. Church Tomorrow Afternoon.

RABBI ISAAC L. RYPINS.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at St. James A. M. E. church, the Sunday Forum will meet and Rabbi Rypins will make a report of his trip to New York. Everyone who can do so is urgently requested to be present as it will certainly be worth while to hear the message the distinguished speaker will deliver.

NO COLOR LINE TO BE DRAWN.

It will be remembered that some weeks ago the hired manager of "Uncle Sam's Club" for Soldiers and Sailors, corner of Fourth and Cedar Sts., refused to allow some colored soldiers who went there, to enjoy its privileges. Some members of the Equal Rights League interested themselves in the matter and applied to the proper authorities at Washington, D. C., and the answer has come that no distinctions on account of color are to be made in that club.

ST. PHILIPS EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Cor. Aurora and Mackubin.

Sunday Services—Holy Communion and sermon at 11:00 a. m.

Candlemas service at 7:30 p. m. This special service commemorates the presentation of the child, Christ, in the temple of his mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

At this service the candles are blessed and the choir marches with lighted candles. The choir will be assisted by some of the leading soloists who will render special selections.

Visitors are cordially invited, and every member of the church is expected to come out to this service and to the morning service.

Let your light shine before men that they may glorify God and follow your example in going to God's house on the Lord's day to worship Him.

The offering will be for the candle supply.

THE COLOR LINE ABROGATED.

The following matter sent to Rev. A. H. Leatad, of St. Philips Episcopal church was read from his pulpit last Sunday:

January 7th, 1919.

Dear Pastor:

Will you be so kind as to read the enclosed announcement at your services tomorrow, or insert it in your church bulletin? Any personal word you give with regard to the Association will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
 HARRY BURTIS,
 Soldiers' and Sailors' Secretary.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The St. Paul Y. M. C. A. extends to every ex-soldier, sailor and marine a three-months' complimentary membership with full privileges, including gymnasium, reading room and night school. Tell your soldier friends to call at the Association Building, 9th and Cedar Streets, for their tickets.
