One of the most beautiful parties in St. Paul recently was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tandy, in honor of the graduation of their daughter, Miss Kathryn, on Friday evening of last week. There were a lot of the Twin Cities' beautiful buds present, handsomely gowned, and of course "the boys" were there too. The young lady received a number of handsome and useful presents. Of course the usual elegant Tandy refreshments were served. Dancing was the feature.

Mr. Thomas G. McCampbell, of Kansas City, Mo., G. H. P. R. A. M. Missouri jurisdiction was in the city on his annual official visit last week. There was a special banquet given in his honor by Bethel Chapter No. 28 on Thursday of last week at Union Hall. On Friday he was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Walker Williams, 850 Courtland avenue, and in the evening a reception was tendered to him by Maj. and Mrs. J. H. Sherwood, 971 St. Anthony avenue. He enjoyed his visit in every way and was loud in praise of the hospitable people of St. Paul.

The Union Hall Association has made another advance in its progress toward paying the indebtedness on its hall in the very successful three nights' Bazzazzas' carnival last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. There was a prize waltz contest each evening which created much interest. Monday night the winners were Lieut. Paul Wigington and Miss Vivian Sizer; Tuesday night, Lieut. Wigington and Miss Florence Robinson were the winners; Wednesday night, Mr. Archie Brown and Miss Loma Dickson and Mr. Roscoe Harris and Miss Jessie Beard tied for the prize but the management generously presented a box of candy to each of the lady contestants, and a box of candy was awarded to each of the ladies who won on Monday and Tuesday evenings. There was lots of fun each night, and all who attended had all the enjoyment they wished. The Association is to be congratulated upon its success.

On Friday evening of last week, Mrs. E. M. Hill, 1373 University Ave., gave a most delightful six o'clock dinner at her elegant home under the auspices of the Willing Workers Club, of Memorial Baptist Church, Mrs. S. W. Williams, president. The dinner was conceived and successfully carried out by Mrs. Hill, chairman of the committee, assisted by Mrs. T. W. Banks, Mrs. W. M. King, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, assistant chairman, Mrs. E. L. Patrick, and Mrs. Ed. Robinson. The menu was as follows: Celery, olives, pickles, Kentucky oysters, chicken and dumplings, candied yams, white potatoes, cold slaw, corn bread, white bread, coffee, ice cream and cake. The dinner was well patronized and pleased the gastronomical tastes of all who partook of it. Rev. T. B. Stovall brought quite a delegation from Minneapolis, and Rev. T. J. Carr did the same for St. Paul. Exactly $30 was realized, for which Mrs. Hill and the Willing Workers tender thanks to the generous patrons of the Twin Cities.

Mrs. W. W. McCoy, 478 Central avenue, contemplates going to Canada to visit her husband shortly. So her daughter, Mrs. Lillian McKnight conceived the idea of tendering her a farewell surprise party. She got the assistance of some of her neighbors and friends of the Twin Cities and the result was a genuine surprise when Mrs. McCoy, who had attended a movie, came home Wednesday night, she found it in possession of twenty of her lady friends. It would have been a veritable Adamless Eden but Mr. J. Q. Adams slipped in for a few moments. He did not stay long and after his departure the coterie of God's last and best gift to man, enjoyed themselves according to the bent of their inclination. A very delightful luncheon was served and about noon at night the ladies departed wishing Mrs. McCoy bon voyage.

The decorations, cakes and ice cream were George Washington emblems of red, white and blue; and each lady was presented a souvenir hatchet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams took a trip to Stillwater on last Sunday afternoon to visit the Lindsay family. On arrival they were surprised to find the family and a number of friends of Stillwater and the Twin Cities celebrating the 68th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Phoebe Lindsay. Of course they entered into the spirit of the occasion and incidentally had the pleasure of enjoying a dinner that for quality of the dainty and elaborate menu and for class of service they have never seen surpassed. And it was all the more enjoyable because of the fact that it was entirely an ocular, tangible and toothsome specimen of the culinary art and skill of Mrs. Lindsay's daughter, Miss Era Lindsay. Miss Era is saleslady with Simmonet Bros., the leading furniture store of Stillwater, where she has been for fourteen years, which is evidence that she has "made good." She is also quite an expert with the brush and palette and has produced a number of fine paintings. The occasion was highly enjoyed by all who were present to wish Mrs. Lindsay many happy returns of the day.

EVERYBODY INVITED.

St. Phillips Sunday School Club will give a Chitterling and Roast Beef dinner Tuesday evening Feb. 25, from 5 to 9 o'clock, in the church bazaar. Dinner 35 cents. Plenty of good things to eat. The public is cordially invited. Mrs. C. W. Wigington, Chairman of Committee.

WASHINGTON DINNER.

At the New Floros Cafe To-day, Beginning at Noon.

The lovers of an old-fashioned New England Boiled Dinner are cordially invited to the New Floros Cafe, 12 W. 6th street, where a Washington Dinner will be served beginning at high noon and continuing as long as it lasts. Just think! New England Boiled Dinner, corn bread, butter-milk, Washington pie. Everybody invited.

TAKE NOTICE!

All presidents of organized clubs and societies in both St. Paul and Minneapolis are requested to meet in conference Tuesday afternoon, March 4, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. S. E. Hall, 996 Iglehart Ave. Presidents unable to be present are requested to send either their vice-president or secretary as proxy. Harriett G. Hall, Ethel Howard Maxwell.

NO COLOR LINE TO BE DRAWN.

It will be remembered that some weeks ago the hired manager of "Uncle Sam's Club" for Soldiers and Sailors, corner of Fourth and Cedar Sts., refused to allow some colored soldiers who went there, to enjoy its privileges. Some members of the Equal Rights League interested themselves in the matter and applied to the proper authorities at Washington, D. C., and the answer has come that no distinctions on account of color are to be made in that club.

A BAD BILL.

The bill to establish "An Additional Battalion for the Minnesota National Guard" has been before the Military Committee and been recommended to pass. It has been somewhat amended and some objectionable features have been taken out, but it is just about as objectionable as ever, and should it pass, which it is hoped it will not, some of the short-sighted colored men who were the cause of its being framed, will very probably cause to regret that such legislation was enacted in Minnesota.

As a matter of fact there is absolutely no need for such a bill. The bill under which the present Minnesota National Guard was organized is all that is needed except that it be amended to authorize the organization of another battalion just exactly as the ones now in existence were organized. There is no necessity whatever for the bill in question and it should not pass.

MEMORIAL MENTIONINGS.

The talk of the Rev. C. Mohammed last Sunday evening was a unique treat.

Among the several recent additions is the Rev. G. M. Davis of Gary, Indiana.

The supper given last Friday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Grant Bush, 396 Rondo St., by the Memorial Literary Society, was a happy event.

The Valentine dinner given at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Cleary, 499 St. Anthony Ave., by the Twilight Circle, Mrs. C. H. Spaulding president, was a pleasant affair and a decided success.

Sunday, March 2nd, is to go to Church Sunday, and all non-church goers are invited and urged to attend one or both services on that day, at some church.

Services tomorrow: S. S. at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. A hearty welcome awaits all.
