 district and their wives are requested to be present.

Mrs. C. H. Walker, Mrs. W. Goins and their guest, Mrs. Harry Walker of Spokane, were taken sight seeing on Monday afternoon to all of St.
 Paul's show places by Dr. and Mrs.
 V. D. Turner in their handsome grey car.

Today is America Day and Mayor Hodgson has issued a proclamation asking the public to display flags at their homes and places of business.
 He also asks that the pastors of the churches on tomorrow preach special sermons on patriotic subjects.

The Floras Cafe, 12 W. Sixth street has added another feature to please its many patrons, in installing a Gable Automatic Entertainer, or, improved electric victrola, which not only plays instrumental selections but also the latest songs by leading artists.

Mr. Theodore N. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Harris, 285 Rondo St., passed away Sunday at his home after a short illness. Funeral services occurred Thursday afternoon from the residence conducted by Rev. J. C.
 Anderson of St. James A. M. E. church.

Mrs. Florence E. Heuley, after successfully undergoing a serious operation at Bethesda Hospital, is again at home and improving slowly. She wishes to express her gratitude to the friends who converted her sick room into a veritable garden of flowers.

Mrs. Amanda Walker and daughter, Mrs. Edna Anderson of St. Louis, Mo., were guests of Mrs. Walker's sister in-law Mrs. T. R. Hickman, 655 W.

 week. They left Saturday to visit relatives in Winnipeg and Edmonton, Canada.

Messrs Pryor & Coleman of the Red, White and Blue Cafe, corner Kent and St. Anthony have added a very pleasing attraction to their up-to-date establishment in the form of an electric piano. Call and enjoy good music with the good meals you may get there.

Mr. Creon Beasley, our farmer, was in town Thursday passing cigars to his many friends; the cause of his actions was the presentation to him by his wife on Wednesday, of a brand new eight and one-half pound baby boy. He says he will now have some help on his farm.

Go over to Minneapolis on Tuesday evening, May 27th and go to the Second Annual Spring Concert of the Nu-So Choral Club at Bethesda Baptist church, Eighth street and Eleventh avenue south, under the direction of W. C. Jeffrey if you wish to hear some good music.

A prominent white citizen, a sympathizer and well wisher of efforts of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P., called at the office of Dr. V. D. Turner, the vice president this week and left $25.00 for the furtherance of the work.
 The amount was turned over to the treasurer S. E. Hall for distribution.

As may be seen from an advertisement elsewhere Mr. Cyrus L. Lewis has "shy'd his caster" into the auto by unanimous vote of the Ladies' Aid

EXTRA ATTRACTION!

Summer Training School for Teachers.
 The summer training schools for teachers at University Farm, St. Paul, at Crookston and Morris, and at the six normal schools of the state, will begin this year on June 23 and close on August 1. The purposes of these schools is to offer academic instruction in the subjects required for common school certificates, first and second class; to offer in the normal schools professional training in the common school subjects and to provide means by which teachers seeking to earn a first class certificate may meet the standards in those subjects which are required by law; to afford instructors and professional training in such special subjects as will entitle teachers to first class certificates or to certificates of higher rank; to give instruction in agriculture, manual training and home training, as now required of teachers of these subjects in consolidated schools.

ATTORNEY W. T. FRANCIS
BREAKS ALL CRIMINAL COURT RECORDS.
 All Ramsey county records for speedy criminal trials were broken Thursday, May 15th by Assistant County Attorney C. D. O'Brien, Jr., and Lawyer W. T. Francis, in the trial of Harry Williams, indicted on a

ATTY. W. T. FRANCIS.
 charge of assault in the second degree, growing out of the alleged stabbing of Henry Blomberg by Williams, April 19. The trial opened at 2:30 p. m. with the selection of a jury. At 4:40 p. m. the jury returned a verdict acquitting Williams of the charge, the jury having been selected, the testimony of the four witnesses taken, arguments of the attorneys and instructions of the court given, and a verdict returned in that time.
