There was a record breaking crowd at Arcadia Dancing Palace Wednesday night at the reception to returned soldiers by the War Camp Community Service, the first of its kind to be held in Minneapolis. Addresses were made by Capt. Russell Crevison and Rev. T. B. Stovall but there was so much noise and enthusiasm that few people could hear what was said. The male quartet from St. Peter church fared a little better with its excellent singing. The toe-ticking music of Cason Bros. Jazz Band started the dancers all right and everybody enjoyed the occasion to the fullest. Upward of 1,000 persons were present and all were served reasonable, delicious refreshments ad libitum. It was a grand affair.

The convention of the National Association of Chiropractors held at the Radisson Hotel this week was large and successful. There were several colored delegates including: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bayler of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Minerva J. Hawkins, Chicago; C. E. Fossett, Muncie, Ind.; J. Redding, St. Louis; M. Shaw, Indianapolis; Mrs. Lillian Hamilton, St. Paul; Mrs. Carolyn E. Price, and Mrs. Ida M. Smeddler. The delegates were the recipients of numerous courtesies during the convention which pleased them greatly. Mesdames Price and Smeddler were hostesses at a reception in their honor at Hotel Stewart, Thursday night that was very enjoyable. A splendid address by Mr. C. E. Fossett, some classy entertainers and a superb lunch were the features. Mr. Fossett was a guest at the Radisson; Mrs. Hawkins, was the guest of Mrs. Josephine Anthon, 2834 Grand Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Bayler, were guests of Mrs. Nixon, during their stay in the city.
