Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of Mr. Willoughby's Men's Shoe Store, 409 Robert Street (Ryan Hotel). Mr. Willoughby, while manager of the Stanley Shoe Store, made a number of friends among his patrons there, who will doubtless be pleased to know where he is now located, as they know by experience that he will give them courteous service as well as quality goods. He invites old and new customers to call to see him at the new home of Edwin Clapp & Sons fine shoes.

The St. Paul Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. fully appreciating the importance of a better and more friendly relation between the races, is preparing to launch a membership drive with a view to securing two thousand members. This campaign is to be made among both the white and colored people. In furtherance of that work Suite No. 206 Court Block has been secured as headquarters from which the campaign will be directed by those in charge. Every man and woman of the race should be identified with this organization as it is in position and ready to do more for the benefit and advancement of the race than any other force now in existence if we will but lend our assistance. Mrs. Birdie High will be found at the office during business hours to give any information desired. Tel. Cedar 7430.

There are 56 cases on the calendar and Atty. Charles W. Scrutchin is attorney of record in 22 of the cases. Further comment is unnecessary.

MEMORIAL MENTIONINGS.

The revival at Memorial Baptist Church has been abundantly blessed with good results in the first ten days of the meetings. Twenty-five have united with the Church, sixteen of whom are candidates for baptism, which will be administered tomorrow in the morning service. Thus far nearly two hundred dollars have been raised. The Lord omnipotent reigneth; all praise and glory be unto Him.

At 8 o'clock on the evening of Oct. 31, Mr. Samuel Williams will give an exhibition of his great oil paintings and lecture on the wonderful visions which God has given him. You will be gripped and charmed by his striking disclosures. A program will be rendered. Admission free.

Beginning at noon, Oct. 31, the Ever-Ready Club will serve a splendid Halloween dinner of barbecue, chicken, etc., to the public for 50c. All are invited.

Large crowds are expected at both services tomorrow. New members will be fellowshiped in the evening service. S. S. at 10 a. m.; B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. Come early. The unconverted are especially invited.
