Not every city in this country can boast of a lady real estate dealer, but Minneapolis can, in the person of Miss L. O. Smith, who has an office, 702 Northwestern Building, on Hennepin avenue, near 4th street. Miss Smith has been quite successful in her business, her latest achievement being the sale, for cash, to Mr. Tony Rogers, of 910 Third St. So., the strictly modern, six-room dwelling, 225 x 28 1/2 feet, near Nicollet avenue, for $4,500 cash.

"LIVING PICTURES."

The Real Thing, by St. Philips' S. S. Club at the Church Club an Artistic Success.

The most delightful public entertainment of last week, and in fact, of many weeks before, was the classy affair presented by St. Philips' Sunday School Club, under the direction of Mrs. David Hall at the Church Club, corner Portland ave. and Dale street, Friday evening, July 2. The entertainment was entitled, "Living Pictures," and, to say that the title "fitted it like a glove" is a very mild statement of the case; for seldom, if ever, were more beautiful pictures presented to the public; and the fact that they were living ones added much to the enjoyable occasion.

The entertainment consisted mainly of a tableaux vivants entitled: "The Children's Friend," "The Angel of Mercy," "Mammy" or "Mina," "Indian Princess," "The Bachelor's Reverie," "Just Like a Gypsy," "The Merry Widow," "Chong" and "Peggy," the characters in which were admirably and artistically portrayed by Mesdames David Hall, Monjoy Jones, Thos. R. Morgan, Gladys Brown, Eunice Goins, Hazel Craig, Lillian McKnight, E. Martin, Cora Moore, Wm. French, Harriet Cage, Misses Edith Pettit, Muriel and Mildred Wigginton, Harriet Cage, Lucille Elliott, Beatrice Green, Virginia Tibbs, Bella Taylor, Dorothy Farr, Margaret Martin, Mildred and Gladys Kemp, Sadie Johnson; Messrs. Andrew Saunders, Eugene Jackson, Lawrence McCoy, Pardee Lealtad, Percy Hughes, Paul Wigginton; Masters Billie Griffin, David Hall, Rudolph Martin.

The musical numbers were: "The Chinese Bazaar," "Popular Players Orchestra; Duet and chorus, "Tell Me," Miss Lucille Elliott, Mr. Eugene Jackson, chorus; "Mammy" or "Mina," Miss Margaret Martin; "Raindrops," orchestra; "The Rosary," Miss Bella Taylor, piano; Mr. Arthur Hedge, Hawaiian guitar; "Just Like a Gypsy," Mrs. Gladys Brown; "Peggy," Mrs. Gladys Brown and entire company.

The stage settings were very beautiful, artistic and appropriate, as were the costumes, many of which were made especially for the occasion.

The orchestra was directed by Mr. Arthur Hedge.

The hats worn in the finale were loaned by Mme. Wilson, and the floral decorations by Holm & Olson.

The entire affair was most pleasing in conception and execution, and delighted a critical and highly representative audience that completely filled the auditorium.

The director and all who in any way assisted her are entitled to the highest meed of praise and thanks, and justly due to the advertisers on the program and the generous public in contributing to the financial success.

When pluck gets busy, luck takes a back seat.

Pride holds some people up and throws a great many down.

Crumbs of comfort are satisfying only when there are enough of them.
