THE I. B. P. O. E. W. GRAND LODGE.
The Minnesota contingent of about 100 Elks and Daughter Elks, and their friends that went to Kansas City, Mo., to attend the twenty-first annual session of the Grand Lodge, Aug. 22-27, and enjoy the scenes and festivities in connection therewith, have about all returned; and it is the general consensus of opinion that they "had the time of their lives."

Nothing but words of praise of the hospitality of the citizens can be heard and all were struck with wonder and delight at the ocular evidences of progress and prosperity of the people of Kansas City.

Minnesota did not "bring back any bacon" but she was very much in evidence in the work of the Grand Lodge and the public functions. Everybody knew they were there.

The meetings of the members of the Order were both enthusiastic and harmonious.

The officers of the Grand Lodge were elected as follows: George W. F. McMechen, re-elected, Grand Exalted Ruler; Carey Trushant, Atlantic City, Esteemed Leading Knight; R. L. Dixon, Washington, D. C., Esteemed Loyal Knight; John P.
