

ST. PAUL

WEEK'S RECORD OF HAPPENINGS.
IN MINNESOTA'S CAPITOL.

The "Sainted City" and Sainted City —Newspapers Items of Social, Religious, Political and General Matters Among the People.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1920.

All newspapers now-a-days have the type for their reading matter set on typesetting machines. The cost used to be from 75 cents to $1.00 per hour for this work. Now the price has been raised to FOUR DOLLARS per hour. Just think of that when you wish something published as we must pay at that rate for every line set. Bear in mind that all social articles published, occupying more than four lines, must be paid for. Telephone this office, Cedar 5649, and arrange for the same.

Mr. Charles Allen is very ill at the City hospital.

Mr. William Echols remains very ill at his home on Thomas St.

Mrs. Elwell Calloway, 643 Central Ave., has been ill for the past two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Raymond Hill are located at 753 Ashland Ave., with Mrs. M. Burton.

Mrs. W. J. Molett of Chicago is a guest at the home of Mrs. L. Willis, 1460 Sherburne Ave.

Mr. Cleat Oliver, 402 St. Anthony Ave., left Wednesday for a visit with his brother in Chicago.

Mrs. John Hickman, Jr., who has been ill for the past three weeks, is still confined to her bed.

Mrs. Zelia Reynolds, 465 Sherburne avenue, has returned from a two months' visit in Chicago.

Metropolitan last week, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
E. W. Lindsay.

Mr. K. D. Miller, Merchant Tailor, formerly on Rice street, has moved his establishment to 429 University avenue. He also does expert work in remodeling, cleaning and pressing and in ladies' work.

Mr. R. N. Travis is in the midst of a complete change in the arrangement of his place, 40 E. Third St.
It will be much more attractive when the changes are all made and "Thanns" will be more popular than ever.

The Peoples Restaurant, Ware and Mrs. E. W. Lindsay, 918 Woodbridge St., who went to New York city early in September to attend the Grand Household of Ruth, returned to this city last week. Enroute home she made stopovers in Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Evanston and Chicago.

The matrons of Round Table club met with Mrs. Hester Stone, 416 St.
Anthony Ave. Tuesday afternoon.
The topic under discussion was "Why Women Should Vote." Visiting guests were Mrs. J. L. James, Sask., Mrs. W.
J. Mollett, Detroit, and Mesdames Twitwyt, Jones and Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe Crosswaite left last week for Nashville, Tenn., where Mr. Crosswaite will complete his pharmaceutical course at Meharry Medical College. Mrs. Crosswaite, University of Minnesota graduate and drug clerk with Karris store this city for three years, will teach pharmacy at that institution this term.

The Afternoon Art Club gave a surprise "miscellaneous shower" for Mrs. Jasper Gibbs, Jr., at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
J. Q. Adams, 527 St. Anthony Ave., last Wednesday afternoon. The decorations which were very unique and pretty were in Halloween colors of green, black and yellow. The bride received a number of useful and pretty presents. Dainty refreshments were served and the ladies had a very delightful time.

Brown, 402 Rondo street, was unanimously elected as one of the directors. Mr. Burgess will be in St. Paul in December for the purpose of selling stock at $25 per share and will give any information concerning the said company upon application.

The opening at Crispus Allucks Home on the 15th was a grand success, despite the rerouting of the Kelsey of Minneapolis a short time ago in a row over her husband, has been indicted by the grand jury the ladies, headed by Mrs. R. F. Wilson. The large crowd enjoyed the exercises by the children and the speeches by Rev. Lealtad, Attorneys Turner and Ervin and Mr. Campbell and others. The crowd was quite generous in the offering, which amounted to over $30.

The special memorial and ritualistic services held by Gopher Lodge 106, in memory of the late Thos. H.
Lyles at St. James church last Sunday evening, was one of the best attended and most impressive ever held in St. Paul. There was a large number of members of Ames Lodge 106 of Minneapolis present. Traveling Deputy Geo. W. Stewart was master of ceremonies. The exercises consisted of ritualistic services by the officers of Gopher Lodge, Elks, musical numbers by the Junior Choral Club: Mesdames Dovie, Welsh and Gladys Brown and Mr. Walter C.
Minor; sermon by Rev. J. S. Strong; resolutions by C. W. Wrigington; "Thanatopsis" by Wm. R. Morris; benediction by Dr. J. C. Anderson.

church was packed. The Precinct and Ward chairmen responded in full and ably assisted with distribution of literature and seating the public.
Mrs. James Forrestal's explanation of the ballot was clear and succinct.
Other speakers were Mrs. James Schoonmacker of the Ramsey County Women's Committee, Rev. Mr. J. C.
Anderson and Attorney W. T. Francis.
The musical numbers were excellent and contributed materially to the success of the meeting. Mrs. Nellie Seay, a 90-year-old citizen of Nashville, Tenn., and grandmother of Mrs. Francis, who registered before leaving her home, was present and urged the women of Minnesota to exercise their right of franchise. Her remarks were an inspiration to all those present.
