TERMS, STRICTLY IN ADVANCE:

SINGLE COPY, One Year.....$2.40

SINGLE COPY, Six Months.... 1.25

SINGLE COPY, Three Months... .85

Remittances should be made by Express Money Order, Post Office Money Order, Registered Letter or Bank Draft. Postage stamps will be received the same as cash for the fractional parts of a dollar. Only one cent and two cent stamps taken.

Silver should never be sent through the mail. It is almost sure to wear a hole through the envelope and be lost; or else it may be stolen. Persons who send silver to us in letters do so at their own risk.

Marriage and death notices 10 lines or less at 10 cents per line. Additional line 10 cents. Notices strictly in advance, and to be announced at all must come in season to be news.

Advertising rates, 10 cents per square line, each insertion. There are fourteen square lines in an inch, and about seven words in an square line. No single advertisements less than 10 cents. No discount allowed on less than three months contract. Cash must accompany all orders from parties unknown to us. Further particulars on application.

Reading notices 25 cents per line, each insertion. No discounts for time or space. Reading matter is set in brevity type—about six words to the line. All head-lines count double.

The date on the address label shows when subscription expires. Renewals should be made two weeks prior to expiration, so that no paper may be missed, as the paper stops when time is out.

Occasionally happens that papers sent to subscribers are lost or stolen. In case you do not receive any number when due, inform us by postal card at the expiration of five days from that date, and we will cheerfully forward a duplicate of the missing number.

Communications to receive attention must be news, upon important subjects, plainly written only upon one side of the paper; must reach us Tuesdays if possible, but not later than Wednesdays, and bear the signature of the author. No manuscript returned, unless stamps are sent for postage.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the views of our correspondents.

Soliciting agents wanted everywhere. Write for terms. Sample copies free.

In every letter that you write us never fail to give your full name and address, plainly written, post office, county and state. Business letters of all kinds must be written on separate sheets from letters containing news or matter for publication.

Bible Thought for Today

THE RESURRECTION: — Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.—John 11:25.

SEGREGATE COLORED AMERICANS AT LINCOLN MEMORIAL CELEBRATION.

Colored Americans were segregated in the seating of the audience during the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, at which President spoke, it was learned today. This information was contained in a letter sent to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York, by Shelby J. Davidson, executive secretary of the Washington branch N. A. A. C. P. Mr. Davidson's letter says in part:

"I am herewith calling attention to the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial here. The conditions which confronted us as a race were the most shameful and disgraceful in the annals of history. Platform tickets were distributed to the most representative of our colored citizens, and when they appeared, they found segregation running riot. Platform seats reserved for white were in chairs and within hearing distance of the speakers, that might be called reasonable, while back of those seats were those reserved for colored people, roped off from those occupied by the whites and placed about a block from the Memorial in the grass and weeds, with rough hewn benches without backs or supports.

"Placed at the entrance to these seats were marines who were distasteful, discourteous and abusive even to swearing in the presence of our women who accompanied their husbands to the celebration. Some of our people, be it said to their credit, as soon as they saw the situation, turned and left the dedication rather than submit to the abuses offered them."

It is a wonder that Lincoln did not turn over in his grave.

IT PAYS TO KICK

The American Legion city committee of Wilmington, Del., objected seriously to the plan of the general committee to having the Norman D. Scott Post to march in a separate division of colored people instead of with the regular division assigned to the American Legion on Memorial Day. The Legionnaires insisted that the Scott Post be in line with the other three posts, and intimated that it would withdraw from the parade unless the discriminatory ban would be lifted.

The main stand of the American Legion bore good fruit. Col. Doherly hastened to explain that at no time had the committee planned to separate the posts of the American Legion.

It always pays to kick.

IT MUST NOT BE

The proposition to establish a playground for COLORED children in St. Paul is un-American and THE APPEAL is opposed to it.

One of the strange phases of jingoism in these days is the fact that nine-tenths of the plans to degrade the colored people into a pariah class are conceived in the brains of people who call themselves Christians. In the majority of cases when the colored man is kicked down it is done "for his benefit" and "in the name of the Lord."

No doubt some of the promoters believe that they are doing a great thing for the colored people of Saint Paul but they are mistaken.

No greater evil could come to Saint Paul, to the white people as well as the colored people, than the attempt to segregate one group of citizens. It is a thing which will serve to inflame the fires of race prejudice.

It is inconceivable that any colored people could so belittle themselves as to be parties to so infamous a scheme and it is infamous whether it is so intended or not. We are glad to know that the superintendent of playgrounds opposes the plan.

The decent self-respecting people of Saint Paul must fight the nefarious scheme to a finish. If you are a good American you should oppose it. IT MUST NOT BE!

Woman Beaten—May Die.

Mrs. Bertha Black, colored, received what is believed to be mortal injuries when she was struck in the head with a hammer at her rooming house, 146 East Thirteenth street about midnight Sunday. She was taken to the City Hospital in the police ambulance with her skull fractured in three places. Robert Henderson, also colored, is sought by police. Henderson has rooms at the home of Mrs. Black. Detective Joseph Costello, Frank Dusek, John Tucker and Martin Ewald found the bloody hammer near the house.

Henderson and another colored man Harry Stanton, had been arrested by police late Saturday night on a disorderly conduct charge. Henderson had been released on bail but Stanton remained in jail.

Work in Corn Production

More than 14,000 colored farmers in North Carolina, Texas, and Virginia who raised 90,000 acres of corn last year under the advice of county agents, employed cooperatively by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State agricultural colleges, obtained average yields of 35 bushels an acre. The average for all farms in these states ranged from 17 to 25 bushels an acre.

In Virginia nearly 5,000 of the colored demonstrators planted pure seed and about 3,000 selected seed for their 1922 crop. All these demonstration plots of corn were harvested except 87 acres, which were "hogged down". It is estimated that 70 per cent of the colored farmers there are following methods of growing corn taught by extension workers.

Runs Same One Line Ad. Twenty-four Years

Howard, S. D.—Dave Theophilus, a local grain elevator operator, has carried the single line reader "Dave Theophilus sells salt," continuously in the Howard papers for twenty-four years. The ad has cost him approximately $60. He estimates it has been the means of selling thirteen thousand barrels of salt, besides indirectly aiding in many other sales.

Burglars Steal Jail Safe Holding $1,772

Fayetteville, N. C., June 6.—Police announced today they were seeking a band of bold burglars which entered the Cumberland county jail Sunday night and departed with a safe containing $572 in cash and a check for $1,200, the personal property of Jailer W. A. West.

Miss Gertrude McBrown recently graduated from Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, Mass., receiving the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation. She is the first colored girl to graduate from this school.

Democracy's Enemy.

Race rioting in Texas, battling in Ireland, insurrection in Silesia and lawlessness between the fascists and socialists in Italy—all in one day's news—are enough to discourage profoundly all believers in democracy. Attempts to apply self-determination of peoples and self-government in place of autocracy in Europe seems to have resulted principally in bloodshed and more tyranny than ever.

It is a strange example of our degree of progress in civilization that a criminal attack on a white woman by a Negro in Texas should not be a matter for punishment according to law but a signal for a battle between the two races in the immediate locality.

Such divisions of the people into groups on the basis of race is only one of many. We have a situation similar to that in Europe, of the division of the people into many classes, except that it is not geographical. The general welfare is despised in the struggle for occupation, previous nationality or religion. It is a disintegration of democracy.

The experience of the world is that democracies have failed, because of civil war among classes. If the twentieth century democracies are to be preserved it can be done only by increasing preaching and conviction of the principle that no class can prosper long at the expense of the general good.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

WEBER-ELLIOTT

THE SWELLEST WEDDING OF SEASON IS SOLEMNIZED WHEN

Dr. Earl S. Weber and Miss Lucille Elliott are Nuptially Knotted Amid Much Ecst Saturday Evening.

Ever since the invitations were issued for the Weber-Elliott wedding society has been on the tip-toe of expectancy and it was the principal topic of conversation. So it is not surprising that last Saturday evening Pilgrim Baptist church was crowded to overflowing with the friends of the high contracting parties.

On entering the church one's eyes were greeted with the sight of the beautiful altar which had been designed and built by the genius for decoration, Mr. Charles H. Miller. It was a bower of lattice work and flowers and electric lights that was beautiful beyond description in the center of which a large wedding bell hung under which the bride and groom stood and plied their troth.

Promptly at the appointed hour Mrs. S. E. Hall began to play the wedding march while the bridal party entered the church in the following order:

First came the ribbon bearers, Miss Henrietta Bonaparte and Miss Erma Hall who unrolled the ribbon forming the aisle for the wedding party, then came the ushers, Messrs. Raymond Cannon, Roy Wilkins, Wendall Gibbs and Lloyd Stephens. And then followed the "avaunt couriers," little tots; they were, Helene Hilyer, Elizabeth Lee, Valadora Turner, dressed in white with long white ribbons attached to them and they were driven up the aisle by Morris Gibbs, Jr., in a Lord Fauntleroy suit. Then with slow and stately tread came the six bridesmaids attired in beautiful fairy creations of green organdy, each one carrying a white shepherd's crook with white and blue ribbon streamers, and margarites. They were: Miss Katharine Tandy, Miss Belle Taylor, Mrs. Beatrice Gibbs, Miss Gerie Leal, Miss Elenora Castons and Miss Lucille Jeanne. Next came the maids of honor, Miss Marvel Jackson, attired in a gown of peach organdy and carrying pink roses and Miss Grace Wills, gowned in orchid organdy and carrying marguerites. Each wore a beautiful picture hat to match. They were followed by Mrs. Francis Davenport, a sister of the bride, matron of honor, wearing lemon organdy and a superb picture hat of black horse hair braid, she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and sweet peas.

Then came the ring bearer, "Chubby" Brady, attired in a Little Lord Fauntleroy suit bearing the ring in a large red rose.

Last came the bride, Miss Lucille Genevieve Elliott, gowned in white charmuse, trimmed with pearls, white brocaded satin court train lined with green crepe du chine, attached to her shoulders, and her tulle rail was held in place by a crown of pearls; carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

As she reached the altar she was joined by the groom, Dr. Earl S. Weber, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Orlander J. Smith, both attired in regulation full dress suits.

Rev. Harris, the new pastor, then proceeded to read the ceremony that linked their lives. Just as he pronounced them man and wife the bell opened and showered them with roses. Then while they stood, Mrs. Elenor Barksdale sweetly sang, "Until You come,"—Medcalf. Accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Archer. Then Mrs. Hall played the recessional and in reverse order they left the church.

The wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Elliott, 411 University, which had been specially decorated where refreshments in abundance were served.

The wedding presents which were very numerous and beautiful were displayed in a room to themselves.

The bride and groom spent the first hours of their honeymoon at the home of Mrs. Davenport when they motored to Lake Pokegama in their new Ford sedan, a bridal gift of the groom to the bride. They were accompanied by Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Dorothy Nichols.

The bridal party will be at home to their friends on and after June 15.

RADIO SINGERS FORCED TO REPEAT

Heavens Delighted With Program Given by Jubilee Chorus at Camphor M. E. Church.

Eighteen members of the Jubilee chorus of the Camphor Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening sang for one of the longest and most successful programs yet broadcast from the Pioneer Press and Dispatch-Commonwealth Electric radio station. Starting promptly at 7:50 P. M., the program continued for an hour and a half, including a ten-minute intermission.

Confining their songs, with the exception of two numbers, to those which colored singers have made peculiarly their own, the organization sang with a unity and spirit seldom found outside of professional choruses.

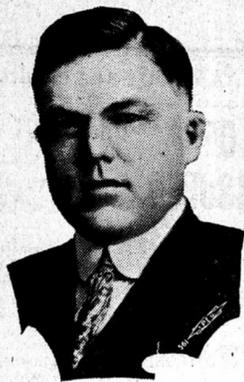

Work Commented Highly Telephone calls received during the intermission commended highly the work of the Jubilee singers and the clearness of the singing from the broadcasting station. One from the Aberdeen hospital, asked that C. D. Jackson repeat his solo, "My Old Kentucky Home," and another that the quartet sing again "Ole Aunt Mandy's Chorus."

The chorus opened the concert by singing the colored spiritual "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray." Other ensemble selections, interspersed with quartet numbers and readings, were "Every Time I Feel the Spirit," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "O, Yes; O, Yes" (with the solo by C. H. Miller, bass); "Go Down, Moses," "Heaven," and "I Want to be a Christian in My Heart," given as the closing number of the evening.

Quartet Proves Popular The quartet which, when not with the chorus, sings under the name of the Twin Cities Harmony Four, is composed of C. D. Jackson, Lonnie Jackson, John H. Hickman, Jr., and C. H. Miller. The work of the four proved exceptionally popular with the auditors of WAAH. Among the numbers they sang were "Look Away," "Ole Black Joe," "Ole Aunt Mandy's Chorus," "Absent" and "Sweet Sabbath Eve."
