GIBBS-WILLS

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT, TWO HEARTS THAT BEAT AS ONE."

Mr. Wendell Gibbs and Miss Grace Wills Are Matrimonially Mated at Pilgrim Baptist Church Last Saturday Evening.

The social affair de luxe of the week was the wedding of Mr. Wendell Gibbs, youngest son of Mrs. Jasper Gibbs, Sr., of Minneapolis, and Miss Grace Wills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wills of St. Paul, at Pilgrim Baptist church, last Saturday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The bridal altar was an immense bank of large palms, with stands of beautiful cut flowers, and amid the foliage were two candelabra of five wax candles.

At the appointed hour the bridal party arrived and entered the church in the following order:

Ushers Homer Cannon and Harold Parker acted as ribbon bearers and unrolled the white ribbon stretching from the door of the church to the front pews. They were followed by the other ushers, Messrs. Morris Gibbs, Fela Burk, James Combs and Jas. Henley, Dr. Earl Weber, Paul Crane.

Then came the bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Castone, gowned in blue taffeta and Mrs. Morris Gibbs, wearing yellow taffeta trimmed with yellow flower sprays. Mrs. Earl S. Weber wore green taffeta trimmed with artificial fruits and flowers. All wore short veils of tulle to match their dresses which were attached to their heads by silver wreaths, and carried baskets filled with roses and baby-breath.

Next came the maid of honor, Miss Katherine Tandy, wearing sunset taffeta trimmed with silver lace with a hat to match, she carried a bouquet of white peonies.

She was followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Mark Gibbs, who wore lavender Spanish lace and carried a bouquet of pink peonies. A hat to match her dress.

The flower girls came next, they were Dorris Goins and Bettie Cagle, both wore pink organdie and carried baskets of pink roses and baby-breath.

Next the ring bearer, Master Morris Gibbs, Jr., attired in a Little Lord Fauntleroy suit, with the ring on a dainty little pillow.

Then the bride, Miss Grace Wills, gowned in white net and tulle trimmed with duchess lace, pink baronet satin train trimmed with duchess lace caught at shoulders by sprays of orange blossoms, lace veil, carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

As she reached the altar she was joined by her prospective husband, Mr. Wendell Gibbs, and his best man, Mr. Everett Roberts, wearing full regulation dress suit.

And then Rev. W. D. Carter of Seattle, Wash., former pastor of the church, read the impressive ceremony that made them man and wife. Her father gave her away.

Mr. Morris Gibbs sang, "Because" and "Rapture."
Prior to the ceremony the audience were favored by sweet music by Mrs. W. A. Hilyard, violin; Mrs. S. E. Hall, organ.
Miss Armada Wilkins played the wedding march.
