

MINNEAPOLIS.

Z. W. MITCHELL, MANAGER. OFFICE No. 294 HENNEPIN AVENUE. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1887.

Don't miss the x-mas sermon at Freya Hall, No. 505 1/2 Washington avenue South.

The South Minneapolis people are beginning a series of social and dancing parties.

Miss Lizzie Geddy spent Sunday in the metropolis the guest of Mrs. A. W. Rhiniers.

Married, Dec. 20th, 1887.—Mr. Henry Wilkins, of Minneapolis, and Miss Addie Franklins, of Indianapolis, Ind. Rev. L. H. Reynolds officiated.

Married, Dec. 19th, 1887.—Mr. Benjamin Harrington to Miss Sadie Harris. Rev. L. H. Reynolds officiating. Only a few intimate friends were present.

All praise the joyous Christmas day and be present at the x-mas services, which will be held three times Sunday at No. 505 1/2, Washington avenue South.

The Shorter Lyceum will tender Rev. L. H. Reynolds a testimonial benefit at Freya Hall, Tuesday Jan. 3rd, 1888, a lengthy program is being prepared and will be published in our next issue.

The Shorter Lyceum met Tuesday evening at their usual place of meeting No. 505 1/2 Washington avenue South. The attendance was large and a most enjoyable time was indulged in by all.

The ladies sewing circle met Thursday at 3 p. m., having renewed their officers, they are ready for another quarter with zeal that warrants a success. Mrs. L. H. Reynolds is president.

All are invited to the entertainment given by the Second A. M. E. Sunday school, Saturday evening Dec. 24. The main feature of the evening will be an elegant Christmas tree loaded with presents, besides an elegant program will be rendered.

All who are lovers of fine music, skating and dancing can be most delightfully entertained Monday evening, Dec. 25th, at the East Side skating rink. There will be an elegant Christmas tree in connection of the above, under the management of Mr. J. E. Waddle. All are invited.

Notice.

All those who desire to attend the grand triple entertainment given by Mars Lodge at Turner Hall, St. Paul, next Tuesday night, need not have any fears about conveyances home, as busses have been secured for their accommodation, leaving direct from the hall at 2 and 4 a. m. Fare reasonable. Accommodations for fifty people.

ST. PAUL.

SILK mufflers, etc. Heavy under wear, fur and plush caps at Pannell & Bailie's.

FOR RENT—An upright piano in good order at $5 per month. Apply at this office.

The school teachers received their pay for December last Friday aggregating $27,000.

MR. W. W. MCCOY who was brought home week before last dangerously ill, is now convalescent.

BRING a book to the Sunday School Book Reception of the St. James church Wednesday Dec. 28.

WANTED 500 people to attend the A. M. E. S. S. Book Reception Dec. 28th, and every one along a book.

A BIG THING ON ICE is the grand triple entertainment by Mars Lodge, next Tuesday night at Turner Hall.

Don't suffer from cold while Pannell & Bailie have such an elegant stock of woolen underwear at bottom prices.

Don't forget to go to Pannell & Bailie's if you wish anything in the gents furnishing line. Prices to suit everybody.

TO MAKE it a success, every one who attends the Sunday School Book Reception Dec. 28th, inst, must bring a book.

ARTIFICIAL teeth inserted solidly in the mouth without a plate by Doctors Ellis and Stanley, No. 450 Wabasha street.

The beautiful banner which was presented to Mars Lodge, by the ladies, last summer, will be on exhibition at Turner Hall next Tuesday.

The Book Reception of the St. James A. M. E. Sunday School is to be a great affair. Remember the day and date, Wednesday December 28.

Don't forget to spend a little money with J. E. Ingham, No. 327 Jackson street, and stand a chance of getting a Christmas gift worth from $25 to $100.

When any of our readers wish to purchase coal or wood, they should leave their orders with Messrs. N. F. and W. H. Butt, No. 56 E. Sixth.

REMEMBER that the Grand Promenade at Turner Hall next Tuesday night lasts from 10:30 p. m. to 4 a. m., with music by the Grand Opera House orchestra.

The theatre goes had a rich treat during this week with the National Opera Company and Newton Beers' "Lost in London" as the attractions. Next week

We have five of our young folks in the high school: Nellie Griswold and Cora Jackson, freshmen; Lulu Griswold, Florence French and Richard Farr, juniors.

The ladies who intend to keep open houses on New Years day are requested to send their full names and addresses, and the hours of their receptions, to this office.

It is no trouble to show goods at Pannell & Bailie's. If you do not wish to purchase you don't have to do so. But you cannot get better goods or lower prices anywhere.

If you do not go to Pannell & Bailie's and examine their stock and learn their prices elsewhere you will regret it. They are headquarters for first class gents furnishings.

For the first time in our history, the Grand Opera House orchestra will furnish the music for the entertainment at Turner Hall next Tuesday night. That of itself should crowd the hall.

"GIRIST BARON" by the famous Corried Opera company, and a grand chorus of fifty artists. There will be a grand Christmas matinee Monday afternoon, and also a matinee on next Saturday.

The concert at Turner Hall next Tuesday night will be rendered by the best talent of the twin cities, under the direction of Mr. F. D. Parker. The famous twin city quartette will be a leading feature.

The panoramic views at Turner Hall next Tuesday night will be the finest ever seen in the Northwest. They will embrace biblical views, views from ancient and modern history, both instructive and amusing.

PROF. J. P. BALL spent several days in St. Paul prior to leaving for Helena, Mont., where he and his son have a photograph gallery. The Prof. tender's thanks to the people our city for their liberal patronage.

A HINT to the wise is sufficient; and we drop a hint to all wise gentlemen and ladies, to go to Pannell & Bailie's at once, to make their purchases of gents furnishings. Latest styles at lowest prices is their motto. Try 'em.

LADY, you may be the lucky one and draw the order for the dozen photographs at the triple entertainment by Mars Lodge at Turner Hall next Tuesday night. Don't fail to be on hand. Only those who attend get a chance.

MONEY TO LOAN—on horses, carriages, wagons, furniture, household goods, diamonds, watches, or any personal property. Call on Jefferson, Cunningham and Williams, Real Estate and Loan Agents, No. 105 East Fifth Street.

PEOPLE who pass along Seventh street are attracted by the fine display of photographs in the show case at No. 93, the Peoples Gallery, Messrs. Witherby & Shepherd, proprietors. Give them a call. One $3x10 and one dozen cabinets $3.00 until the holidays only.

The place for the ladies to go to get Christmas gifts for their lovers is Pannell & Bailie's, No. 412 Jackson street. There they can get scarfs, ties, fine dress shirts, silk handkerchiefs, cardigan jackets, silk umbrellas, suspenders, collars and cuffs, jewelry, silk mufflers, seal and plush caps, in short all sorts of gents furnishings of the latest styles and at bottom prices.

The St. James fair has been a wonderful success in every particular, and has been crowded nightly. The attractions have been far above the average and all who attended have had a good time. The daily lunch has attracted many patrons. To-night and Monday night closes the fair. Remember the Carnival of Nations Monday night. Monday afternoon the Christmas tree festivities will begin at 5 o'clock.

Col. Jas. H. Davidson gave a war talk at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to a highly delighted audience. His subject was "The Colored Troops," and he paid them a high tribute, which they justly deserved. There was a fair number of the intelligent Colored citizens present to hear the lecture. The Colonel is a living witness to the fact that the "Colored troops fought nobly," and seems to take great pleasure in attesting to the fact. He closed his interesting talk by reciting "The Black Regiment in a very acceptable manner.

Notice, Mars Lodge, No. 2202. All communications in reference to donations for the entertainment at Turner Hall next Tuesday night should be directed to W. H. SPICER Minnesota Club, Sec. Com. of Arrangements.

X-MAS IS COMING!

In accordance with the custom that was introduced by this house several years ago, I shall make my usual Christmas Gifts this year as follows:

FIRST—A Warren & Clough 12-stop Parlor Organ, very handsomely carved and ornamented case. Price, $190.

SECOND—A set of Encyclopedia Britannica, 17 Volumes, bound in Morocco, and until recently sold for $60 per volume. Price, $119.

THIRD—A Gentleman's Hunting Gold Watch, 14k, 46 dwt., case elaborately engraved, and containing a fine jewel American movement, fine Gold Chain and Charm. Valued at $125.

FOURTH—Lady's Hunting Gold Watch, handsomely engraved, with fine imported nickel jeweled movement and a handsome gold chain and locket valued at $75.

FIFTH—A Diamond Stud; will set in ring or Lace Pin if desired. Value at $100.

SIXTH—A Fine Opera Glass, pear trimmed. Value, $25.

SEVENTH—A fine large Music-Box valued at $75.

Tickets, properly numbered, will be given with each cash sale of $1 or more.

FINALLY—The beautiful French Doll, Fairy Princess II. This is the seventh of these dolls that have been given away, but is undoubtedly the handsomest ever seen in the West. Her wardrobe is simply elegant—of the finest silks and latest style. The is as large as many children of eighteen months, stands and sits alone, and is complete from the top of her pink ostrich feather to the tips of her pink kid slippers. Her Diamond ear drops can be worn by any little girl, or large one either, for that matter; and are genuine and fine, and worth at least $40 by themselves. The entire Doll is valued at $125.

The tickets for the Doll are free to all applicants, whether purchasers or not. By mail, send 2-cent stamp for reply.

WATCHES, DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, CLOCKS, BRONZES, MUSIC BOXES, Etc.

WEDDING GIFTS.

I have a few Violins and Revolvers left that I will close out at Loan Value, as I am dropping these lines of goods, and when once out of them shall have no more.

INVENTION has revolutionized the world during the past half century. Not least among the wonderful inventions of this age is a method and system of work that can be performed all over the country without separating the workers from their homes. Pay liberally any one can do the work; either sex, young or old; no special ability required. Capital not needed; you are started free. Can be done and return to us and we will send you free, something of great value and importance to you, that will start you in business, which will bring you in more money right away than anything else in the world. Send us your name, address, TRADE & Co., Augusta, Maine.

See Founders exist in thousands of forms but are surprised by the marvelous invention. Those who are in need of profitable work that can be done while living at home should at once send their address to Hallett & Co., Portland, Me., and to give free, full information how either sex, of all ages, can earn from $10 per day and upwards wherever they live, you are started free. Capital not required. Some have made over $500 in a single day at this work. All succeed.
