ALEXANDRIA.
 Beggars Court.
 This town is beautifully located in the finest Agricultural Regions in the North West. It is in the centre of the County and is admirably situated to occupy a national point for Town, Business in quest of Superior Land—of Cities combining Timber, Water, and Prairie; invalids seeking health and a comfortable retreat where hunting and fishing may be indulged in to any extent on the banks of the beautiful Mississippi river; Alexandria had their several claims confirmed.
 Situated on the line between Breckenridge and Fort Abercrombie—equally distant from either—under the management of men possessing the most energy, Alexandria has fair to be one of the largest inland towns in Minnesota. The County to the South and West is Prairie and Timber in the finest proportion while to the North and East there extends an unbroken body of Woodland the greater portion of it being of good size and quality.
 The Prairie and Lakes in the vicinity deserve particular mention. Eden Prairie is ten miles long and from one to one and a half miles wide, with timber along the sides and well watered. It offers superior facilities to Farmers and at many points along are beautiful building spots on the shore of a beautiful lake, "Garden Door" and "Sedge" Prairies are also worth the attention of Farmers being of moderate size, high upland, and entirely enclosed with timber. These Prairies all diverge from the Town Site and are accessible to the State Road, Lakes Agassiz and "Winnona" situated "Eden Prairie" charming bodies of water and for pleasure boating being entirely unobstructed. Within one, two and three miles are Lakes "St. Homedick" "Cedar" and "Darling" containing and feeding a sheet of water 20 miles in extent. These lakes are grand and beautiful. Along their banks are thousands of claims—a country capable of supporting dense settlements, and to those seeking homes in the West is presented a country possessing extraordinary attractions. The Company offer the most liberal inducements to actual settlers on the Town Site. Letters addressed to the Executive Committee, John Ball, Wm. Kincaid, or Judge Gregory, Alexandria, or to George F. Brott, St. Cloud, will be promptly answered.
 Alexandria, Sept. 30 1858.

 Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have gone largely Republican. Pennsylvania sends 16 Republican members to Congress. Our own old county of Allegheny gave 3000 majority against Moccasin Democracy, and the indications are that this institution is near its last days.
