LOCAL NEWS.

JOB PRINTING.—We have just received a large supply of white and colored cards, and are amply prepared for doing first-class work in this line. Also, handbills, posters, circulars, ball-tickets, invitations, programmes, or anything of this kind done in neat style and low prices. Call and examine specimens.

NOTICE.—Persons finding this paragraph marked in their papers will know that their subscriptions expire with THREE more numbers, and that unless they renew before that time their names will be erased from our books.

AT WORK.—Owen & Bridgman commenced work at their saw mill, Lower Town, for the season last Monday. They have hauled from the islands enough logs to last until the "drives" come down.—At that time the upper mill will begin running.

IF ANY of our readers are interested in the study of the novel and pic-tur-esque we would refer them to the names given in this week's letter list.

THE RIVER.—The ice is very soft.—Teams have not crossed for a week. We expect navigation to St. Anthony in a few days.

THE SUPPER.—Now that most of the two Companies garrisoning Fort Abercrombie and Georgetown have arrived in town and the others will by to-morrow; it would be well to consumate the design of giving them a supper at Broker's Hall As many of the soldiers and officers composing these Companies have been our neighbors, such a reception would be peculiarly fitting.

WHEAT STOLEN.—We learn that last week a n old gnetleman living on the upper end of Winnebago Prarie had all his wheat stolen by some despicable scoundrel. As yet, no trace has been found of the thief.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.—In accordance with notice previously given the Democratic voters of this town met at Wilson's Hall on last Saturday evening to make nominations for the election on the ensuing Tuesday. BREVITIES—Maple sugar making is going on briskly. A great many persons are in the "camps," and have already had several good "runs."——Lieut. Butler of Company D, Ft. Abercrombie, came down on Tuesday last.——Lieut. Stanton, of the same Company, arrived on Thursday——The first thunder of the season was on last Saturday evening about nine o'clock, accompanied by quite vivid lightning.

The meeting was organized by the choice of T. C. McClure for Chairman and L. Gorton for Secretary.

A committee of five was chosen to ascertain upon what terms, and where a piece of land could be obtained and report at an adjourned meeting to be held at the office of H. C. Wait, Esq., on the 15th inst., at 7½ o'clock p. m.

The gentlemen chosen on the committee are as follows, viz: Wm. R. Hunter, Christopher Becker, L. Gorton, P. L. Gregory and H. C. Wait.

GEN. FREMONT received his final instructions from the Secretary of War to-day, and leaves for his new Department to-morrow. He will be accompanied by Major Zagonyi, the hero of Springfield, and other fearless, enthusiastic and daring men.—Phil. Inquirer, March 22d.

McCulloch was struck with a minie rifle ball in the left breast—as I am assured by one who says he saw him fall, and after he was taken from the grounds—while waving his sword and encouraging his men to stand firm. He died of his wounds about 11 o'clock, the same night, though he insisted that he would recover; repeatedly saying with great oaths that he was not born to be killed by a Yankee. A few minutes before he expired his physician assured him he had but a very brief time to live. At this, Ben looked up incredulously and saying, "Oh, Hell!" turned away his head, and never spake after.

—The distinguished Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press (Colonel Forney) plainly intimates, what he says he is permitted only to intimate, that "we are on the eve of still greater triumphs than those which have just had new lustre upon our flag."
