

LOCAL NEWS.

APPOINTMENT.—Martin Woolley has received the appointment of Post Master at Brantford, vice John Emerson.

TREATY.—We understand that Hon. Alex. Ramsey will be in town some day during the coming week on his way to form a treaty with the Red Lake Chippewas, having been appointed by Congress to perform this duty.

DIVINE SERVICE.—The re-delivery of Rev. Mr. Thresher's Thanksgiving Sermon having previously been deferred, will take place on Sabbath evening, at the Everett Schoolhouse at 5 o'clock P. M.

TEAMS WANTED.—A good opportunity is offered by Burbank & Co., to those having teams. See advertisement.

PUB. DOCS.—Senator Ramsey has again placed us under obligations for favors, consisting of Vols. 2 and 3 of the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War.

BIG THING.—Yesterday eighty-eight barrels of Government beef—"whose offense was rank and smelled to heaven"—were consigned to their last resting place in an old cellar, back of upper town. There are forty-five more barrels merely awaiting the action of red-tape at Milwaukee to follow in the same direction.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Mr. D. H. Smith is putting up a ten-pin alley on Washington avenue, two doors above Metcalf's tailoring establishment. It will front with a saloon twenty feet square, with an alley attached 14x80 feet. Messrs. Biggerstaff and McCrea are erecting on St. Germain street, one door above Burbank & Co.'s, a building to be used for the manufacture of custom boot and shoe work.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.—On Wednesday evening a Democratic Caucus was held at Broker's Hall for the election of delegates to attend the County Convention at St. Jo on the following Saturday. L. A. Evans, Chairman, Geo. Spafford, Secretary. The following were chosen as delegates: J. W. Tennoorde, H. J. Fowler, C. Lueg, Geo. Schofer, P. Kramer, J. P. Wilson and B. Overbeck.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Convention, according to call, assembled at St. Jo, on Saturday the 22d inst with R. M. Richardson in the chair and J. P. Wilson secretary. The following delegates were elected to attend the State Convention on the 26th: E. O. Hamlin, B. Overbeck and J. P. Wilson. It is hinted that some of the unfettered used a little skulduggery to secure their election as delegates. But as it is "none of our funeral," we don't propose to interfere.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Daniels, of the 1st M. R., and Capt. Hall, of the Seventh Regiment, arrived in town on Monday evening from Sibley's expedition.

Col. Marcey, Inspector General, U. S. Army, and Capt. E. B. Carling, Chief Quartermaster for this State, returned from Fort Abercrombie, as far as Sauk Centre on Sabbath evening, and from there took a road across to Fort Ridgely.

INDIANS NEAR PAYNESVILLE.—EXCITING ADVENTURE OF A COUPLE OF ST. CLOUD GENTLEMEN.—On Saturday, while Dr. J. V. Wren, Post Surgeon for Richmond and Paynesville, and Capt. T. M. Newson, C. S., were returning from Paynesville, and when about three miles this side, three objects were discovered on an eminence a half mile off, observing the movements of these gentlemen as they passed along in their buggy. After some inspection it became apparent that they were Indians, and this idea was confirmed when one of them arose from his recumbent position, folded his blanket around him and started down a ravine that lead to the road some distance in advance, with the evident intention of cutting our party off. But they had heard of Indians before, and were not to be intimidated by anything of this kind; and moreover the Dr. had observed that the miserable red-skin had no gun, and he did not fear the bow and arrows. So, giving the Captain the reins, he took his own rifle, and with perfect coolness prepared to give the wary foe a warm reception. They drove along as before, the near approach to danger failing to effect them, and they talked as calmly as tho' they were seated in their respective offices in this city. Approaching the ravine, the Doctor got his rifle in position and closed his teeth firmly. Coming directly opposite, they found that they were in advance of the enemy, and stopping the buggy waited for his coming, prepared to surprise him. After a moment's suspense a huge—sand-hill crane came stalking along, and seeing the warlike array, started off on his barn-door wings, followed shortly by the two others on the hill. The Doctor took the reins and made the best time to this city that is on record. After they reached here, the story seemed too good to keep.

Their mistake, however, is not to be wondered at. The peculiar state of the atmosphere on the prairie frequently magnifies objects at a short distance so that they can be resolved into anything. It is in this way that two-thirds of our Indian stories have originated; and this party certainly deserve credit for ferreting the matter out. It was but the day before that a squad of men from Paynesville had made a charge in another direction on a brace of these big cranes, they having been reported as Indians.

The Captain says that when the Doctor had his rifle in position to shoot, near the ravine, he observed that both his eyes were shut, but we think this must have been a mistake.

ST. CLOUD VS. NEW ORLEANS.—For more than a year past, Mr. Geo. F. Broth has been residing in New Orleans, being engaged in business in that city. He has a young seven-year old, Charlie, who went to school upon his arrival in the Crescent City. But it seems that even down by the gulf, Charlie's patriotism did not waver, and he would persist in singing. "We'll hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree," very much to the annoyance of the young chivalry who attended school with him. After a while they allowed their ire to get so much the better of their discretion, that they attempted to bring our young Minnesotan to terms, but as he had too much muscle for them, and made it an invariable rule to whip every boy who tried to "coerce" him, they gave up the job. Finally, for the sake of peace, his parents were obliged to keep him at home, as he would sing his song and would also pound unlucky boys who attempted to interfere with him. All we have to say is, good for Charlie! We have no doubt but that he and Ben Butler could soon bring New Orleans around into being a thoroughly loyal city.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.—Some unprincipled parties have put up a large amount of worthless stuff called Saleratus, and scattered it all over the Western States, much to the detriment of D. B. De Land & Co.'s excellent Saleratus. This worthless stuff is put up in blue or green paper and called "B. B. De Land & Co.'s House Wife's Favorite," while D. B. De Land & Co.'s House Wife's favorite or chemical Saleratus is put up only in bright red papers. Beware of the imposition. n3-3t

DIED.—At the residence of her parents, in this city, on Monday, the 24th, inst., Miss S. S., daughter of S. R. and A. D. Foote, aged two years, three months and twenty-four days.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The Copperheads would amend the Constitution for the sake of slavery; the Union men would perpetuate it for the sake of liberty.—Which is the Constitutional party?
