

GRANTED WISHES. BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Two little girls let loose from school... "I'd be a queen and rule,"

VOLUME XLV. JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1882. NUMBER 17

PARTY PROBLEMS.

Great corporations have grown up, wielding a power which may challenge that of the Government itself. New interests have developed themselves, and with them new conflicts, some of them beyond the reach and control of local self-government.

The simple principles which form the foundations of republican institutions remain the same. But their application to the state of things now existing, with its new requirements, is no longer as simple as it was in the days of the past.

The existing political parties, in their present condition, appear scarcely fitted for the discharge of their respective duties.

THE CHINESE QUESTION. SERDALIA DEMOCRAT: It is well understood that the Eastern monopolists are influencing the President against the movement to arrest Chinese immigration.

NEWS AND NOTES. Oliver Morrell, a lad not quite 15 years old, was arrested at Omaha for robbing the postoffice.

THE GRANT PENSION BILL. A Washington telegram says the passage of the bill to put Gen. Grant on the retired list of the army, has opened the flood-gates in the Senate.

Gerrymander. Just now this word is in common use. Here is the origin of it.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT. WASHINGTON, April 20.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today: Alphonse T. de Orléans, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Austria.

THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE.

The People vs. Monopolies. Booneville Pleader.] The question of the future, will be, The People against Monopolies. This has a great many collateral branches, but all may be considered offshoots from the same stem.

THE MISERIES OF THE RICH. Going Abroad to Get Away from the Skeleton in the Closet. Springfield Republican.] It is said that a large share of those who come abroad ostensibly for the education of their children, or for the restoration of their shattered healths and disorganized Constitutions, and who by long absence from their native land virtually give up their bright future for foreign homes, have in fact been seeking to rob or to rob themselves.

THE MEETING IN GREENVILLE IN JUNE. The Board of Mississippi Levee Commissioners met in Greenville a few days since to consider the interests of the overflowed section, which it is their duty to protect and guard, and among other things to discuss the expediency of raising a levee.

THE VEGETABLE TRADE AT ST. LOUIS. Globe-Democrat.] Strawberries were fairly plentiful, but the prices were well up, the scarlet variety selling at 40 cents, the Wilson at 60 cents, and the black at 40 cents.

THE CHINESE. Booneville Pleader.] New England wants a high protective tariff—not to protect labor but to protect wealth and monopoly—to make the rich richer.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD CASES. Columbus Index.] The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company last week filed a bill of injunction in the Superior court of Atlanta restraining the Georgia Railroad from carrying out its plan of twofold circulars so far as they apply to the Georgia railroad and its branches.

A STRUGGLE FOR BREAD. The struggle of five thousand operatives against $2,000,000 of capital still goes on at Lawrence—a struggle begun by girls who were joined by other workmen and work-women, who had been treated to a like bitter dose.

A YOUNG WOMAN BLOWS SIXTY YARDS. Macon Telegraph.] During the tornado in Terrell county, on Monday night, Miss Tibbetts lay in bed in one of the rooms of the McCarthy dwelling, when the storm struck it.

WHAT DREAMS ARE MADE OF.

A Practical Essay on Dreams With Some Remarkable Examples of What They Have Foretold. BY REV. I. W. COOPER. No doubt dreams are produced by various causes, to-wit: The Holy Spirit, Satan, intensity of thought, grief, excessive joy, and various other causes.

THE POLICE POWER ENFERRED UPON THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN OF THE CITY OF JACKSON. WASH. NEWS. Appellee brought suit against appellant to prevent the police power conferred upon the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Jackson from being used to regulate the practice of interchanging with the city in the case of non-payment of a license.

FASHION NOTES. New pokes poke downward in the forehead, and the neck is the fashionable shade of white.

THE HANDSOMEST DESIGNER IN APRIL. The handsomest designs are seen in applique bands, to be sewed on as trimmings of the handsomest silk costumes.

PUTTING ON MORNING. The custom of "putting on morning" for the day's work, even the higher classes, and is gradually becoming obsolete.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE STRIKES THE PEOPLE OF THE NORTH. Special to the Picayune.] New York.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, publishes the President's message to the Mississippi River improvement commission.

THE AMERICAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY. The American Bell Telephone Company proposes to put up a line on the New Orleans and Great Eastern road from New Orleans to Meridian.

THE CHINESE QUESTION. PORT ARTHUR REVEALS. One mistake Mr. Arthur made was in consulting the Chinese Minister as to views of what would or would not be compatible with his construction of the anti-Chinese bill.
