The stormy March is come at last, With wind, and cloud, and changing skies I hear the rushing of the blast...

Love Unchanging.

And is it just or kind, my mother, To break my heart to soothe your own? And would you give me to another...

I never loved but once—no, never! And when a heart like mine is given, It fondly loves, and loves for ever...

Then deem not that such love will perish, By any change, or time, or chance, Or can I ever cease to cherish...

Congressional Intelligencer.

THE Proprietors of the National Intelligencer, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year...

To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress one dollar...

To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the proceedings in Congress...

When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one sixth will be made from the price: that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next session.

Weekly National Intelligencer.

This paper, being made up of such portion of the contents of the National Intelligencer proper as can be compressed within the compass of a single Newspaper, continues to be issued and mailed to subscribers every Saturday at two dollars a year...

To bring this paper more nearly within the reach a cheap paper from the seat of the general Government, a reduction will be made in the price of it where a number of copies are ordered and paid for by any one person or association at the following rates:

For ten dollars six copies will be sent. For twenty dollars thirteen copies; and for each sum of ten dollars, above twenty, eight copies will be forwarded; so that a remittance of Fifty Dollars will command thirty-seven copies.

PROSPECTUS

For publishing in the town of Kosciusko, Attala county, Mi., a weekly newspaper, to be entitled the KOSCIUSKO CHRONICLE.

The United States of America is a great country—the State of Mississippi a great State—the county of Attala a great county—and the Town of Kosciusko, no doubt, simple facts that the seat of government has not yet been removed to said town—that Big Black has not yet been cleared out, so point opposite said town—that the Jackson, through Canton, to said town—and no newspaper published in said town, before this great people. Now, it is a well established fact, beyond the point of contradiction, that we are a great people who live in this great country—State—county—and that we expect great works to be accomplished some time or other, by somebody or other, or somebody else, and that Kosciusko would be a great place if these great improvements were but just completed...

Therefore, be it known to all men, women, children and grasshoppers, that the subscriber, in order to facilitate these great undertakings, and prevent their being nipped in the bud, and more particularly to turn an honest penny for himself, proposes to commence the publication of a little newspaper in said town, on Saturday, the third day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty six, to be styled the Kosciusko Chronicle, and to continue to publish said paper weekly, until these great objects shall be accomplished, should the Lord be pleased to spare his life so long, and he be willing to continue in the business that long; and if not him, then to have it done by somebody else after him. The subscriber being a strong believer in the doctrines promulgated by the immaculate Harry of the West and the Godlike Daniel of the East, it might be surmised by the knowing ones that the paper will be whiggishly inclined; but be this as it may, he will not at this time contradict it.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum in advance. G. W. HARLOW, Kosciusko, Dec. 30, 1845

Congressional Intelligencer.

THE Proprietors of the National Intelligencer, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year, have determined to issue, during each session of Congress, a weekly sheet styled "The Congressional Intelligencer," to be devoted exclusively to the publication, as far as its limits will permit, of the proceedings of both houses of Congress, and Official Reports and documents connected therewith, including a complete official copy of all the Acts passed by Congress during the session.

To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress one dollar, and for the second session of each Congress fifty cents.

The price of the Congressional Intelligencer, to be issued on each Wednesday during the approaching session of Congress, will therefore be one dollar, paid in advance.

To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the proceedings in Congress, including an authentic official copy of all the laws passed during the session, would be needless.—The man who takes no such paper ought to take one, if he does not prefer remaining ignorant of what most nearly concerns his own destiny, and that of his family and of posterity forever.

When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one sixth will be made from the price: that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next session. A remittance of ten dollars will secure thirteen copies; and for fifteen dollars remitted from any one person or place twenty copies will be forwarded.

Weekly National Intelligencer.

This paper, being made up of such portion of the contents of the National Intelligencer proper as can be compressed within the compass of a single Newspaper, continues to be issued and mailed to subscribers every Saturday at two dollars a year, payable in advance in all cases—no account being opened with subscriber to the weekly paper.

To bring this paper more nearly within the reach a cheap paper from the seat of the general Government, a reduction will be made in the price of it where a number of copies are ordered and paid for by any one person or association at the following rates: For ten dollars six copies will be sent. For twenty dollars thirteen copies; and for each sum of ten dollars, above twenty, eight copies will be forwarded; so that a remittance of Fifty Dollars will command thirty-seven copies.
