

master that on that night there was to be a special meeting of the principal members in that part of the parish, at an old school house, where Mr. Cherry, the boy's master, with several others, repaired, and found his statement correct. They then secured two of the ring leaders, who consented their whole arrangements. They were brought to town and hung on Saturday and four others were hung this morning, and we have now in jail from thirty to forty more, most of whom will share the same fate. They were to have risen on Saturday night.

THE AUT OR OF THE LINES ADDRESSED TO MISS M. A. J. H. *****.

And Love, with his gentle touch, hath 'woke
The melting minstrelsy of thy heart,
Thy strains, sweet as if a seraph spoke,
Tell what thou wouldst otherwise impart.

Thy "day-spring buds of life" have faded,
Thy autumn sun now around thee shine,
And thy affections are not shaded
By the twilight which mark thy decline. E

Mr. CLAIBORNE OF MISSISSIPPI.—This gentleman, judging from the letters that appear on all sides in the Mississippi papers, must have "jumped Jim Crow" very promptly to secure an election to Congress. He was Anti-Bank and Loco Foco, or National Bank, according to the meridian he was in. Since his election, however, he is Loco Foco.—N. York Express.

DEED—On Tuesday the 17th instant, JOHN DICKEY after a painful illness of nine years, during the whole of which time he was confined to his bed, unable to move. He bore his affliction with christian fortitude, and now enjoys a high reward for all his sufferings.
