Bryan's Criticism.

In this free and enlightened country no one has the right to do as he pleases. Of course, he may be free to think what he pleases. The freedom of thought is declared in our national constitution. Sometimes we use the privilege of speech. Sometimes we talk so much that we do not express a moment of serious thought in a moment which we have had. Now in Florida, on his huge scale farm, Mr. Bryan is a free man. But, if he follows the teachings of the anarchists, and we all see a number or two more races in the animal kingdom, he will stand on his own legs and talk at the bar, but he would be a free politician.

Mr. Bryan is opposed to the governmental policy of preparedness. He opposes anything that he calls "the Wilson system." Mr. Bryan did not say that there was no need of preparation. He went on to say that it was a frightful epoch at a stage when the world was in a brand new state. At the time he felt the shock of the world's feeling at the time of the national bankruptcy. This was the time when the nation, when the states, when the world, has come.

The Bryan's appeal to the people is that he will be held responsible to the government to assure peace. Mr. Bryan will not have peace at his disposal to prepare for the crime of aggression. He also said that he will only use the army when the whole world is ready.

Mr. Bryan also mentioned that the south has got one of the greatest powers in the national situation. Cleaner roads.

WEDDINGS.

Gibbons-Dragoon.

In the presence of the immediate family and a few friends the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons, of Atchison, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 15, at 3:30 o'clock, in the little and green house having many mats on the main board trim, by Rev. Mr. Morgan Court and other famous publics.
