

which I was honored, and which it would be difficult for me to forget.

I was called upon to address the Convention. In what terms of respect, and for his military services, of praise, I spoke of the distinguished individual, who is the occasion of this note, all who heard me can testify.

It was in this train of the same thought and argument that I addressed the appointment of Mr. Swartwout to the office of Collector of the most important and injurious examples.

It was in this train of the same thought and argument that I addressed the appointment of Mr. Swartwout to the office of Collector of the most important and injurious examples.

These topics of my address to the convention on Monday last, have been selected by General Jackson for comment and animadversion.

With regard to the insinuations, and gross epithets, contained in Gen. Jackson's note, all unpertinent, and derogatory from the dignity of a man who has filled the highest office in the Universe, respect for the public, and for myself, allow me to say that, like other similar missiles, they have fallen harmless at my feet, exciting no other sensation than that of scorn and contempt.

Now every body that knows any thing at all of the matter, knows that President Jackson, whether he did or not knowingly appoint defaulters to office, did knowingly retain them in office.

It was during President Jackson's administration that the famous correspondence took place between the Secretary of the Treasury and the notorious Harris of Mississippi—a correspondence extending through a year and a half—the Secretary continually reminding Harris of his delinquency; and threatening to remove him, and Harris continually promising to pay, but taking care to steal more and more of the public money every day.

It was during the progress of this celebrated correspondence, that the Hon. J. F. H. Claiborne, afraid that the continued delinquency and increasing peculation of his friend Harris might possibly wear out even the patience and long suffering of Gen. Jackson's administration, addressed the following letter to the old General, begging that the defaulter might, for political reasons, be retained in office at all hazards—and he was retained till his delinquency amounted to a sum absolutely enormous!

Extract of a letter from Hon. John F. H. Claiborne to Gen. Andrew Jackson, President of the United States, dated administration in Mississippi. His family and connexions are extremely influential and all of them co-operating with us in the arduous struggle which we are now making.

We are now in the midst of an electioneering campaign. Gov. Rannels, R. Walker, Maj. H. W. Edwards, and myself, constitute the democratic Van Buren ticket. It will be a close contest! The Nashville papers circulate extensively throughout our State.

With high respect, I remain Your Excellency's ob't serv't, JOHN F. H. CLAIBORNE.

To his Excellency, the President of the U. S.

THE TIMES

FAYETTE, MISSOURI, SEPTEMBER 12, 1840.

ONE PRESIDENTIAL TERM Proposed by General Jackson—Disavowed by Van Buren—The People will establish it by the election of General HARRISON.

THE TRUE REPUBLICAN TICKET—

FOR PRESIDENT, William Henry Harrison, or, of, John Tyler, of Va.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Philip Cole, of Washington. Joseph C. Brown, of St. Louis. Samuel C. Owens, of Jackson. Stephen Cleave, of Rails.

Notice. All persons indebted to the Tippecanoe Club, for subscription, are requested to make payment immediately.

Notice. All persons indebted to the subscriber for advertising and Job Work, are requested to liquidate the same, either by Cash or Note, as soon as possible.

GOVERNOR'S ELECTION. We hope, against our next, to be placed in possession of the returns, official and complete, of the late election for Governor, Lieut. Governor, and Congress.

FLORIDA—SUCH A GOVERNMENT! The space occupied by the speech of General Harrison and the letter of General Gaines, in connection with our continuation of the remarks of Mr. Ogle, not only trenches on our usual editorial dimensions, but prevents us from copying much in relation to the awful condition of affairs in this ill-fated territory.

The Indian massacre at Indian Key—the letter of a committee of citizens of Tallahassee, to the President of the United States, remonstrating against the conduct of Gov. Reid, in calling on the military of the U. S. to operate against that portion of the people who differ with him and his masters in politics—the apprehension of Martial Law, &c., have justly excited a degree of thrilling interest, and sympathy, amongst all classes and conditions of readers and of men.

A paragraph from the St. Louis New Era, of Tuesday, is the only indication we have had, that it has attracted the attention of the government. That paper says "that orders have been received for the marching of the 8th Regiment U. S. Infantry to Florida. It has been for some weeks at Jefferson Barracks."

It becomes again our mournful duty to record the successful effusion of blood in this ill-fated Territory, and the triumphant accomplishment, on the part of the Indians, of an adventure bordering on romance.

The steamer Santee, Capt. Poinsett, arrived on Wednesday morning from the South, bringing as passengers the family of Dr. Perrine, late of Indian Key. She brought in tow from New Smyrna, the steamer Wm. Gaston, which boat had sustained injury some time since.

ATTACK ON, AND DESTRUCTION OF, INDIAN KEY. The steamer Santee, Capt. Poinsett, arrived on Wednesday morning from the South, bringing as passengers the family of Dr. Perrine, late of Indian Key.

Extract of a letter from Hon. John F. H. Claiborne to Gen. Andrew Jackson, President of the United States, dated

Dear Sir—Many of the early and constant friends of each regret and sorrow, that the present receiver of public moneys at this place is to "consider himself dismissed unless his returns are made before the 1st of October."

"MAKE ROOM FOR THE CONQUERERS." A paper called the "Missouri Sentinel," published at or near Paris, in this State, copies from the Nashville Union, edited by a known Abolitionist, the following federal lie, knowing it to be such, and sends it abroad to its readers in connection with a long list of "triumphant victories" of the same kind.

"NORTH CAROLINA Is coming to the rescue! The democratic [Loco Foco] candidate for Governor is running ahead of his federal opponent."

Does your mother know you are out, little one?

ANNIHILATION!

We advise our Loco-foco friends not to read the following until after they have digested the North Carolina election. Both taken together would be too strong for the stomach.

Dear Sir—It was my object, if practicable, in addressing the enclosed letter to Col. Johnson, to prevent any unpleasant feelings between the two gallant officers of the late war, who, from my own personal knowledge, entertained a high respect for each other.

Yours respectfully, T. D. CARNAL.

Col. S. C. Todd.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24th, 1840. Dear Sir—Dear Sir—Immediate by reading the substance of a speech said to be made by Col. R. M. Johnson, at Chillicothe, I addressed a letter to him, a copy of which is furnished.

I view it as patting to rest now and forever the foul slanders that have been and are now circulating against you, as regards your conduct in the decisive and glorious battle of the Thames, and in my judgment leaves no good grounds for controversy or unpleasant feelings between two brave officers of that gallant army.

I have read the correspondence between yourself and Col. Johnson, relative to him at Chillicothe.

From the personal of Col. Johnson's letter I am satisfied that he intended me no injustice in the speech referred to, and that his opinions and sentiments must have been misrepresented.

I view it as patting to rest now and forever the foul slanders that have been and are now circulating against you, as regards your conduct in the decisive and glorious battle of the Thames, and in my judgment leaves no good grounds for controversy or unpleasant feelings between two brave officers of that gallant army.

From the enclosed remarks of Col. C. S. Todd, you will at once discover that you take issue and widely differ. If consistent with your feelings, furnish me with your views on the subject.

My Dear Sir—Your favor has been received, in which you observe, that by my reported speech, an inference may be drawn that I am not only in doubt as regards the courage of Gen. Harrison, but that I had but little respect for him as a commanding General.

My Dear Sir—Your favor has been received, in which you observe, that by my reported speech, an inference may be drawn that I am not only in doubt as regards the courage of Gen. Harrison, but that I had but little respect for him as a commanding General.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming. We shall have all sorts of times, no doubt.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

What rare sport we shall have next week! All the stables are full and running over now with young Medocs, and Colliers, and Unceases, and the Lord only knows what, and more coming.

For the Times.

Messrs. EDITORS:—Next to the observance of religious obligations, I conceive SOCIABILITY the most important link, or consideration, in civilization, and happiness to mankind; and I think, it may be truly said, that sociability is the handmaid of virtue, a legitimate offspring of piety.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love. And on the other hand the more vicious the community, the more distant, the more malicious, and the least sociable are the people.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

There we find sociability. In fact, the very spirit of religion is to "spend and be spent"—to commune with each other—to confide, respect, and love.

READ AND PRESERVE.

ELECTIONS FOR 1840.—The following table will be found handy as a matter of reference. It has been compiled with great care, and is believed to be accurate:

Table with columns: State, Election, Pres., No. Elec., Votes. Lists states including N. Hampshire, Vermont, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, New York, New Jersey, Mississippi, Michigan, Arkansas, Massachusetts, Delaware, Maine, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, New Jersey, Mississippi, Michigan, Arkansas, Massachusetts, Delaware.

Those states marked with a dagger, (†) whose members of Congress on the same day that State officers are chosen. The Electors meet at the capitals of the respective states in which they are chosen, on the second day of December, and give in their ballots for President and Vice President.

The following is an official statement of the result of the election for President and Vice President in 1836.

Table showing election results for 1836. Columns: State, Van Buren, Whig, Van. Buren. Lists states including Massachusetts, Vermont, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, New York, New Jersey, Mississippi, Michigan, Arkansas, Michigan, Maine, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Michigan. Totals: Van Buren's popular majority 2,117,059; Electoral, Van Buren 170; Harrison 124.

The electoral vote at the last election stood thus:

Table showing electoral votes for 1840. Columns: Van Buren, Whig, Harrison. Lists states including Maine, N. Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Michigan, Van Buren, Harrison. Totals: Van Buren 170, Whig 124, Harrison 11.

Whole number of votes. 792

The Receiver General's Office will be opened for business on Monday next. Dr. Penn has rented the building formerly occupied as the Branch Bank of the United States, and more recently as an Agricultural Warehouse and Seed Store.

The "Howard National Corps" will perform this evening, Sept. 12, Tobin's celebrated comedy, in five acts, entitled the HONEY MOON, and the laughable force of the IRISH LION.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., by the same Mr. LEWIS SMITH, of Canfield, to Miss MARRIA A. WILSON, of Monticello, Howard county, Missouri.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., by the same Mr. LEWIS SMITH, of Canfield, to Miss MARRIA A. WILSON, of Monticello, Howard county, Missouri.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., by the same Mr. LEWIS SMITH, of Canfield, to Miss MARRIA A. WILSON, of Monticello, Howard county, Missouri.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., by the same Mr. LEWIS SMITH, of Canfield, to Miss MARRIA A. WILSON, of Monticello, Howard county, Missouri.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., by the same Mr. LEWIS SMITH, of Canfield, to Miss MARRIA A. WILSON, of Monticello, Howard county, Missouri.

On Friday evening, the 4th inst. by L. Roblin, of Glasgow, Mr. GEORGE W. MORGAN to Miss SUSAN DUNN, both of Thumtousburg, Charleston county, Missouri.

NOTICE.

The undersigned having obtained from the Clerk of the Howard County Court, on the 7th day of September, 1840, letters of administration testamentary on the estate of Zachariah Burnett, deceased, all persons having claims against said estate, are required to present the same properly authenticated, within one year from the date of the letters aforesaid, and if not within three years from the date of said letters, they will be forever barred.

A. J. BURNETT, A. F. BURNETT, Executors.

Glasgow Insurance Company.

Office Glasgow Insurance Company, Glasgow, Sept. 7, 1840. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of this Company, held at their office on the 1st Monday in September, 1840, declared a dividend of five per cent. upon the capital stock paid in, for the first half year, ending on the 30th June last, and it was ordered, that the same be entered upon the stock notes of said company.

W. F. DUNCAN, Secy.

Co-partnership Notice.

WE, the undersigned, having commenced the MANCHESTER business in CARROLLTON, under the firm and style of Root & Woodson, offer for sale a general assortment of Mercanizer we hope (as we are permanently located) that our friends of Carroll, and the adjoining counties, will call and examine our stock of goods, so well suited to punctual customers on six months time, commencing January 1st, 1840, but as we are in part unacquainted, we shall expect in every case good reference.

A. D. ROCK, G. P. HERNDON, September 12, 1840—20—3t

NOTICE.

TAKEN up by David H. McLean, living in Brown's Lick township, in Howard county, Mo., one several acres about sixteen lands high, and bounded by the letter U on each shoulder, two white spots on the left side, and two on the inside of her neck, with some white hairs in her forehead, with a knot on her back, under the saddle, supposed to be twelve years old or upwards. Agreed to thirty dollars, by Hamilton Stone and M. Hall, on the 25th day of August, 1840. Sworn and subscribed to before me,

ELISHA ESTES, J. P. Sept. 5th, 1840. 25—4t.

Administrator's Notice.

HAVING, on the 9th day of August, 1840, obtained from the Circuit Court of Howard county, letters of administration (de bono non) on the estate of Thomas Lamb, deceased, I hereby give notice to all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased, to come forward and present the same to me, within one year from the date of said letters, or they will be forever barred.

DAVID W. MARTIN, Administrator, de bono non. Sept. 5th, 1840. 25—4t.

Notice.

I hereby give notice, that letters of administration, were granted to the undersigned by the Clerk of the County Court of Charleston county, on the estate of John J. Saunders, deceased, bearing date the 10th day of August, 1840, all persons having claims against said estate, are required to present the same properly authenticated, within one year from the date of the letters aforesaid, or they will be forever barred.

ANN SAUNDERS, Adm'r. Sept. 5th, 1840. 25—4t.

Notice.

I hereby give notice, that the undersigned has obtained from the County Court of Howard county, letters of administration, with the will annexed, upon the estate of Thomas Lamb, deceased, bearing date the 5th day of August, 1840, that all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and that all persons having claims against said estate are requested to exhibit them properly authenticated, within one year from the date of said letters, or they will be forever barred.

JAMES WALLACE, Adm'r. August 29th, 1840. 24—4t.

New Cheap Goods.

The undersigned is now receiving and opening in addition to his former stock, a large lot of Seasonable Goods, consisting in part of new style Calicoes, Domestic, Spun Cotton, Rag Cotton, Straight Bonnets, Seal Skin Caps, Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Powder, Lard, Soap, Candles, Mackerel, Nails, Painted Buckets, Tin Cans, Rope, superior Cheating Tobacco, Indigo, Madder, superior Brandy and Wine, all persons having claims against the estate of Thomas Lamb, deceased, are requested to present the same properly authenticated, within one year from the date of said letters, or they will be forever barred.

GLENN W. GIVENS, August 29th, 1840. 24—3t.

New Establishment.

TAILORING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES. O. S. Coleman of John M. Seabury. I have the pleasure to announce to the citizens of Glasgow and of the surrounding country, that having conceived themselves in business, in the town of Glasgow, and having made arrangements to carry on their trade on an extensive scale, they are now prepared to receive orders for work, and to deliver the same, not only in a workmanlike manner, according to the general reputation of the terms, but to be able to make an improved system. The former fashion has been that during long residence in Glasgow and its vicinity, he has gained a reputation, his workmen, which will give him that of any of his brethren, such workmen, and the laborer, although not as well known in the immediate vicinity of Glasgow, he believes from his long experience in the business at Huntsville, Kentucky county, and at Fayette, he can speak with confidence of his skill and ability; he is willing to give the best of his work, by the reputation gained at the above named places.

Cutting attended to with promptness, and the same attention paid as if the making were to be done in the shop.

Reports of the latest fashions received regularly from Paris, London, New York and Philadelphia.

N. B. Clocks and Watches made in the finest manner, and the Ladies may rest assured that their Clocks and Watches will be made in an improved and we trust approved manner.

O. S. COLEMAN, JOHN M. SEABURY, Glasgow, August 29th, 1840. 24—3t.

Ball News.

The regular ball notes will commence on the 10th inst. on Tuesday the 15th day of September next, and continue till the 1st day of October.

First day—Jockey Club purse $100, free for all, mile heats—$10 entrance.

Second day—$1000 purse for two year olds only, mile heats, $500 subscription, and forfeit, now closed with twenty-one entries.

Third day—Jockey Club purse $300, two mile heats, free for all—$10 entrance.

Fourth day—Jockey Club purse $300, three mile heats, free for all—$10 entrance.

Fifth day—Jockey Club and Proprietor's purse $200, mile heats, three heats in five, $20 entrance.

Same day—Second race Jockey Club purse $50 free for all two year olds except the winner of the above Cup stakes, $5 entrance.

The winning horse for the 5th day will not be excluded from running any subsequent day, except with the owner's consent. All other respects the rules of said course will govern.

BENJAMIN WATTS, Proprietor. Fayette, June 27th, 1840. 45—4t