

THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commended to their several authors by the lofty patriotism, valor, talents and success of Gen. Harrison, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections, which party malignity may now presume to forge against the war and time honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the petty attacks of Loco-Foco Federalists, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barricade against all opposition, are no less than the CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES OF ILLINOIS, and of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADISON, JAMES MONROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHNSON, ANTHONY WATNE, LANGDON CHEVRE, SIMON SNEYDER, GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERCY, COL. GREGG, COL. DAVIS, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even THOMAS RITCHIE himself!

We begin with the testimony of Col. RICHARD M. JOHNSON, now Vice President of the United States.

Col. Johnson said, (in Congress)— "Who is Gen. Harrison? The son of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, and who, by his valor, his patriotism, and his successful efforts, to secure the liberties of his country."

"Of the career of Gen. Harrison I need not speak—the history of the West, is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils and its hopes. Universally he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the field."

"During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other General officer, he was perhaps, often in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

JAMES MADISON, in a special message to Congress, Dec. 18, 1811, said, "While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit, the fortitude, the courage displayed by every description of troops engaged, as well as the collected firmness which distinguished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valor and discipline."

JAMES MADISON in his message to Congress, Nov. 1812, said, "An ample force from the States of Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. Harrison, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are persons, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by their personal merits."

In Mr. MADISON'S message of Dec. 1813, the compliment was extended, as follows: "The success on Lake Erie having opened a passage on the territory of the enemy, the officer commanding the Northwestern army, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associates, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage force."

"This result is signally honorable to Major Gen. HARRISON, by whose military talents it was prepared."

The following tribute of praise was paid to General Harrison, in 1811, by eleven of the officers who fought under his banner at the battle of Tippecanoe: "Should our country again require our services to oppose a tyrant or a savage foe, we should march under Gen. Harrison with the most perfect confidence of victory and fame."

JOEL COOK, R. B. BURTON, NATHAN ADAMS, A. HAWKINS, H. BURCHSTEAD, ROSEA BLOOD, JOSIAH SNEILING, O. BURTON, C. FULLER, G. GOODING, J. D. FOSTER.

Extract of a letter from Col. Davies, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe, Aug. 24, 1811: "I make free to declare that I have tinged there were two military men in the West, and Gen. Harrison is the first of the two."

Message of Simon Snyder, Governor of Pa. Dec. 10, 1813. "Already is the brow of the young warrior, Croghan, encircled with laurels, and the blessings of thousands of woman and children rescued from the scalping knife of the ruthless savages of the wilderness, and from the still more savage Proctor, rest on Harrison and his gallant army."

In the Legislature of Indiana on the 14th Nov. 1811, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Gen. Wm. Johnson, thus addressed General Harrison: "Sir—The House of Representatives of the Indiana territory, in their own name, and in behalf of their constituents, most cordially recognize the congratulations of your Excellency on the glorious result of the late sanguinary conflict with the Shawnee Prophet, and the tribes of Indians confederated with him; when we see displayed in behalf of our country, not only the consummate abilities of the general, but the heroism of the man; and when we take into view the benefits which must result to that country from those exertions, we cannot, for a moment, withhold our most fervent applause."

The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white horse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Davies: "Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, Gen. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool, deliberate, skillful and gallant conduct in the battle of Tippecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation."

Gen. Anthony Wayne, in his letter to the Secretary of War, giving an official account of his sanguinary Indian battle, in 1794, said: "My faithful and gallant Lieutenant Harrison, rendered the most essential service, by communicating my orders in every direction, and by his conduct and bravery, exciting the troops to press for victory."

"The following resolution, which passed both houses of Congress, with but one dissenting voice, is calculated to make the 'petticoat hero's' feelings such as will cause every man to feel that the 'white horse' is not a fiction, but a reality."

"Resolved by the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thanks of Congress be, and they are hereby, presented to Major General William Henry Harrison, and Isaac Shelby, late Governor of Kentucky, and, through them to the officers and men under their command, for their gallantry and good conduct in defeating the combined British and Indian forces under Major General Proctor, on the 19th of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, capturing the British army, with their baggage, camp equipage, and artillery; and that the President of the United States be requested to cause two gold medals to be struck, emblematical of this triumph; and presented to General Harrison and Isaac Shelby, late Governor of Kentucky."

HENRY CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN GALLAHAD, President of the Senate, pro tempore. April 4, 1815.—Approved. JAMES MONROE, Gov. Shelby to Mr. Madison, May 19, 1814, says: "I feel no hesitation to declare to you that I believe Gen. Harrison to be one of the first military characters since known."

Col. Richard M. Johnson to Gen. Harrison, July 4, 1813, says:

"We did not want to serve under orders or leaders; but under one [Harrison] who had proved himself to be wise, prudent and brave."

Commodore Perry to General Harrison, August 18, 1817, says: "The prompt change made by you in the order of battle on discovering the position of the enemy, has always appeared to me to have evinced a high degree of military talent. I concur with the venerable Sirke in his general approbation of your conduct in that campaign."

The opinions of the Hon. LANGDON CHEVRE, of the importance of the victory of the Thames and the bravery of Gen. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON.

The victory of Harrison, was such as would have secured in a Roman General in the best days of the Republic, the honors of a triumph. He put an end to the War in the uppermost Canada."

Sentiments of the Hero of Fort Stephenson, Col. Croghan, now of the War Department: "I desire no plaudits which are bestowed upon me at the expense of Gen. Harrison."

"I have felt the warmest attachment for him as a man, and my confidence in him as an able commander remains unshaken. I feel every assurance that he will at all times do us ample justice, and will not give me more pain than to see his name soiled upon this occasion to dish out their friendly feelings and acclamations; and as long as he continues, (as in my humble opinion he has hitherto done,) to make the wisest arrangements and the most judicious disposition, which the force under his command will justify, I shall not hesitate to unite with the army in bestowing upon him that confidence which he so richly merits, and which has no occasion to be withheld."

At last we come to the neat, complimentary of Thomas Ritchie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Coalition in the South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens denouncing war upon the "companion of the British and Indian Confederates," the West! The Richmond Enquirer said: "General Harrison's letter tells us every thing that we wish to know about the officers, credit himself. He does justice to every one but Harrison; and the world must therefore do justice to the man who was too modest to be just to himself."

THE ONLY TRUE AND GENUINE REMEDY, and so declared by the oath of Mr. Solomon Hays, has never been made known to any person or persons except to Messrs. Comstock and Co., and they only have the right to prepare the said genuine Liniment, which has established a reputation for effectually curing the Piles in every case, and in all the various stages of the complaint; also Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Sores and Ulcers of every kind. All who have ever used it are highly pleased with its effects, and all who are in need of cures for any of the complaints mentioned, are respectfully requested to ask any one who has ever used it. And we refer with confidence to all who know of the article, and especially to Matthew J. Myers, Esq. Athens, N. Y., and Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, all of whom speak in the strongest terms and with the fullest confidence from personal application and knowledge of its positive and never failing cures.

LOOK OUT! Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of Comstock and Co., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

SOLEMAN HAYS. Sold wholesale by Comstock and Co., 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., and by nearly every storekeeper in America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT, Fayette.

Look Out!! "Caution is the Parent of Safety." An attack of the "Piles" may be positively prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT.—There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.

None genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper.

SOLEMAN HAYS. Sold at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT, Fayette.

Caution Circular. To Druggists and Country Merchants. Those valuable articles OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA for the Hair, and HAYS' LINIMENT for the Piles, &c. have been extensively counterfeited. Those wanting those preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house, for Comstock's articles. The true articles have the name or signature always on the wrapper, and vendors will do well to remember that when ordering, as the imitations are so expressed in nearly all the newspapers throughout the country, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends throughout the Union are requested to give us immediate notice, by letter, should any of the counterfeits appear in their respective places. Respectfully, COMSTOCK & CO. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher st., N. Y.

Oldridge's Balm of Columbia. This article was first introduced into the New-York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in reproducing hair when it has fallen out, keeping the head free from dandruff, (a most troublesome ailment on a gentleman's coat collar), and giving a softness and beautiful luster to the hair before the fair, has induced some persons to get up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no other article will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality; but the Balm of Columbia, as a sure article, purifying to be the Balm of Columbia is genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. on the outside wrapper. Some have been deceived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and genuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of Comstock & Co. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Don't be deceived with the assurance that any without the name of Comstock & Co. is made in the same way as just as good, all such pretensions are false and known to be so by the Counterfeits.

Sold Wholesale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., by Comstock & Co., and by nearly every storekeeper throughout America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Doctor TALBOT.

To the Bald Headed. This is to certify, that I have been told about 20 years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case and Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock and Co.

FANCY PRINTS—300 ps Fancy Prints 59 ps. Blue Mercurials, 10 ps. Chambrays for sale by RICHARD H. LAW. Boston Notion. THE LARGEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD. THE spirit of the age is utilitarian. Improvement is stamped upon the face of every thing. All the useful arts are progressing with unparalleled rapidity; and the art of printing is coming in for its full share of the common improvement. Determined not to be outdone in any thing that pertains to his profession, where there is a fair chance for exertion and enterprise, the undersigned has determined upon issuing a sheet twice the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper) and will contain eight columns more matter than the Boston Weekly Times. This sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined it shall fully sustain a cognomen so full of meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City: It will be the largest newspaper in the world—and no exception, and will be printed on a sheet thirty seven by fifty two inches. It will be entirely filled with reading matter; and will contain three thousand eight hundred and eighty eight square feet of print in fine type; and a single number will contain more reading than an ordinary book of three hundred pages.—The great dimensions will enable the publisher to draw largely upon the most popular periodicals and magazines of the day, both American and Foreign; and as the selections will be made with great care, it is believed this paper will be a welcome NOTION in every family. Besides a new synopsis of the current news of the day (as published in the Boston Daily Times) it will contain Poetry, Popular Tales, Theoretical Criticisms, Police, and other Court Reports, Humorous articles, &c. &c. The whole world of literature will be ransacked to fill it. From the study of Philosophy, down to the Police Court, through all the regions of reason, poetry, romance, wit, and the ample record of folly, we shall glean from the past and present, and from all nations, to present as pleasing and useful combinations of recorded thoughts and current history, as the world can produce. This is our "BOSTON NOTION."

The great amount of wisdom and fun—of wit and philosophy—of novelties and antiquities—we are enabled to offer weekly for six cents per copy; only six cents and we can do it because of the facilities of our press and office, and the connections of daily and weekly publications. For three dollars we can sell a year volume equal in quality of matter; with every variety also, to fifty two volumes of novels, such as are issued from the press of the day. Fifty two large volumes for three dollars! Effected all by improved machinery; and by a determination that we will not be outdone in enterprise and usefulness. TERMS. THREE DOLLARS A YEAR, always in advance. No orders, no matter from what source, will be attended to, unless accompanied with the CASH. Single copies, six cents each. Post Masters or others, remitting twenty dollars shall have eight copies sent to such persons and places as they may designate. Mail subscribers will have their papers deposited in the Post Office in this city every Saturday evening. GEORGE ROBERTS, Publisher. POSTSCRIPT. THE NOTION will be published on a DOUBLE SHEET, every three months and sent gratuitously to all subscribers who have paid for one year.
