

"ARISTOCRACY OF DEMOCRACY."

BENJAMIN DAVIS, alias, BENJAMIN DAVIS.
Can the Rev. Editor of the Sentinel explain how it is that the letter E was never introduced in his name until after it appeared in that paper as editor? Was this alteration made from his being ashamed of the honorable mechanical profession of his father, who was a tailor—and he himself being apprenticed to the trade?—Has he ever denied his occupation? Or does he wish to create the impression that he is connected with the highly respectable family who spell their names with an E?—Satisfactory explanations are requested.

—We observed, on Friday night last, a singular phenomenon in the sky, resembling in shape the eighth part of a circle and in color a little less brilliant than the moon. Various conjectures as to the cause of its appearance have been put forth by our contemporaries, none of which appear to us very probable. We surmise that some comet, going on a visit from the South to the East, came within the influence of the delightfully cool atmosphere we have enjoyed for the last five months and got froze in its tracks.

This will, no doubt, furnish the disciples of Miller with another text from which to preach the destruction of the world.

A called meeting of the Fayette Temperance Society was held in the Methodist Church on Thursday night; we were not present, but understand a very able address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hardy. Dr. Scott was loudly called for to address the audience, especially by the ladies, but declined with the promise that he would give in his experience at the next regular meeting; it will doubtless be very interesting, as he has been an "old sinner."

"Winter has left us; and glad are we of its departure."—St. Louis Organ.

There must be considerable difference in the climate of St. Louis and Fayette if winter has left you. It has not left us by any means. The weather has been as cold here, the past week, as any time during the winter.

"Our Legislature has adjourned, and the members have returned to their respective homes." To Messrs. Jackson and Huston leather medals ought to be awarded for their financial knowledge. Their names will be handed down to posterity as the authors of the "Penalties" and "test oath" bill.

The above extract is from the St. Louis Organ. Messrs. Jackson and Huston get but little credit from the intelligent portion of the Democracy for the part they took in the last session of the Legislature. We are pleased to see justice meted out to them by the leading Democratic papers in the State.

What has become of the "Giles"? It left this port on Tuesday last, for Glasgow, heavily freighted and has not since been heard from. It is conjectured by some she struck a snag, went to the bottom, and all on board perished! We hope some of our Glasgow friends will enlighten us on the subject.

From the following paragraph, taken from the Reporter, we think Gov. Reynolds is rather in a "bad fix," when it is so well known that he is the author of the articles published in the Jefferson Inquirer, charging a coalition between a portion of the Democratic members of the Legislature and the Whigs. "Burst the ball" on them Mr. PEXX, we will assist you in rolling it a little—we will.

"We would inform the Jefferson Inquirer that public suspicion in different parts of Missouri directed towards two individuals, as the authors of the infamous articles which appeared in that paper, charging the existence of a coalition between a part of the Democratic members of the Legislature and the Whigs. Justice requires that the branded calumniators should be known, in order that the innocent may not suffer for the guilty. It may become necessary for us to publish the statements with which we have been furnished upon this subject, unless the authors give their names. Easiness cannot be converted into reverence, and therefore the writers of those infamous articles might as well make a merit of necessity, to save us the trouble of exposing them to public contempt."

Verily, the editors of the organs of the "Central Clique" must be a precious set of scamps. Hear what the Reporter says of Mr. Lusk.
"Lusk is either doing work on contract at half price, or he swore to a falsehood before the Committee on printing. Really, the Governor's organ is getting to be quite a respectable press."

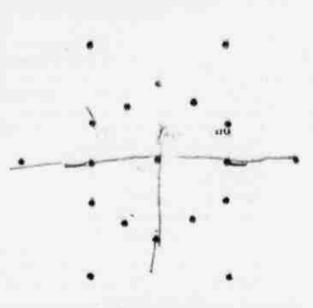

RELIEF LAWS.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, against the Relief Laws of the State of Illinois, is the most important in its general bearing which has been made for many years. It abrogates all laws of that State, and of any other States which may have been induced to enact laws intended for the relief of the people, and which are unconstitutional in their character. This decision is binding, too, upon the State Courts, and if the Judges are true to the Constitution and to their oaths, all their future acts must be in strict accordance thereto. The redemption and valuation laws are, in truth, from this time forward a dead letter upon the statute book, and even if the State Courts undertake to carry them into effect, parties will have recourse to the United States Courts, where such interposition will be set aside. We suppose the decision was known at Springfield before the adjournment of the Legislature, but it is not probable that any action was had on the subject. Fortunately for Missouri, such laws have not been enacted here, and though there have been, and will be, instances of great sacrifices of property, the mass of the people will recover from these pecuniary disasters much sooner than if unwise and unconstitutional laws had been interposed for their relief.—St. Louis Era.

Wakefield, the farm in Westmoreland county, Va., on which Gen. Washington was born, is offered for sale.

The Veto Message of Gov. Porter upon the Pennsylvania Apportionment bill, is one of the most shameless documents ever issued by an Executive officer. The bill passed the Senate by a vote of 51 to 42. Out of 24 members of Congress it gives the Whigs 8—and a chance for two more—thus securing to the Loco Fococos 14 members, or nearly two thirds of the whole delegation. And yet Gov. Porter vetoes the bill avowedly because he would "feel unwilling to entrust the defence of Democratic principles to such champions as would be probably elected, were the bill to become a law!" This is a proclamation of profligacy—a bold, barefaced avowal of party baseness, of which no other Governor in the Union could have been guilty. Porter evidently aspires to a nomination on the Tyler ticket; we see no reason why he should not deserve it.—N. Y. Tribune.

The following is the solution of the puzzle, published in our last.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

March 1st, 1843.

TOBACCO—Since our review of last Saturday morning there has been a very fair business doing in Tobacco, and the market yesterday exhibited a decidedly more firm and buoyant character than for many weeks previous—indeed, it would seem as though the downward tendency of prices was at length permanently arrested, notwithstanding the very unfavorable position which dealers still occupy, in consequence of the high rates of freight, and the unparalleled rates for all kinds of exchange. Some sales of running parcels were made on Saturday at 2, 3 and 4 cents, as in quality; but these rates, we understand, are now very generally rejected for good lots. We quote for a 2 1/2 cent for X, 3 1/4 for seconds, and 4 1/4 for thirds, remarking, however, that, although no dealers refuse to accept the lowest rates, yet our highest figures are not current even now, unless for lots of very superior quality, or for selections. Sales are occasionally made both below and above the rates quoted, but they cannot be referred to as giving any just criterion of the state of the market. We notice the sales of the three days, which amount to about 870 hhds, as follows: 75 hhds, of which 8 firsts at 4, 30 2ds at 3, and 37 X at 2 1/2; 15 hhds, of which 18 firsts at 4 1/2, 30 seconds at 3, 60 X at 2 1/2, and 7 do. at 2; 30 hhds, of which 7 firsts at 4 1/2, 23 seconds at 3 1/2; 37 hhds X at 2 1/2; 15 hhds seconds and firsts at 3 1/2; 38 hhds, 11 X at 2 1/2, 3 do. at 2 1/2, 19 seconds at 3 1/2, and 5 first at 4 1/2; 50 hhds, 12 at 2 1/2, 31 at 3 1/2, and 4 at 4 1/2; 74 hhds, 30 at 2, 34 at 3, 8 at 4 1/2; 7 hhds X at 2 1/2; 12 hhds X at 2 1/2; 115 hhds, 51 at 2, 51 at 3, and 13 at 4 cts per lb. The stock on sale is now pretty fair for the season, and the receipts are on the increase. Arrived since the 24th ult., 1349 hhds.

POAK—We can hear of no demand for large parcels. The small lots taken for plantation use, are at the following rates—say for Messrs $7 25, $7 50, the latter being the prevailing price. M. O. $8 25, prime $5 37 1/2 a 5 50. There is very little bulk pork in market. Good lots would probably command $2 a 2 1/5 per 100 lbs. for hog round, though there is no much demand.

PUBLIC DEBATE.

The members of the Fayette Debating Society will hold a public debate in the Baptist Church, on Tuesday, the 21st inst., commencing at early candle lighting.

By order of the Society,
JOHN H. TURNER, Secy.
Fayette, March 11th, 1843.

Masonic.

There will be a meeting of Fayette Lodge No. 47, at this place, on the 4th Monday of this month, at 12 o'clock, upon a business of importance to the craft. The neighboring Lodge and all transient brethren are respectfully invited to attend. By order of the Lodge,
JAMES H. SAUNDERS, Secy.
Fayette, March 13th, 1843.

TO THE PUBLIC.

HAVING noticed Doctor Enswiler's published intention to dispose of notes which he holds against the citizens of Monticello, at public auction, this day, I deem it proper to say, he holds a small one on me, which is incorrect in amount, and that no more will be paid on it than is really due. I would add that the Doctor's views of the estimate which the citizens of Monticello place on legal and moral obligations, must be founded upon the estimate which his own heart prompts him to make of himself; and if he will remain hereabouts for a season, the gentleman will be shown how far he has been governed by legal or moral obligation, before he visited this country.
Monticello, March 15th, 1843. S. W. LEWIS 1-1

Fashionable Hats—Spring Style.

W. H. MCKINSTRY, 13 Market street, St. Louis, has just received the Spring Fashion, and has finished a few dozen hats of that pattern. He is now manufacturing and will have on hand in a few days, the largest and most splendid assortment of fine fashionable hats ever offered in St. Louis. Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine the style.
