

Foreign Periodicals.
Republished of
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE FOREIGN QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor and forbearance not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory, and Radical—“Blackwood” and the “London Quarterly” are Tory; the “Edinburgh Review,” “Whig” and the “Westminster” Radical. The “Foreign Quarterly” is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.

The prices of the Reviews are less than one third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader.

TERMS.
PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN ADVANCE.
For any one of the four Reviews, $3.00 per annum.
For any two, do. 5.00 “
For any three, do. 7.00 “
For all four of the Reviews, 8.00 “
For Blackwood's Magazine, 3.00 “
For Blackwood and the 4 Reviews, 10.00 “

CLUBBING.
Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to any address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

Remittances and communications must be made in all cases without expense to the publishers. The former may always be done through a Post-master by landing him the amount to be remitted, taking his receipt and forwarding the receipt by mail. Post-paid or the money may be enclosed in a letter, Post-Paid, directed to the publishers.

N. B.—The postage on all these Periodicals is reduced by the late Post-Office law, to about one third the former rates, making a very important saving in the expense to mail subscribers.

In all the principal cities and Towns throughout the United States to which there is a direct Rail-Road or Water communication from the city of New-York, these periodicals will be delivered FREE OF POSTAGE.

N. B. Two or three good Journeyman Shoemakers wanted, to whom constant employment and good wages will be given.

New Firm.
LELAND WRIGHT AND A. J. WILLIS, having associated themselves in the SADDLERY BUSINESS, under the style of Wright & Willis, take this method of informing their friends and the public generally, that they intend keeping on hand a general assortment of all articles in their line of business, which they will sell on as accommodating terms as they can be obtained in Howard or any adjoining county. They are prepared to suit cash customers, and also to extend to punctual customers the usual credit. All kinds of produce will be taken in exchange for work at the highest cash prices, such as green and dry Hides, Wheat, Corn and Oats, Flour, Meal, James, Linnen, Linsey, &c. They will spare no pains to merit, and shall hope to receive, a liberal share of public patronage.

SADDLERY.
Still Cheaper.
The undersigned having permanently located in Glasgow, Mo., respectfully informs the citizens of Howard and adjoining counties, that he is prepared to manufacture Saddles, Bridles, Trunks and Harnesses; and in short every article usually made up or kept by saddlers; and he feels confident in saying that work made by him shall not be inferior to any manufactured in Missouri, both in point of material, workmanship, fashion, and durability. Persons wishing anything in his line will do well to call and see his work before purchasing elsewhere, as he is determined to sell as low as any establishment in the upper country, and he thinks a little lower. Call and see for yourselves. A good assortment of work always on hand, if not, made to order on the shortest notice.

The following articles will be taken in exchange for work: Hides, Beef-cattle, Bacon, Wheat, Flax seed, &c.

Howard Hotel—Fayette.
BY A. MARLEY.

HAVING again taken charge of my old establishment, (the Brick House, south corner of the public square), I will be pleased to see my old friends and customers, and as many new ones as may feel disposed to give me a call. The House has been fitted up throughout with new furniture—beds and bedding. The table will be supplied at all times with the best the country affords, and no pains or expense will be spared to render those who may give me a call entirely comfortable.

An excellent brick stable is conveniently situated to the House, which will be attended by an experienced hostler.

A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited—Charges moderate.
Fayette, January 27th, 1846. 46-1f

CITY HOTEL,
Boonville, Mo.
The subscriber returns thanks to his customers for their liberal support and solicits a continuance of favor. From those who have never visited his House, he respectfully begs a trial. Charges as low as at any other Hotel in this city.

Boonville, November 1st, 1845. 34-1f

Look Here.
COUSIN Jemmy, where do you deal now? Why at Carroll's corner of course. Do you think he sells goods cheaper than them Jews. Devil take the Jews, don't say Jew to me, they raked me down once, when I was in the wagon and straps, but they'll never catch this child again. Ditto, Cousin. (Glasgow, January 31st, 1846.)

What a nice quiet place this is.
WE can ride up here and hitch our horses, so much room, and its so quiet, you have none of them old credit stores watching you all the time you are dealing, and as soon as you go out have one at your elbow saying: come give me your note for your year's account, and then such a yell from one of them Deger's that will make a lady faint and fall back. (Glasgow, January 31st, '46)

HAVE YOU BEEN AT CARROLL'S?
YES indeed, and the way I got bargains is death to the Jews; iron at 4 1/2 cents; salt $2.00; cotton seven bits; sole leather 15 cts. Don't say any thing more if you please, how far is it to Carroll's and how will I know when I get there? It's about two miles, and the large fine store at the upper end of town, be sure to go up stairs before you leave. (Glasgow, January 31st, 1846.)

CARROLL HAS BEAT THE JEWS.
I say Smith, 'taint possible that Carroll is beating the Jews. Well, he ain't doing nothing else, Horse. (Glasgow, November 29th, 1845.)

SULPHATE QUININE.—Just received a quantity of Quinine and for sale by WM. R. SNELSON.
Fayette, April 18th, 1846.

FLAX-SEED.—The highest market price will be paid for Flax-seed in Goods, by J. RIDDLESBARGER & Co.
Fayette, April 18th, 1846.

Land for Sale!!
THE undersigned, desirous to remove to California, offers for sale, on the most accommodating terms, twenty thousand acres of Land, lying principally in the counties of Chariton, Carroll, Livingston and Linn. It is well watered and timbered—being selected with great care—and particularly adapted to agricultural purposes. Among these lands there are many good farms now in cultivation, varying in price from one hundred dollars to five thousand, that are desirable situations, to which the undersigned would respectfully call the attention of agriculturists. The lands will be sold in lots of from 160 acres to 640, as it may be necessary to suit purchasers.

Terms—One fourth of the purchase money, cash, and a credit of from one to five years will be given on the remainder, if desired.

New comers and persons wishing to procure land in either of the above mentioned counties, are respectfully requested to call on the undersigned, four miles east of Carrollton.
SARSHAL WOODS,
Carroll county, May 8th, 1846. 9-1f

N. B. Persons wishing to emigrate to "Texas," and who want to procure cheap homes there, on good terms, are informed, that he has 4,428 acres of land in that country, which he will barter for horses, mules, cattle, or any other kind of stock; it will be sold in lots to suit purchasers. S. W.

How to get HEALTH!!!
Thousands of persons continue to cure themselves of Colds, Coughs, Headaches, Rheumatic Affections, Small Pox, Measles, Costiveness, Influenza, and the host of those indications of the body of the blood being out of order simply by perseveringly using Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, so long as any symptoms of derangement in any organ remain. Often by using this course, which has been proved according to Nature, it being merely assisting her, have many in a few days been restored to Health, who, but for Brandreth's Pills had been sick for months. The value of this medicine is beyond price!!!
Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, are indeed a universally approved medicine, which by its peculiar action, cleanses the blood of all impurities, removes every Pain and Weakness, and finally restores the Constitution to perfect Health and Vigor.

November 29th, 1845. 33-1y

Saddle, Bridle, Trunk and Harness Manufactory.
THE undersigned having associated themselves together for the purpose of carrying on the above business, have such arrangements as will enable them to sell work much lower than has ever before been obtained in this county; at the same time pledging themselves that no pains shall be spared in rendering their articles equal to any manufactured in Missouri, either in workmanship or durability.

A good assortment of work always on hand and finished at the shortest notice. All orders in their line will receive prompt attention. All kinds of produce, usually taken by Saddlers, will be taken in exchange for work.

Shop at the old stand, on the east side of the public square. KRING & PATERSON.
N. B. All kinds of Leather on hand, and for sale at the lowest cash prices. Persons wishing to purchase, will please call on the undersigned.
JOHN N. KING.
Fayette, May 16th, 1846. 10-1y

Hats and Caps.
THE subscriber would inform the public that he continues the Manufacture of Hats and Caps, at his old stand, No. 38 Main street, between Chesnut and Pine, where he is always supplied with a full stock of the various kinds of goods in use, in his line. All the latest improvements in the trade have been adopted by him, and neither pains nor expense will be spared to make his hats equal in durability and beauty, to any manufactured either east or west of the mountains.

By an arrangement which has been made, at much expense, he will produce the New York Spring and Fall fashions simultaneously with their production in that city, thus enabling the fashionable custom to supply themselves a month earlier than heretofore.

Doing exclusively a cash business, the good customer is not taxed with the delinquency of the bad; and willing for once to pay only, the customer is saved much time and trouble.

Orders for single hats or caps, specifying the circumference of the head, promptly attended to. Each and every hat is guaranteed to be all that is represented in selling, and the subscriber will be responsible for any deficiency either in the color or wear.
