BEAVER, Nutria and Cassinere hats, of every style and quality by JOHN MCNEIL & Co. St. Louis, March 6th, 1847.

THE FIRST FLOWER OF SPRING!!

WE have the pleasure of informing the citizens of Howard and adjoining counties, that we have just received per steamer Tamerlane, one of the most beautiful stocks of SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS that ever reached this market, most of them just imported by our House in New York direct from Europe under the new tariff. Now all we will say is: "Just call and you will see wonders in styles as well as prices; for we never anticipated for a moment that we ever good offer goods of such magnificent styles at such astonishing low rates. Large advertisements and puffing are so common with merchants, that we have declined saying more than is just necessary for the information of our customers and the public generally. We will give you a brief outline of the Sorts, Styles and Prices of Goods, which will easily prove to you that there is no reading of puffing advertisements necessary, but merely an examination of the goods themselves. We have (of those just received)

Calico at 4 1/2 cts. per yd. worth 12 1/2
Bleached Cotton 6 do do do 12 1/2
Unbleached do 6 1/2 do do 10
Fine cotton hose 10 per pair do 25
Good do gloves 6 1/2 do do 25
Silk do do 15 do do 50

And besides some of those fine new fashion Gingham and Naxin Robes (lovely goods) a white plain and embroidered robes, Starting lawns, Gray and Scotch plaids, French and English gingham, Silk warp Alpaca. Some of the richest patterns of French, English and American prints you have ever beheld. White jackonets (super fine.) Tartan and Victoria lawns. Fancy and Balzarine lawns, and numerous other new fashion and desirable articles too tedious to mention. Also, a large and newly selected stock of Ready Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and shoes of all descriptions and sizes. But if you want to see a new wonder in favor of Purchasers, just give us but a call, and you will acknowledge at once that there is no use by rhyming, or any other way, trying to compete with the New York Cheap Store, or Jew store, in the fine New Brick House in the upper end of Glasgow. Just look for the eleven letters which are painted on front of the house, and which reads CHILD'S & BRO'S.
Glasgow, April 3d, 1847.

Spring Fashion.

S. NOURSE, 69 Main Street, Hat and Cap Manufacturer, has received the New York spring fashion for hats, (Boebee & Costar pattern), and is now prepared to furnish customers with hats of superior workmanship, and made of the best materials. The satin beaver, or moleskin silk hat, is worthy the attention of those wishing to purchase a good hat; the late improvements in making this article, render them the most lasting, hat now in use; and no hat can be introduced, more genteel or beautiful. Silk, Beaver, Nutria, Cassinere, or Brush hats, made to order; style or shape of crown—either bell, yeoman, straight or taper, with brim in width and shape to suit the taste and fancy, and fitted to the head with perfect ease, by the celebrated Cranometer. Gentlemen's Cloth caps, with covers, and all the varieties of hats and caps usually kept in a genteel hat and cap store. [St. Louis, March 6th, 1847.]

SADDLERY.
Still Cheaper.

The undersigned having permanently located in Glasgow, Mo., respectfully informs the citizens of Howard and adjoining counties, that he is prepared to manufacture Saddles, Bridles, Trunks and Harnesses; and in short every article usually made or kept by saddlers; and he feels confident in saying that work made by him shall not be inferior to any manufactured in Missouri, both in point of material, workmanship, fashion, and durability. Persons wishing anything in his line will do well to call and see his work before purchasing elsewhere, as he is determined to sell as low as any establishment in the upper country, and he thinks a little lower. Call and see for yourselves. A good assortment of work always on hand, if not, made to order on the shortest notice.

The following articles will be taken in exchange for work: Hides, Beef-cattle, Bacon, Wheat, Flax seed, &c.
W. ROPER.
Glasgow, November 8th, 1845. 35-2y

Hats and Caps.

THE subscribers would inform the public that they continue the Manufacture of Hats and Caps, at their new stand, No. 23 Market street, where they are always supplied with a full stock of the various kinds of goods in use, in their line. All the latest improvements in the trade have been adopted by them, and neither pains nor expense will be spared to make their hats equal in durability and beauty, to any manufactured either east or west of the mountains.

By an arrangement which they have made, at much expense, they will produce the New York Spring and Fall fashions simultaneously with their production in that city, thus enabling the fashionable custom to supply themselves a month earlier than heretofore.

Doing exclusively a cash business, the good customer is not taxed with the delinquency of the bad; and selling for ONE PRICE only, the customer is saved much time and trouble.

Orders for single hats or caps, specifying the circumference of the head, promptly attended to. Each and every hat is guaranteed to be all that it is represented in selling, and the subscribers will be responsible for any deficiency either in the color or wear.

Beatson's Tetter and Ringworm Ointment.

A safe and certain cure for Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, Barber's and Prairie Itch, Mage, Old Sores, &c. It is highly recommended for open or ulcerated Scrofula and Leprosy. No class of diseases have ever been considered more difficult to cure than those of a cutaneous kind, and it will be conceded by all intelligent and candid physicians, that a knowledge of the nature and successful treatment of them is very limited and imperfect. It is notorious that many of these disorders have generally resisted all the ordinary means of cure. Hence the opinion so commonly prevalent, that they are incurable, and it is probable that before the discovery and introduction of Beatson's justly celebrated remedy this belief was well founded. But wherever this medicine has been known and used, it has shown this opinion to be erroneous—it has demonstrated the certainty of a radical cure in almost every case. The proprietor, therefore, considers this ointment as a specific for the complaints above enumerated.

This is no "quack" remedy, but really a certain and speedy cure: it has proved efficacious in every case, without a single exception, for the last three years, and invariably eradicates it in fourteen days, however inveterate or long standing. These assertions can be verified by reference to the numerous respectable families who have seen and felt its efficacy, and who have, from gratitude, offered their testimonials. It leaves neither smell nor stain, and contains nothing of an injurious quality.

Saddle, Bridle, Trunk and Harness-Manufactory.

THE undersigned having associated themselves together for the purpose of carrying on the above business, have made such arrangements as will enable them to sell work much lower than has ever before been obtained in this county; at the same time pledging themselves that no pains shall be spared in rendering their articles equal to any manufactured in Missouri, either in workmanship or durability. A good assortment of work always on hand and finished at the shortest notice. All orders in their line will receive prompt attention.

All kinds of produce, usually taken by Saddlers, will be taken in exchange for work.
Shop at the old stand, on the east side of the public square. KRING & PATERSON.

A Grand Father's Legacy.
Myer's Embrocation for the Cure of RHEUMATISM.

THIS painful disease, which has heretofore baffled the skill of Medical men, and the scientific world, it is established beyond doubt, yields to the application of this Medicine. The proprietor has sufficient evidence, from those who have been cured, and has so repeatedly witnessed its beneficial effects, that he feels no hesitation in calling on all who are suffering from this disease, with a perfect confidence that they will find speedy and permanent relief. It has never yet failed to effect a cure, and if properly applied, it never will. This is strong language, but the facts justify it. Let any one who doubts read what those who have felt its beneficial effects say of it. If they still doubt, let them try it, and they will soon bear testimony of its efficacy.

HOWARD COUNTY, March 20th, 1847.
Mr. H. C. MYERS—Dear Sir—Your Embrocation having cured my wife of the Rheumatism, with which she was afflicted in such manner as to render her almost helpless, and cause her to suffer the most excruciating pain, I cheerfully bear testimony in favor of the controlling influence your Medicine exercises over this disease.
Yours, &c. WILLIAM PAYNE.

FAYETTE, March 20th, 1847.
Mr. H. C. MYERS—Dear Sir—The Embrocation I procured of you has entirely cured me of Rheumatic Pains. I have been troubled with Rheumatism for 11 years, during which time have used Hunt's, Hays, Hughes' and other Liniments, without finding relief. Your Embrocation, has entirely cured me, and removed all symptoms of that painful disease, and I would recommend all who are similarly afflicted, to use it without delay. Yours, truly,
JAS. A. DOUGLASS.

Mr. HARRISON BARNES, of Howard county, has been severely afflicted with Rheumatism, for some five or six years past. He had been confined to his bed for several months previous to the time he began to use this Medicine. He had been under the care of some three or four different Physicians, who all despaired of his ever getting up. He began to use the Embrocation, and continued its use for one week, when he was able to get up, and in ten days was sufficiently recovered to attend to the business of his farm.

Mr. H. W. KRING, and CHAS. GIVENS, of Fayette, and all his neighbors, will bear witness to the truth of the above statement.
Prepared only by H. C. MYERS,
C. & A. L. Peebels, Lexington; Mize & Townsend, Independence; N. & A. Johnson, Brunswick; Barton & Brother, Glasgow; P. Crow, Rockport; Thos. Selby, Columbia; Hamilton, McCrawley, Franklin; Malin & Ridley, Weston; J. Riddleberger & Co., Fayette; B. Bruce, Randolph Co.
Price—from 50 cents to $1.00 per bottle, according to size.
Fayette, March 27th, 1847. 36-1y

Carroll's Corner Never Tire!

Just listen while, till I tell you the news, Of Carroll's Cheap Corner beating the Jews, For calicoes and coats it beats them all hollow, And not alone TRIM, but the B'hoys in hog-wallow, But that's so well known, on it I'll not dwell, So I will proceed with what they have to sell: First come the Calicoes, cheaper than all, Of various patterns, both large and small, Cassinets, Janes, Domestic, brown and white; Broad cloth and Cassimeres, to be seen in the night! Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, of the very best grit, Coats, Pants and Vests, all warranted to fit, Linsey and apron checks, with sundry other things, Buttons, tape, pins, needles and fiddle strings; No Muffs, Balsamines, nor Robes so soon rent, No none of those fancy doings at 300 per cent: But Sugar and Coffee, Leather, Iron and Nails, And the best Rye Whiskey to hoist up your sails, Five per cent above proof, 15 above Breeze, Warranted all rye and never to freeze! Stone and tin ware, window glass, but not cash, All of which they sell cheap, but mind you for cash! Glasgow, December 12th, 1846.

Carroll's Corner.

I SAY, Tom, I guess them taral fools won't say Carroll's Corner ain't in town any more now. The Jews have moved up in their fine new store, and it looks like Bosting. Hog-wallow and the lower end of town, looks like way down in the Hurricane among them rollers. The upper end of town is the place for business and bargains. What Carroll's Corner don't sell, the Jews give away. Well, they don't do any thing else.
Glasgow, November 14th, 1846.

I SAY Smith, where did you buy that good iron you shod your horse with 'other day? At Carroll's Corner, and no where else! What makes his iron so much better than any other? Well, Carroll says it was sunk and laid in the river till it got right suple and tough! He sells 1-2 cent cheaper than any of the rest of them Hugganmangers in Glasgow. Well, he don't do nothing shorter! [Glasgow, December 12th, 1846.]

SMITH'S SUGAR COATED PILLS.—At Carroll's corner, they taste, of sugar, and not of honey as those at the drug store.
Glasgow, Nov. 22d, 1846.

See how that Coat fits!
DID you get that coat at Carroll's Corner? Well, I didn't get it any where else. I tell you, Bob, that is Martin's No. 2, and I recommend all the b'hoys to go there for nice fits and cheap goods. [Glasgow, Nov. 21st, 1846.]

100 Barrels

OLD rye whiskey just received. Call at Carroll's corner, if you want real good old Rye. It is too strong for coffee house use without water! Glasgow, December 20th, 1846.

Hats and Caps.

JOHN MCNEIL & Co., having issued the New York spring style of hats simultaneous with its introduction in that city, are now ready to fit every customer that may call, with a hat, not only fashionable and beautiful, but all that the most exacting may require in the way of durability. The moleskin hat, originally introduced by them into this market, and now brought to all the perfection of the French article, by the application of expensive machinery, and the adoption of all the newest improvements, needs no encomium. They have won their way to popular favor, and are now, par excellence, "the hat."

Their Nutria hat is light, pliable, of brilliant color and gloss; and they have a pure Beaver hat constantly on hand in the rough, one of which may be finished for any gentleman at three hours notice.

Every other variety of hat can be found in their store, and hats of any shape or quality in general use can be furnished to order at six hours notice. A splendid assortment of cloth and oil silk caps, of new and fashionable patterns.
JOHN MCNEIL & Co., 23 Market street, St. Louis, March 27th, 1847.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—The subscribers have on hand a large and general assortment of hats for wholesale to the city or country trade. Those hats have been selected by one of the firm, a practical hatter, and were purchased at prices so low that they can offer unusual inducements to dealers to buy. Every case is examined before shipping, and the hats reshaped and ironed over if they need it, as is generally the case after being received here either by sea or inland. Fine hats of our own manufacture put up low.
