Spring Term Opens Thursday, March 27th, 1884.

To Contractors & Builders.

By authority of "An Act Making an Appropriation to Build Court Houses" we, the committee, will let to the lowest and best bidder, on Saturday, April 12th, 1884, the contract to build Court House near present site. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. The committee is compelled to extend the time to April 12th by unavoidable circumstances.
No bids can exceed $1,500. The wish of the committee is to get the best house under the legal specifications for that money. The dimensions and specifications are those fixed by law. Further information, if desired, will be furnished.
Sealed bids, plans and specifications solicited, which will be opened at 1 P. M., April 12th, 1884, at Owala, I. T. All communications should be addressed to John A.
Foreman, Owala, I. T.

Local News.

The market continues to receive a daily supply of hides.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Wilkerson and Marks were both in town, Saturday.

The third term of Worcester Academy will begin Thursday, March 27th.
It is important that all scholars begin at the first.

The receipts of Worcester Academy from tuition fees for the first and second terms, were $945, all of which is expended in buildings and furniture.

The Town Commissioners had a meeting, Saturday, and hope to be able to proceed in the discharge of the duties imposed on them by law, at an early day.

Two neat, substantial picket fences were put up last week. One adorns the front of Mayor Trout's residence property, and the other that of B. L.
Owen, Esq.

More gardens are being put out in Vinita this spring, than ever before.
We would be glad to see Vinita a "garden spot." It will pay in both health and wealth.

Mr. J. Henry Covell, a teacher of long experience, of the Cherokee Orphan Asylum, was in Vinita, Thursday, and reported the condition of the institution as good.

Z. T. Hodges, Esq., of Little Rock, spent a part of Thursday and Friday in Vinita, where he is at all times a welcome visitor to those who have the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Rev. W. P. Haworth and A. N. Chamberlain returned, Monday, from Muscogee, where they attended the meeting of the Presbytery of the Indian Territory. They report a good attendance and a pleasant and harmonious meeting.

Eldridge, Kee-too-wah and Locust Grove postoffices in the Cherokee, and Kema, Peoria Nation, have been discontinued. Burneville, Dresden, Fred and Parr, in the Chickasaw, and Red Fork in the Creek Nation, have been established.

Sheriff Muskrat, of Delaware District, created a temporary rifle by closing two or three business houses in the eastern part of town, Friday last, for the non-payment of license tax to the Treasurer of the Nation. The firms soon gave bond and resumed business.

James McCleary and Wayne Workman were bound over by U. S. Commissioner Jones, at Springfield, Mo., on the 23d, in the sum of $500 each, for selling whisky to Indians at Seneca, Mo. The trial will take place before the U. S. District Court at Jefferson City, Mo., in September.

EVERYBODY KNOWS IT.—When you have the itch, salt rheum, galls or skin eruptions of any kind, and the piles, that you know without being told of it, M. Frazer & Co., the druggists, will sell you Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy for 50c, which affords immediate relief, and is a sure cure for either of the above diseases.

Correspondents whose communications may not appear in the columns of the CHIEFTAIN, will please bear in mind that it is not because their favors are not appreciated, but owing, most frequently, to the want of space, and to the selection of articles that may be on hand when received, and which seem to be timely and important. Continue to write for us, friends, but be sure to let the Editor, at least, have your proper name.

Mrs. Eliza Adair died of pneumonia at the residence of Mr. Henry Drew, in Vinita, Thursday the 20th inst., after a brief illness. Mrs. Adair was in the 60th year of her age, and was a daughter of Edward Gunter, after whom Gunter's Landing on the Tennessee River was named. During her illness deceased received the unwearied attentions of her daughter, Mrs. Matthews, and of Mr. and Mrs. Drew and other kind citizens of Vinita. The funeral exercises were conducted at the Methodist church, of which she was a member, by the pastor, Rev. L. Dobson.

In this connection we insert the following card of thanks: "Kind friends: —Your assistance in my behalf was not expected, but I ask you all to accept my sincere thanks for kindness shown me in my late bereavement. May the blessing of God be with each and every one, and may you never know sorrow as I have. Mrs. E. Matthews."

The frequent calls of tramps in Vi-nita has become an annoyance to families, that should be suppressed. Charity should be ready to respond to the call of human destitution and suffering, from whatever source it may come, but not allow itself to be imposed upon by the able-bodied and well-dressed fellows who sneak around back doors and through alleys, with stories on their lips, and even presume to call for portions of diet that may suit their excessive tastes. The dumping of such unsafe characters on Vinita has been borne too long already, and they should be authoritatively advised, on their appearance, to pass on to other points where they belong. The Indian Territory has no use for them.

Deputy Marshal Wilkerson was in Vinita last week, with subpoena for witnesses to appear at Fort Smith before the U. S. District Court, the 31st inst., in the case of the United States vs. Col. W. A. Phillips, growing out of the payment of $22,000 by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, from the $300,000 fund appropriated at the last session of Congress for the Cherokee.
Among the witnesses are Chief Bushyhead, now in Washington, R. B. Ross and B. M. Wolf, late delegates to Washington, D. W. Lips, late Treasurer of the Nation, and W. P. Bordinot and J.
L. Adair, Secretaries of the Executive Office at Tahlequah. It is inferable from this fact that the public will soon be able to learn whether there has been a violation of law in this transaction.

A SURE CURE FOR PILES.—The first symptom of piles is an intense itching at night after getting warm. This unpleasant sensation is immediately relieved by an application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy. Piles in all its forms itch, salt rheum and Ringworm can be permanently cured by the use of this great remedy. Price 50 cents.
Manufactured by the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Paris, G. Sold by M. H. Fields & Co.

Mrs. A. H. Balentine has gone to visit a son residing near Tahlequah.

Mr. W. W. Miller and family have moved to their farm, a few miles from Vinita.

Charles Jorneycake and E. J. Campbell, of Alloway, C. N., passed through Vinita, Tuesday last, on their return from Washington.

There will be regular services in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, both morning and evening. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. P. Harworth. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. W. M. Howaley, of the Muscogee Nursery, will have a large lot of selected fruit trees at Vinita, to-day, for sale.
There is no more reliable nurseryman in the country, and persons buying trees from him may safely expect them to be true to the variety represented.

J. M. Tittle is erecting a frame building on the west side of the platform extending from the station of the Mo.
Pacific to that of the A. & P. railroad.
The building will be two stories high, and 14x40 feet, and is designed for a restaurant.

Mrs. Nancy Adair, relict of the late Judge Walter S. Adair, died at her residence in Flint District, C. N., Feb. 29, in the 79th year of her age. Mrs. Adair was the mother of Mrs. T. Walker, whose husband is the present superintendent of the Seminary for Girls, near Tahlequah.

The "crazy quilt" just completed by Mrs. Charles S. Robinson, is remarkable for the taste and skill displayed in its design and finish, and is admired and praised by all who have seen it. It is composed entirely of silk, rich in color, worked in many designs of flowers, fruits and birds, and deserves all the numerous compliments bestowed upon it.

A dispatch to the Kansas City Times from Little Rock, 23d inst., reports the influx of western cattle men unprecedented. The contract price to be paid for 1,200 of stockers and feeders, to be delivered April 20th, were $7.50 for yearlings, $10.00 for two-year-olds, $14.50 for three-year-olds, and $20 for cows and calves counted together. Numerous contracts are reported at similar figures.

Henry McGann, in charge of Section 68, on the M., K. & T. R. R., last week laid five miles of steel rails on that road, completing a solid line of steel rails from Parsons, Kan., to Big Cabin creek switch. With the exception of a few miles, here and there, south of that point, the road is supplied with steel rails, and the road-bed is reported in better condition than ever before.

Mrs. Ward, wife of Moses Ward, residing in the Cherokee Nation, near Maysville, Ark., committed suicide last Sunday morning, by cutting her throat with a razor. She is reported to have excused herself from joining the family at breakfast, and gone into an adjoining room, where she got into bed, covered herself over, and performed the fearful act. When discovered she was dead. No cause has been mentioned for it. Mrs. Ward had grown children who were married, and was advanced in life.

One of the pleasant incidents of the Association, last week, was the presentation of a pulpit and Bible to the Congregational Church. The pulpit was the gift of the Congregational Church at North Springfield, and was presented by the pastor of that church, Rev. H.
C. Crane. The Bible was the gift of Rev. Charles H. Richards, D. D., of Madison, Wis., author of the hymn-book used in the church, and was presented by Rev. F. B. Dae of Dallas, Texas.

Col. C. M. McGellan, who recently returned from the outfit, or Cherokee Strip, as it is commonly called, states that the loss on "double wintered cattle" has been less than usual, while that on "through cattle" has scarcely been one-half the per cent anticipated at the time they were placed on the range. As corroborative of his statements he referred to a herd of about 5000 head of the former description, from which only two or three had been ascertained to be dead, and to another herd of about 7,000, including 2,000 through cattle, driven in late in the fall, and which were very thin, and in bad condition, a loss of less than four per cent had been sustained. At the time he was there, grass was springing up, and the weather has been quite favorable since, and cattle would continue to improve.

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of Worcester Academy was held last Thursday afternoon. Arrangements were perfected for moving forward in the erection of a new building. A complaint that the school was getting to be sectarian, brought out the fact that of the four teachers, the principal was a Presbyterian, the second assistant a Southern Methodist, and the other two Congregationalists—the salaries of all being paid with Congregational money.
It also appeared that the Congregational Church in Vinita received less benefit from the teachers, in proportion to money expended, than either of the other churches. The Board therefore took no action on the complaint, as it had no foundation. Rev. Walter M. Barrows, D. D., of New York, Secretary of the American Home Missionary Society, will be here in two weeks, when all arrangements will be consummated for the new building.

The meeting of Springfield Association, at Vinita, last week, passed off very pleasantly. The delegates, about 25 in all, were received at the Congregational Church by a bountiful collation, which a delegate from Carthage pronounced it the best dinner he ever ate. The leading topics of addresses were: "The Faithful Pastor," "Spiritual Mindfulness," "The Church and the Children," "Temperance," and "The Faithful Church Member." On Wednesday and Thursday evenings were sermons to large audiences by Rev. Drs. Doe and Harwood. The first and last topics were the best on the program. Prof. Brown's address on the former, and Dr. Doe's on the latter will never be forgotten by those who heard them. Under Congregational polity the churches attend to their own business at home, so that the meetings of the churches are given up to fellowship and the inspection of addresses on the best themes relating to Christian life and work.

Mrs. Kate Daniel has returned to Ft.
Gibson, after spending several days in Vinita and vicinity, visiting friends.

Mr. Nat Skinner, of this place, bought in the early part of the week, about 300 cattle, mostly two years old and cows and calves, from W. S. Ross, whose ranch is near Vinita. Price paid, $24.50, the few calves not counted.

A festival will be given in the M. E. church, next Tuesday night, April 1st, for the benefit of the public school of this place—proceeds to go toward the erection of a suitable school building.
This is a worthy object, and commends itself to every citizen of the town. Let everybody turn out.

For Detroit via Ft. Smith.
U. S. Deputy Marshal J. C. Wilber-son arrested, from a freight train at this place, Saturday evening last, two white men who said they were from Texas, and gave their names as Edward Taylor and Frank E. Adams, who are charged with committing a burglary at Muscogee, and appropriating to their own use a shot-gun and sundry articles of clothing. He also arrested, at the same time, Bill Dent, alias Bill Davis, a gentleman of color, well known about Ft. Gibson, who is charged with a similar offense in entering into the house of Meinherh Sondheimer, of the same village, and taking a sack of dressed deerskins. The telegraph did the work for them.

Jerry Fleetwood was also arrested, Monday evening, by Bud Kill of Marshal Marks' posse, and Oci Dick, charged with horse stealing.

Leap Year Party.
At the leap-year party held at the residence of A. P. Goodykoontz, on Monday evening, the gents were escorted by the ladies, as follows: Miss Mamie Ross, Messrs. R. Ironside and S. E. Davis; Miss Ida Beatty, Messrs. Ed. Miller and Dr.
Bagby; Miss Mary Raymond and Ed. Sheddlebar; Miss Minnie Greenway and C. S. Robinson; Miss Minnie Miller and Messrs. Raymond and Halsell; Miss N. Couch and three gents; Mrs. E. Ironside and Major Galloway; Mrs. A. C.
Raymond and Will Strange; Mrs.
Dr. Bagby and Messrs. Lincoln and Badgett; Mrs. C. S. Robinson and Robt. Blakeney; Mrs. W. E. Halsell and C. W. Pool; Mrs. and Mr. G.
W. Green; Mrs. and Mr. Nat.
Skinner. The following were the most complete costumes in the room, and excited universal admiration. All the gentlemen wore the conventional costumes.

C. W. Pool, pumpkin-colored blonde, wore overskirt of ecru denims, with corsage of lemon-colored cretonne, low-neck and full sleeves.
Ornaments, roller skates and plain gold; very becoming.

Col. Galloway, brunette, attired in mauve-colored Georgia linsey, trimmed with alternate rows of scarlet canton flannel and pink calico, with eyeglasses and liver-pad to match. Ornaments, Pool's diamonds and Patton's perfumes; 2-2 —utterly.

W. Strange, lovely fawn blonde.
Costume—wine-colored, three-ply, all-wool filling tarlatan, with waist and hose to match. Ornaments, raw cotton and kiln-dried sawdust.
Modest and graceful, as well as susceptible.

R. Blakeney, beautiful brunette.
Langtry costume of azure-tinted ducking, recklessly padded and economically cut; hair, a la G. W.
Green. Ornaments, violin, with pickles and salt. Lovely, but rapid.

W. X. Badgett, bright evening blonde. Low neck, short sleeves, bust view elegant, overskirt trimmed with pillow-case lace; basque of Nile-green ticking; Langtry bangs. Ornaments, Cherokee aspirations and diamonds. Perfectly lovely.

Ed. Miller was attired in a short walking suit of lemon-colored de-laine, muscled like a grasshopper.
Ornaments, cloves and lemon peel.
Modest, but fascinating.

S. A. Lincoln, a lovely straw-colored blonde, wore an overskirt of all wool, orange-peel tint, cut a la Patti, looped and fastened in front with rawhides; hose to match, and altogether just lovely.

A. C. Raymond, suit to match, all colors silk and satin, low neck and short-cut sleeves. Ornaments, appetite and fancy hose.

A. P. Goodykoontz, Mo. blonde.
Overskirt of squaw cloth, basque of tin-colored burlap, looped up with hoop iron and fastened with sprays of prairie hay. Perfectly ravishing.

S. E. Davis, costume of cretonne and ecru lace, corsage V-shaped, train looped and pinned in front with Missouri statuettes. Ornaments Blackstone and good appetite.

Ed. Sheddlebar, Adam's Express blonde; hair a la muss; costume, blue ducking, trimmed in null of light blue. Ornaments, brass and gall.

The Messrs. Bagby, Green, Ironside, Robinson and others were too utterly exquisite to describe. The "wee, sma' hours" caused all to glide homeward, after spending one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season.

The leap year ball on Monday night was followed by a great reduction in prices of hardware, stoves, &c., at A. C. Raymond & Co's.

Choice 2-year-old apple trees, from the Muscogee Nurseries, at $10 per 100; fine 1-year-old wild goose plums at $3 per dozen; fine peaches at 15c each. Stock will be delivered at Vinita.

A STORY.
THE VILLAIN PURSUED HER, OR
THE LUCK OF THE FESTIVE COWBOY.

In the front part of the year 1884, early one morning, as the bright summer sun, taking Greeley's advice, had started West, a maiden of uncertain age and a shy, girlygirly kind of look about her, might have been seen meandering west, on Main street, in our usually quiet city.

A keen observer might also have noticed, coming east on the same crowded thoroughfare, the lank form of a man, with a wild, far-away look in his (left) eye, and who seemed to sniff a whole zephyr at every sniff.

At the corner of Miller avenue and Main street the parties met, and, quick as a flash, Wild Jim (for the man was that), drew his trusty "cutter," Colt's pattern, 45-caliber, nickel plated, ivory-handled six-shooter (for sale only by Goodykoontz, the Hardware man), exclaiming, "Aha! Aha! Aha! Will thou be mine? And the maiden widet.

Time passed on. Seconds swapped themselves for minutes, minutes for hours, and the bright summer sun aforesaid still traveled west undismayed, and had reached a point just opposite Ft. Shanahan, when it was rumored by the tongue of gossip, that Wild Jim and the shy maiden had been spliced, and were now buying an Early Breakfast Cooking Stove and a John Deere Plow from Goodykoontz, the Hardware Man of Vinita, I. T.
