PERSONAL MENTIONS.

Parsons' "ought" a number of our citizens last Saturday.

Bob Blakney went to Carthage last Friday and remained a couple of days.

Mrs. H. S. Cash, from Arkadelphia, Arkansas, is her visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. B. Allen.

Rev. King who went east after his family, expected back here about the end of the month.

Miss Emma Wilson, of Carthage, well known here, starts very shortly for Virginia to stay a year.

Miss Nettie Graves came up from Texas last Friday and after remaining a day or two went to Nashville to visit her friend Miss Minnie Miller.

Rev. D. N. Allen has been holding services this week at the Presbyterian church in this city. He has been honored by a good attendance, embracing many personal and warm friends.

A party of our people consisting of Mrs. H. H. Edmondson, Misses Katie Timberlake, Fannie Cummins and Messrs. H. A. Galloway and George Stewart, spent several days, including the fourth, at Parsons.

Set on FIRE—On Tuesday morning at about two o'clock a dwelling house on the hill, formerly occupied by Mrs. John Goodkowitz, was set on fire and burned to the ground. The loss was a wicked and malicious one, and all good citizens of Vinita join with the CHARITABLE in hoping the perpetrator may be sent to prison for a good, long term. The house was vacant and uninsured and was worth $700 or $800.

A BATTLE—News reaches us from Muskogee of a most unusual offense committed by Hanson Cross, a white man living fifteen miles southeast of that place. On the 30th of last month a half a dozen of Cross' neighbors, stirred up by reports of his conduct, went over and arrested him and took him before Commissioner Tufts. They also took along two of the man's daughters, aged ten and thirteen years. On being questioned by the commissioner the older of the two girls stated that her younger sister, Ora, and her older sister, Emma, had been made the victims of her father's brutal lust since the death of the mother which occurred in March last. Being satisfied that a crime had been committed, Col. Tufts committed Cross to await the arrival of the other girl, Emma. He was to have a formal examination before the commissioner on Wednesday of this week.

THE PRATHER MATTER.—It is learned that Baxter Prather, who was shot by "Bullet" Rogers, his nephew, will probably not lose his $75. He is now a prisoner at his own home in charge of the sheriff of Delaware district, on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Rogers is now at Southwest City and will be held to answer the same charge. It appears that a party named Testament has taken a great deal of uncalculated interest in affairs in that neighborhood and it is claimed by the Prathers that he is responsible for much of this trouble. The matter has been laid before the agent and we are told that he will direct this man's immediate expulsion. In the concluding paragraph of our last week's account we should perhaps have been more explicit. The article was prepared in the CHIEFTAIN office but most of the important facts were taken from a personal letter written by Dick Frather.

CAPTURED.—Felix Griffin, who was in Deputy Erwin's custody at the time that officer was killed, has been captured and is at Fort Smith. He was one of the parties for whom Marshal Carroll offered $500 reward. To a Times reporter Griffin gave the following account of the killing and his release: "I had just been turned over to Erwin by the Cherokee officers, on a charge of robbery and had started here with me that morning. It was getting pretty late, nearly dark and we were riding pretty fast. Just as we got opposite Pheasant's Bluff two men, Jack Spaniard a Cherokee, and Frank Palmer a white man, rode up behind us and called out to Erwin twice to throw up his hands. Erwin answered "all right," and reached for his pistol but before he could draw it, Palmer fired two shots at him. When he fired he turned and ran west. I went the other way while Spaniard followed Erwin shooting four times at him before he fell. He then turned and overtook me. I asked him if Erwin was dead. He said he did not know but thought he was. We then rode to the mound when Spaniard showed several times for Palmer, but he did not come and we went on. Spaniard is a friend of mine but I had only seen a time or two. I had no idea they were going to attempt to rescue me. Erwin did not have time to draw his pistol before Palmer shot him. This is the whole thing as it occurred. I was arrested on a warrant charging me with his murder."

Owala Occurrences.

Dr. Linn, formerly of Chelsea, is to locate at Claremore.

The church has an elegant organ. Miss Ida Collins presides.

Charley McClellan has gone west for the first time this year, to look after his cattle interests.

Oats are harvested and only half crop made. Corn is looking fine and we expect a large crop.

Two elegant pianos have been brought into our community. One for Major Lape, the other for Dr. Lane, and the concert of sweet sounds are an additional evidence of the cheerfulness of our cheerful neighborhood. July 5, 1888.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions of respect were adopted by the M. E. Sunday school on the death of Miss Annie Smith:

Whereas, God, in his inscrutable way has seen fit to remove from our school and midst, Annie Smith, our scholar and schoolmate,

Resolved, that we bow our heads in sorrow for our loss, but recognize that to whom God loveth He saith: "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you."

Resolved, that the parents and friends have our heartfelt sympathy in this their deep affliction, recognizing that God gave and at the proper time has taken Annie to her home of joy and peace, blessed be the name of the Lord.

Resolved, that we as a Sabbath school, will set our faces toward the cross, the banner that will lead to Christ and home.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the bereaved parents and spread on the minutes of this school, also furnished to the CHIEFTAIN for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. McCREARY,

Committee. MAUD EFFERTY,

H. A. GALLOWAY.

The Horse Creek Celebration.

EDITOR CHIEFTAIN.—Your correspondent had the pleasure of attending the grand barbecue on the 3rd out on Horse creek, near Mayor Trotter's farm, twelve miles east of town. It was planned in the interest of erecting a new school house in the neighborhood. Four fat cattle, less one quarter reserved for a donor, were donated and the labor was also without expense.

Three dance floors, an equal number of lemonade stands, swings, apple wagons and a picture gallery each paid a license tax which aggregated over $40.

Poor shade for the speaker's stand and the absence of seats rendered that part of the programme somewhat unsatisfactory. Another misfortune was the lack of rousing speeches. The president of the day introduced several gentlemen but their speeches were conspicuous for what was not said. Yet, we give them due credit for showing a willing mind to help on the general enjoyment. Uncle Charley Wingfield gave the most entertaining talk. Music by a small choir directed by Mr. L. D. Hitebeck interspersed the other exercises.

There would have been nothing, no black spot, to mar the pleasure of the day, save and except for the presence of an unwelcome woman with a half barrel of mis-called "cider." It must have been some that was hid away or stolen from that stuff the sheriff spilled at Vinita a couple of years ago and which made the hog cut such comical antics. One man in particular got an overdose of the "hell-bone, poison stuff" and made himself so obnoxious that Luke Miller and his guards had to forcibly assist him to retreat. A number of others went almost as far. I think the shameless insult to our ladies should never have been permitted and when stopped the nasty stuff should have been spilled. Certainly 99 out of every 100 persons on the ground would have justified such a course. I am told that this same woman, who hails from Vinita, attended a Sunday school picnic, held a few weeks ago on Cabin, five or six miles below town, and sold her "beverage of hell." I am further told that more than one little school boy drank of it and became foolishly tipsy. If this is true why don't parents, friends or parties interested, attend to the matter and so effectually to that "said large party" will never again so shamelessly insult a decent people?

It is estimated that 500 to 600 persons were on the ground. All had plenty to eat and drink. In haste,
