CURRENT COMMENT.

The New York Metal Exchange was a scene of wild excitement on the 1st, the price of tin leading the way in a disastrous depreciation.

A bill introduced by Garfield, presented by the Washington Glass and Plate Association, has been placed in the upper lobby of the Senate.

FREDERICK A. BANCROFT, of New Hampshire, has been appointed Librarian of the State Department by Theodore F. Dwight resigned.

The annual exhibition of the Royal Academy opened in London, May 4. The collection was above the average in excellence.

A lady named Mikichio Macley, aunt of the New Guinea explorer, Anthony, was robbed by some of the natives of a large sum of money from her apartments.

The Progressive Labor party, formed at New York in opposition to the Henry George party, has been dissolved by its general committee on resolutions declaring that it had accomplished its object.

NOTICE: A large sum of money and a new lot of tools have been stolen from the factory at Donald, France. Officials were inquiring into the theft, as it was suspected that they were taken at the instance of a foreign power.

A letter has been published at St. Paul in which Hon. Edmund Rice, present Representative from the Fourth Minnesota district, declines renomination on the ground that at seventy years he can not do justice to so large and important a constituency.

IMMIGRATION to the Argentine Republic is greater than to any other country in the New World excepting the United States. The Immigration Bureau of Argentina, in the official report for the last year, has placed the number of immigrants arrived in that republic for the period at 120,842.

The Governors of the thirteen original States met in Philadelphia recently and adopted resolutions calling upon the Federal Government and the various States and Territories to contribute to the erection of a monument to that city, commemorative of the framing and adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

The death is announced in England of Sir Charles Tiltson Bright, one of the projectors of the Transatlantic cable, who was the engineer-in-chief of the expedition which carried out that project and who has since been prominently identified with the extension of submarine telegraph lines all over the world. He was in his fifty-seventh year.

The heaviest sentences for burglary pronounced in New York recently by Judge Martin upon two companions of young men, Michael O'Donnell, aged twenty-one, and Michael O'Donnell, aged twenty-one, O'Donnell was convicted and Feohan pleaded guilty. They were each sentenced to hard labor at Sing Sing for thirty years.

A few days since a young son of Adam Young, living in the eastern part of Wabash, Ind., met with a very peculiar accident which caused his death. The boy was watching some men who were exhuming a body in the old cemetery, when the heavy marble headstones fell on him and produced fatal internal injuries. The boy was buried on the exact spot where the accident took place.

ADVISES have been received at Zanzibar from Emin Bey, dated November 2, stating that he had been reconnoitering for Stanley but had heard nothing of him up to that time. He said himself was well and his relations with the chiefs and the people in the vicinity of his station was satisfactory. Stanley's relief stores had reached Usambara. His mails were at Uganda, where the Arabs are hostile and treacherous.

MR. CHARLES LYMAN, for many years at the head of the Dead Letter Office of the Post-Office Department, died at Washington recently in the eightieth year of his age. Mr. Lyman went to Washington about twenty-seven years ago and was put in charge of the Dead Letter Office at a time when its business was all transacted by himself and one clerk. Under his direction the office grew to its present proportions.

The British gunboat Falcon has returned to Gibraltar from Cape July, whither she was sent to investigate the reported attack upon the depot of the Northwest African Company at that place. The Captain of the Falcon reports that Mr. Morris, manager of the British African Company at Cape July, attempted to photograph a camp of Moorish soldiers and while doing so the soldiers killed him and drove his companions into a fort near by.

In an interview with a French journal recently, General Gourko, Governor of Warsaw, denied that Russia was desirous of war, but said it was impossible to predict events. He hoped that, should an outbreak of hostilities occur, France would not remain neutral. He hinted that in such case France would have to deal with England as Italy's ally. Nobody could count on England's neutrality, and this, he said, was a matter for serious reflection.

The Secretary of the Treasury has transmitted to the House itemized accounts of the expenditures under the appropriation for the entertainment of the delegates to the International Medical Congress, held there last September, showing that all of the appropriation of $10,000, except $1,12, has been expended. Not a dollar of the appropriation was paid out for liquor of any kind, although the statement has been frequently made that $6,000 of it went that way.
