THE New York Daily Graphic has pone into the hands of the sheriff. It was an experiment in the field of illustrated journalism and has never been successful, though every thing that could be done for it by changes of ownership and politics has been tried.

In an interview General Boulanger said he had no hope of his party having a majority in the new Chamber of Deputies. He had not, however, lost faith in the future. The Government, be declared, had everywhere stolen votes, with raven-like characteristics. The Republican unjority would prove unmanageable, he said, and France would soon be calling him to power.

A LATE d'spatch from Helens, Mont, says that the half has not been told of the ravages of drought and fire this season in that State. The long continued dry weather and great forest and prairie fires have left the grazing lands in such condition that the cattle can not obtain proper subsistence from them. The cattle are already in very poor condition, and if there should come a hard winter many of them would perish.

SECRETARY TRACEY has decided to secept the new cruiser Charleston, which is at San Francisco, from its builders, but has not given any orders to that end, as he is awaiting the action of the bureaus of engineering and construction, who are now considering the official report on the last trial of the vessel. The Charleston, during her trial, showed an average speed of over 18 knots an hour and a horsepower of over 6,800.

THE Opera House at Hartford, Conn., was crowded to overflowing the other evening to witness the historical tableaux given in part as a testimonial to Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stows. Barone Justice Prindiville at Chicago recently James Nicollet, an Italan, accused his wife Emily of living with Salvatore Lemor, also an Italian. The woman said her husband had tired of her and sold her to Salvatore for $10. Salvatore corroborated the statement, and the woman said: "Of course I obeyed James when he told me to live with Salvators. I do not think I am guilty when my husband ordered me to do so." She also said that the child was not her husband's as he had sold it for $5. Nothing was done by the Justice in these matters, but Lemor was fined $30 for carrying ncealed weapons.

A GENERAL combination of the wisdow glass factories west of the Alleghany mountains, which has been so freely talked of within the past few weeks, now appears to have been given up.
