VINITA OF TODAY and Vinita of a half dozen years ago shows as much improvement inside as outside of the commanding structures which have converted the place from a straggling hamlet to a thrifty city.

The visitor looks up the street, travels about the residence portion of the city and is amazed at what he sees. Going into the homes of our people additional surprises await him—beautiful carpets, rugs from the Orient, curtains, portieres, spreads, costly furniture, and the hostess and her family dressed in the richest products of the French looms. "Where are all these evidences of comfort and of taste procured?" is the mental interrogation. Right here in our home stores; we need go to the cities of the states for nothing. You can find on the counters at Mr. Ratcliff's the richest and handsomest fabrics to be had and just such as are to be worn by the fall by the smart set of New York and Chicago. And it seems as though the patterns and trimmings are handsomer, and the variety greater this season than ever. It is only by personally visiting the markets that an intelligent selection can be made and it is with this fact in view that Mr. Ratcliff and his able assistant, Mr. McGlasson, go to Chicago twice a year. The latter gentleman stated that on his recent trip the first day or two were spent in making the rounds of the great retail stores, inspecting the show windows and visiting the fashionable resorts of the city. In this way he was enabled to learn just what was being worn and how trimmed. But the display at this establishment is not confined to dress goods. In clothing, hats and shoes the same care in selection is exercised, but next to the ladies' dress fabrics the carpet and curtain department is the surprise of the visitor. A year ago this firm was selling carpets by sample—and were not selling very well. Finally they bought an eight hundred dollar trial stock and within the twelve months have bought four thousand dollars worth of carpets, incredible as it may seem. You can go into the carpet department and buy a mouquette, a body or tapestry Brussels which would be a credit to the homes of affluence, and have it made up and laid. The line of Ingrains is very extensive and embraces the weaves of many of the most noted mills in this country, and the selections are excellent. In curtains it is the same and a person can hardly look through the line without wishing for a house with a half dozen communicating rooms, where some of the handsome portieres could be employed. IN RESPONSE to invitations received some time previous a goodly number of friends assembled the evening of Sept. 5 at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rogers, at Pawhuska, to witness the wedding of their accomplished daughter, Miss Rosa, to Mr. Ben Avant, Rev. Mr. Watson officiating. Messrs. Charles and William Keeler were groomsmen and Miss Eva and Chick Rogers were the bridesmaids. We need only recall the beautiful Byronic verse on the eve of Waterloo to express the appreciation of all present. The wedding dinner was served at 6 o'clock, the light, fantastic homage was paid to St. Terpsichore until the "wee sma' hours." Among those present were Judge and Mrs. Thomas Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Green Yeagrain, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Tiner, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers, J. D. and Mrs. Louis Rogers, Jr., Misses Bertha and Chick Rogers, Laura and Agnes Lombard, Eva Rogers and Naunie Haynis, Messrs. Jasper Rogers, George Pettit, Charles and William Keeler, Dr. Emmitt Star, Henry Gilmore, Cyrus Reary, S. H. Pirrier, Alex Davis, Loony Price, Augustus Reary, John Johnson and Walter Lombard. A list of the presents could not be obtained. Of a nice head of hair just through negligence. Call for and be sure you get Beggs' and take no other. Sold by P. Shanahan. VERY NEEDED FAMILY living in a tent near the railroad bridge were reported Sunday.

Mrs. Swain and Mrs. Blakeney went out and had them brought up town, put into a house, and fed and clothed, with the aid of some of our charitable people. The man and eldest daughter aged nineteen, are sick. We must not permit suffering to exist within our midst unrelieved, and it is hoped that those who are disposed to lend a helping hand will confer with the ladies named. There are five children in the family described and when found part of them were practically naked. Bad wheat makes bad flour. Try a sack of good Hannibal, Mo., flour at Jno. C. Gray's. Joe Merrill went to bed Saturday night with his guard lying on the front porch. Next morning Joe was missing and is not yet in custody, though it is reported is around here somewhere. Mr. Henderson went to Texas by the first train to attend the funeral. Bill Tittle was tried in the commissioner's court Thursday on a beer case and bound over. The defense, backed by the Anheuser-Busch Co., set up that the compound, hop ale, was not intoxicating, but the statute reads "intoxicating or malt liquors." Senator Claude Washburne brought in this week some samples of LeConte pears grown on his farm in Delaware district. Some of the largest measured ten inches in circumference and weighed nearly a pound. The trees were grown by the Vinita nurseries. Yesterday morning about daylight some men went to the home of Jim Robinson in the west part of town and strangled his calf with a rope. Mr. Robinson started out to interfere but his wife prevented him, fearing the purpose was to get him out of the house to do him harm. Pat Shanahan, fully alive to the fact that the reputation of his nationality for raising potatoes must be maintained, comes to the front with some specimens and a yield of which "old Ireland" herself would be proud. Pat is a good farmer and a fine old Irish "gentleman." Stinnett's brother-in-law, has set up a very fine barber outfit of four chairs in the Hotel Cobb office. Our tuner, Mr. Sheets, will be here in a few days. Leave orders for your tuning at our store, Vinita Music House. Since Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic was introduced many other tonics have been introduced to the public. None, however, have met with the same success. The reason is simple—they do not do the work it does. When you have chills try it. Price 50c and 75c. Guaranteed to cure. P. Shanahan. A number of our people are attending court at Delaware court house this week.
