PERSONAL NOTES.

Sam Frazier, of Grand river, was in town Friday and Saturday of last week.

Granville Craig, of upper Cabin creek, was in Vinita a day or two last week.

The father of W. F. Carter, the druggist, is visiting his son. The old gentleman lives at Sercy, Ark.

Walter Breedlove was down from Fairland Monday transacting business with some of the local fraternity.

J. H. Copeland, of Fairland, was in Vinita Saturday on business and paid his respects to this office while here.

August Schlicker, the jeweler, was called home at Cape Girardeau, Mo., unexpectedly Saturday afternoon.

N. A. McMillen, solicitor for the Kansas City World, made this office a pleasant call last week and proved to be a pleasant gentleman.

Prof. L. A. Ellis, principal of Worcester academy is rejoicing at the birth of an eleven pound boy born Sunday morning.

H. Valentine, proprietor of Star store, established May 10, 1881, deals in general merchandise; east side of track.

J. W. Adair has been appointed teacher of the Afton national school and will move his family there while teaching.

Strictly cash is why we can afford to make these exceedingly low prices through these columns. Vinita Meat & Gro. Co.

The young people of the Presbyterian church had a very enjoyable "pic party" last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Coney.

Acting Chief Swimmer appointed Robt. L. Fargo, to the district clerkship of Sequoyah district, to succeed Daniel Holt, resigned.

Wanted, 100 live quails, by the Vinita gun club. Birds may be delivered at Wright's drug store and for which the cash will be paid.

A party of United States government surveyors is now camped out on W. M. Brown's place near Eli. They are now running a line from Halsell's ranch to Flourney's place on Bird Creek.

Philalphan Lodge, No. 14, Vinita, K. of P., will hold public memorial services at the U. S. court room at 2 p. m., on Sunday, February 16th.

Frank H. Hubbard is again at the helm at the Muskogee Phoenix office. Mr. Hubbard is one of the best known newspaper men in the territory, and conducted the Phoenix with great success some years ago.

The Vinita Meat & Gro. Co. have just added to their extensive line of coffee the African Java. This is a fine large grained product and we are sure it will please the trade.

A petition was circulated here this week asking for a new mail route from this city eastward to Magyville, Ark., a distance of some 35 or 40 miles.

A good deal is being said about moving the post office from across the street, when Mr. Fryer takes charge. Two or three convenient places are offered and the gentleman wants to place it where it will be the most satisfactory to the patrons.

After a two weeks sojourn in the hills of Saline district, and after lost members of the party had got lost and lain out over night away from camp, the party of Vinita hunters came home Saturday evening, having killed one solitary turkey on the trip.

A glove contest between Boney Nelmyer and Dup Drew took place Monday night at a sporting resort in this city in which 25 rounds were fought, and, it is said, blood flowed quite freely. The fight was declared a draw as neither was able to knock the other out.

A new publication is to make its appearance in Taliequah this week. It is to be issued from the Sentinel office, and will be the organ of the colored contingent. The name of the new paper will be the Cherokee Freedman, and Attorney Fitzpatrick (colored) is the editor.

The local grain shippers made "war" on corn prices last Saturday and as a result raised the price of that cereal from 15 to 18 cents a bushel.

The cheap shipping rate expires, corn will be even lower than that, which is lower than ever known in Vinita in January of any year.

Ad Roach brought in an exceedingly nice pig Saturday that had been grown, fattened and dressed expressly for the CHEFTAIN. Mr. Roach has probably shipped more blooded swine into the country at one time and another for breeding purposes than any other farmer in the vicinity.

Is Paricheer, the principal chief of the Creek nation, was drowned Sunday while attempting to cross Deep Fork of the Canadian in a skiff. The skiff struck a snag and turned over in the midst of the current, and the old chief unable to swim out drowned before help could reach him.

G. ATHEY, the horse man, has a fine string of standard bred registered horses at the fair grounds; they represent the very best families of horses in the world.

Among these are such noted individuals as Roger K. No. 11,525; Lee C. K. No. 21,542; Rowan Electioneer, No. 18,792; Embassador, No. 341; Young Pride of Scotland, No. 341; and the beautiful saddle stallion, Missouri Montrose, the only registered saddle stallion in the country.

Full pedigree and description will soon be ready. Mr. Athey has decided to give a show of his horses on the streets of Vinita next month, and the person that guesses nearest the weight of some one of the horses will receive ten dollars in gold. The guess will be free for all.

IT WAS WITH RELUCTANCE that THE CHEFTAIN cut off a large number of delinquent subscribers at the beginning of the year, but the wisdom of the action is already demonstrated in a very substantial way by the influx of renewals that continue to come in.
