The Value of the Telephone

It is not the circuit of wire that connects your instrument with the exchange which makes it the most indispensable thing in modern life. It's the thousands of voices at the other end of the wire. Our long distance lines reach almost every point in Oklahoma and our connection with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company enables us to give you good service to St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas and many other principal points in adjoining states.

Little Miss Imogene Stryker entertained a number of her friends with a very pretty party yesterday afternoon, it being her fifty birth anniversary. The table was very prettily decorated with red hearts the favors being little bisquit dolls. A dainty two course luncheon was served. Those present were Virginia Wonderlich, Dorethy and Marion Clapham, Lizzie Linsey, Laura Milford, Helen and Walton Darrough, Vinita Farthing, Gerie and Lela Carroll, Herman Montgomery, Genevieve Schmidt, Maude and Jennie Carroll and Rebecca Pershing. The afternoon was spent playing games and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Valentine Social

On Friday evening, February 12, commencing at seven o'clock, there will be a valentine social at the rectory of St. John's Episcopal church, corner of Miller and Canadian avenue.

Valentines of many kinds will be sold, including some hand-made and hand painted ones. There will be a valentine post office and games of several kinds for the amusement of the young people. Ice cream and cake and other things to eat will be sold. The admission will be fifteen cents including ice cream and cake. The young people are decorating the rectory and a good time is promised. Everyone is invited. The social is given by the Junior Missionary auxiliary of the church and the proceeds will be for missionary purposes.
