VETERANS ASK CROSS TO WITHDRAW RESIGNATION

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 15.—Asking that Secretary of State Bill Cross reconsider his resignation as major-general commanding the Oklahoma Confederate Veterans, an Ardmore committee of Confederate veterans, headed by Adjutant General John L. Galt of the Oklahoma Division, today wrote the sick secretary of state and old soldier.

"When we elected you as our leader for Oklahoma," says the letter, "we then feared that in a short time the taps would sound, as you then were very ill. It is now our hope, and we are sure the hope of every old Confederate soldier in the state, that the taps will not sound for you for a long time, but that when they do, they will find you still our leader, the major general of the Oklahoma division.

The letter also stated that the Ardmore veterans had the utmost confidence in General Cross and in his record as Confederate soldier. As the resignation was sent to General Galt, who heads the committee asking General Cross to reconsider, it amounts in substance to a practical declaration to allow him to resign.

W. M. Christian, aged 39, of this city and Miss Nora Hutchinson, 21, of Kansas City, were married by Judge Frear.

The quarrel was due to a dispute over the possession of an American flag.

DR. COOK REFUTES BARRILL CHARGES

Explorer Has Begun Preparations to Make Second Ascent of Mount McKinley.

New York, Oct. 15.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, refuting the charges of E. N. Barrill that he had not ascended Mount McKinley in Alaska, came out with a statement in New York last night after a three-hour conference with his attorney, intimating that Edward N. Barrill, the guide who accompanied him, had perjured himself in a recent affidavit for a consideration offered by Cook's detractors.

To disprove Barrill's statements Dr. Cook further announced that he had taken preliminary steps to organize an expedition to ascend Mount McKinley and procure records which he says he left there. He has wired Anthony Fiala, arctic explorer, to head the expedition, and has wired Prof. H. C. Parker of Columbia University, to accompany Fiala.

Dr. Cook says in his statement that his detractors had hired an agent to go to Montana, where Barrill was in the real estate business and that Barrill was offered a large sum of money to make an affidavit. Barrill refused at first saying he would have to "commit perjury and sell his soul," but later the affidavit appeared.

Dr. Cook was royally entertained here yesterday and given the freedom of the city and officially recognized as the north pole discoverer.

PRESIDENTS OF TWO GREAT NATIONS MEET AT EL PASO

Presidents Taft and Diaz Meet Behind Closed Doors--Both Crossed the International Line--Taft in Mexico to Attend Banquet Tonight --Second Time in History that Juarez Is the Temporary Capital.

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 15.—With cannon roaring salutes, soldiers everywhere and a pomp of ceremony seldom, if ever, before witnessed in this country, President Taft of the United States and Porfirio Diaz, for years president of the great southern republic of Mexico, met here today, and exchanged formal greetings of good will and friendship. The meeting took place behind closed doors in the directors' rooms of the chamber of commerce building and only two assistant secretaries to Taft were there to report the addresses of the executives.

After having received Diaz on American soil President Taft himself crossed the international border line and returned the call of Diaz, at the customs house in the quiet old city of Ciudad Juarez. Again the two presidents were eluded for a few moments and Diaz repaid the courtesies extended while he was the guest of the American people. Taft returned to the United States to review a military parade in this city this afternoon. Tonight, however, he will cross into the Mexican territory for the second time to be the guest of Diaz at a banquet in Juarez.

The fear of a possible demonstration caused the authorities both civil and military to take extra precautions for guarding the life of the president.

This is the second time in history that Ciudad Juarez has been the temporary capital of the Republic of Mexico, but under widely different circumstances.

In 1866 when Benito Juarez, constitutional president of Mexico, was driven in defeat before the troops of Maximilian, self-appointed Emperor of the Mexican people, he took refuge and established his capital in the little city that lies across the international boundary stream from El Paso. For almost a year, surrounded by a small band of half starved, poorly clad and almost defenseless patriot soldiers, the president of the Mexican republic waited and hoped and watched for the aid that he expected from the United States; there, after wearying waiting, he finally rallied his forces and set out on the return march to the City of Mexico that finally resulted in a brilliant victory at Queretaro over the emperor and his foreign troops; the execution of the emperor and the re-establishment of the Mexican republic.

There was no preparation for the coming of the first president who made Ciudad Juarez the temporary capital of Mexico; unheralded and heartless from his long journey and frequent defeats, Benito Juarez rode into the little adobe village that was then known as Paso del Norte, on a mule. Through its narrow, dusty streets, between low mud houses, the patriot president rode in silence. Few if any recognized him when he rode into the little city and settled down on Plaza Guadalupe Hidalgo, in the shadow of the ancient church of the Guadalupe, in a long, low adobe house, to establish the capital of what was left of the Mexican republic.

It is different today. For months the preparations have been in progress for the coming of President Diaz. Troops have been arriving daily for weeks to police the city and serve as a proper military escort for the president and his distinguished guest, the president of the United States. Embassies have been arriving from Mexico City to complete every detail for the comfort of the president. Architects, decorators, florists, cooks of reputation, and recent service men have thronged the little city for weeks and days; $50,000 alone has been spent in rebuilding the Juarez custom house as a reception room and banquet hall for the meeting of the two presidents; a large sum was spent in the erection of the Grecian columns down the side of the street and the two presidents were to traverse; streets were paved, sidewalks were laid and finally seven florists from Mexico City using up a cartload of flowers, put on the last decorations a few minutes before the presidential special train rolled into the station and the president arrived.

President Diaz on his present visit while he is not making his capitol in the same building occupied by General Juarez, was a visitor to the old adobe structure on Comercio street today and in fact, in company with President Taft, he addressed the people of the border in front of the one time capitol. The building has been remodeled now and has a new front of brick. Inside, the walls to and from the United States are distributed and worked, for it is the post office of Ciudad Juarez. In front is the same old cathedral of Guadalupe that stood there when Benito Juarez rose each morning and went to mass; the same old cathedral that was erected in 1540 by the Friars in their march northward on their mission for the

DEFENSE IN TOWN LOT CASES FILE DEMURRERS

By Associated Press.

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 15.—The demurrer to the indictment against Governor Haskell and others in the Muskogee town lot cases were filed by the defense here today. Judge Marshall allowed the defense to amend yesterday's motion to quash so far as it concerned Clarence W. Turner and W. T. Hutchings. It is claimed all members of the grand jury did not vote on the indictments accusing these men. The members of that body are now being examined.

HOLDENVILLE EXCITED OVER STEVENS MURDER

Holdenville, Okla., Oct. 15.—As a result of the murder of J. P. Stephens, by a lone negro bandit late last evening and the positive identification of John Black, who is in the county jail, as the guilty party, there is talk of a negro lynching here before another day.

Stephens was murdered and robbed of thirty-five dollars by a negro and at midnight last night Black was taken from an east-bound freight train at Calvin and fully fills the description of the bandit, but has not yet confessed to the murder.

The excitement has been intense and Sheriff King has kept the prisoner under constant guard.

MORE AFFIDAVITS AGAINST DR. COOK

Globe Today Publishes Statements of Four Men Who Were on Mt. McKinley Trip.

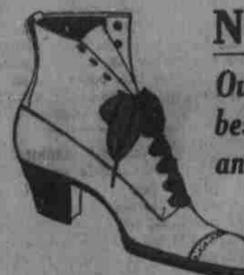

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 15.—Four more affidavits were published in the Globe here this afternoon, in connection with Cook's alleged ascent of Mount McKinley. Three of the affidavits are by Fred Printz, Walter Miller and Samuel Bercher, all members of Cook's party and the fourth is by Dr. John E. Shore, a physician of Leavenworth, Wash. The first three named declare that Barrill assured them that Cook's story of the ascent was false. Printz incidentally affirming Dr. Cook still owes him $25. Shore declares in his affidavit that Oscar F. Blankenship, now on the forestry service and who was near Mount McKinley in September 1906, told him that Cook did not have time to make the alleged ascent in the short while the explorer and Barrill were absent from the others of the party.
