The Time to Stop Your Ad is the Day Your Property is Sold!

If every one who had property to sell followed the plan of advertising it continually and persistently

Until It is Sold

no one would feel "property poor." And, while occasionally an ad might have to be repeated a score or more of times, the cost of it would be but trifling compared to the advantage of finding the buyer to whom that particular property would be a bargain at the price asked. All property in or near the city is saleable. Thus the rule of advertising is a safe and prudent one. Of course, the best time to begin is now—and, as suggested, the only time to stop is when your sale is made!

Your Property Until it is Sold
