

LANGSTON CITY LAITY.

DOINGS OF THE CITIZENS IN AND ABOUT THE NEGRO'S UTOPIA CAUGHT DRIFTING ON THE COMFORTABLE CURRENT.

BY OUR ROUND-ABOUT REPORTER AND

STANDARD INTO OUR OFFICE AND REPRODUCED, PRINTED AND PROMPTLY PARAPHRASED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF OUR READERS HERE AND ELSE-WHERE.

—Harvest time is near at hand.

—C. H. J. Andy and I. F. Norris were out on the 5th.

—Some colored gentlemen were out prospecting from Kansas last week.

—Master Thomas Slaughter, was on the sick list last week.

—We call the attention of our readers to our many advertisements.

—Mr. C. Fisher was on the sick list last week.

—When you want a fine cool drink before to drop in at Armstead & B road's.

—Miss Anna Stroud left last Monday to attend the teachers institute at Guthrie.

—Mr. Robert Slaughter was on the sick list last week, but is up and out again.

—We are doing job work on short notice, with readiness and dispatch, call and see us.

—B. Harry Hooks, our bustling Deputy Sheriff is a candidate for U. S. Deputy Marshall.

—As we go to press we hear nothing filling the air in Langston, but school election.

—Prof. Wesley Jackson, left last Saturday for Guthrie to take a position at 213 Harrison Ave.

—As we go to press, two of the members of the Herald's corps have fallen victims to sickness.

—Fields are ripe and harvests waiting, and many of our men can and we find plenty of work to do.

—Mr. A. A. Smith, has one of the finest crops of corn and cotton in this section of the country.

—Say if you have a job that you want done, bring it to us, and we can make you a special offer.

—Quite an enjoyable social was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Smith, on the evening of the 8th.

—A report comes to us that 500 Negroes came in last week and are camped on the banks of the Kickapoo lands.

—M. Burill Shaw and Engineer of Independence, Kas., was into see us last Friday, and highly commended Langston City.

—Our many readers need not go away off to Guthrie for a job, but come to this office. We can and will print every thing from bill to a book.

—The ice cream and strawberry festival given by the members of the Baptist church Thursday eve June 8th was a grand success as usual.

—The newly organized Baptist church on college height is dead in it. Its members are stayers: They hold services until midnight on Sunday nights.

—The song services are becoming interesting and largely attended, and quite beneficial to the attendants. Don't fail to be out next Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. R. S. Cox, our bustling contractor, left last week for Sedalia, Mo., to do work on a $50,000 college, under the supervision of Mr. LaFort, his brother in law.

—Every one that can should go to the strip of the Kickapoo's and get a hundred and sixty, all you need as previously announced is a Winchester a frying pan, and $15.00 to five.

—We call the special attention of our many readers to the many advertisements of the Herald, and asking when they have money to spend to make them the preference of their patronage.

—We received the information last week that two of the members of the City Council contemplated resigning. We are indeed sorry to hear this, and hope that those gentlemen will contemplate such intentions.

—Dr. W. F. Warren, a worthy practicing physician of Beaumont Tex., was in the city last week. He dropped into the Herald office, and expressed himself well pleased with the development of those enterprising people.

—We wonder why the young people of this city don't in their hands and hearts together more often? Why, we haven't had the pleasure of musical gany wedding cake, since here we've been.

—Miss Lula Kenneday, has been very sick with a sore throat, which is swollen to such an extent that she can hardly eat. Dr. Alston is attending her, which is sufficient to warrant her a speedy recovery.

—Mr. Will Hogan, a thrifty young man from Texas and brother to Mr. Burnett, our bustling grocery man arrived in the city a few days ago, and seems to be well pleased with our little city.

—Mr. Ed Robinson, returned from a short trip to Kansas, from whence he brought one nice span of grays, a mare and colt, a buggy and a wagon. Mr. Robinson is one of the wealthiest men in or about Langston.

—Say: Did you see that young lady who became stampeded and like to have torn down a bench trying to get to the table to put down a nickel while the elder was extending an opportunity for people to become members of his church?

—Rev. Travers is much like the Herald in biting his tongue. He will tell our people of their faults, if it kills them. Yes, and instead of swelling like a mighty currant, our people should stop and consider for a moment that our friends are those who tell us of our faults.

—Mr. J. I. Hazewood, while in Guthrie last Monday, lost a pocket book, which contained $15.

Notice Hunters and Fishers,

Owing to damage done me by parties leaving wires up, and allowing cable to go out and in, I positively forbid any more hunting or fishing on my farm, and parties caught so doing will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. J. P. Martin.

—Miss Mattie Walker, daughter of our bustling hotel proprietor and dry goods merchant arrived from Prairie View institute. There was a complimentary reception tendered Miss Walker on the evening of the 6th, all the elite of the city were out and the affair as a whole was quite enjoyable.

—Owing to the constant demand for job work, we have decided to add a job attachment to our office. Now when you are in need of letter heads, bill heads, posters, bills, tickets, cards, books and pamphlets, dodgers etc, come in to see us, and see our samples and hear our prices.

—Rev. J. R. Frazier, of this city, attended the A. M. E. Conference together with several Guthrie divines, at Kingfisher last week. Rev. Frazier tell of the excellent crops and fine land he saw between Guthrie and Kingfisher, and the prosperous condition of the Negroes in that a ction of the country.

—Through the much appreciated cordiality of Mr. L. G. Ballard, we were presented with a distinguished visitor in the person of Mr. Moses Cooper, an enterprising citizen of Fort Worth, Tex., Mr. Cooper after a careful inspection of this country decided that this is the place for him and his family, and leaves to come again.

—The rattling of the reapers are the euphonious sounds that greet the ears of our people in this section of the country, and what is ripening so fast, that the farmers are cutting on Sunday.

—Some of our own good citizens of Langston can to entertain a little grievance towards us for the tone of our paper in our little fireside politics. Now we will say that the editor of this paper, is strictly non-political, having no alliance either pro or con, but is devoted to the interest of the Negro in general. Now if any faction or party desire of us any support or aid, they know exactly what course to pursue to obtain the same, when that is not to the injury of our community. Now a hint to the wise is sufficient: See!

—The grand social given under the auspices Messrs J. N. Barnett, Geo. On 1 r et al, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, last Thursday night was a most delightful affair. The social with itself partly demonstrated the capability of the young gentlemen for amusing literary entertainment, and to, other with the diversity of delicacies with which their tables were filled, will serve long to their praise and memory. The excellent residence of Mr. Smith was nicely decorated and many voices that continually broke forth upon the silence of night, betrayed a standard of no little juvenility. The HERALD'S HAWK, made a flying trip over in time to notice the names of all those present but unfortunately he lost the list.
