It is reported that the pastor of the A. M. E. church on last Sunday made some remarks not complimentary to the Cimeter outfit, in which he attempted to vindicate himself and others from what has been termed the attack of the Cimeter on the church. Now, to be plain, and class all spades as spades, we desire to say that judging from what we see on the surface that evidently there has been some juggling with the funds and the property owned by the church. The old church sold, so we are informed, for $7,500. Now, we believe that there ought to be an accounting for that $7,500, and for the brick, stone and windows, and other materials, and which were not sold with the lot. They have now a building not completed, and is not so commodious as the old building was, and liking in a great many particulars the beauty and finish of the old structure. If the present building and the parsonage cost $7,500, or in the neighborhood of that, then we say that managers have mis-managed. If it did not then there ought to be a nice balance in the church treasure. We are informed that up to this date the church is without windows. That the church is without seats except a few old chairs which had been used heretofore. And that there are some debts still owed that have not been paid. Now, the way that this could be called up to the satisfaction of all concerned is a fair statement of the expenditures and what now remains on hand. For the benefit of the public and the members of the church who are not on the inside circle, we shall from time to time in these columns give out such information as we can acquire and that will be beneficial to all concerned. We shall begin at the beginning and tell how the title was not passed when the church lot was sold. It will be interesting reading, and the beginning of this story will be in the next issue of the great religious weekly, better known as the Cimeter.

A CALL.

A meeting of the Muskogee Republican club is hereby called to meet at Gavagan's Opera House November 16, 1904, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of endorsing a candidate for the appointment of postmaster of Muskogee, Ind. Ter., and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

This call is made in pursuance of the request of many Republicans of this city and vicinity, who desire the action of the club on this important matter, and in view of the fact that a meeting has been called by members of the Republican party to be held at the opera house October 29th, which call is non-official and unauthorized by the club, and in view of the further fact that it seems proper that a meeting called for the above purpose should be held after, rather than before, the coming Presidential election.

October 25, 1904.

(Signed) I. N. URY,
President.
G. K. DAVIDSON, Secretary.
