Muskogee, I. T., Thursday, February 8, 1906.

No 21

BOYNTON

That Boynton is a good business point is evidenced by the way colored men are spreading themselves. Thomas Aarrison, a native has purchased the building occupied by a white firm, The Boynton Hardware Co., about the center of the business part of Seamon St. In the same block, Bob Manuel, another native has bought an interest in another hardware house, white, one block north, same street, Chas. Ezell, R. E. L. Mitchell and George McCuen have come in possession of a business lot each. It was the intention of the whites to keep Negroes off Seamon, and confine their business to Kenefick Ave. Alex Rogers has leased the livery barn of J. W. Cherry.

Dr. A. C. Brisco, of Muskogee, has engaged quarters with our Dr. Alston, to spend a day weekly in our town doing dental work. Dr. Brisco is a Walden University man, having graduated from the dental department.

The personal estate of the late Jno. Rogers was sold at public outcry on Monday. Capt. Geo. T. Robinson, was the auctioneer.

Mr. Pretree have moved here from Langston to keep house for heron, Jimmie Pretree, the young blacksmith.

Miss Carrie E. Burnett, the milliner, has gone to spend a few weeks in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Mary Rich was in Muskogee this week.

J. S. Brown is in Henrietta this week looking after addition to that town.

Lawyer R. Emmett Stewart, of Muskogee, was out last week looking after business interests.

The Ladies Aid Circle of Allen Chapel was entertained this week by Mrs. Laurena Ezell.

Will Acorn, the baker, wants a partner, the trade is heavy for one man.

MASONIC.

Red Bird Lodge, A. F. & A. M. met in its regular meeting night and transacted some very important business and when they got through with the boys, what few were left, had a good time and hope to continue as it takes good material and good workers and nothing else will do for the A. F. & A. M. boys. All of the dead timber has been cut out as follows: E. L. Barber, B. J. Jackson, Sam An-draws, C. H. Parker, E. D. George and Abe Prince, all for nonpayment of dues. D. R. Allen was expelled for 99 years.

J. F. O'Neal, W. M.
W. J. Ruffin, Secretary.
