

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS.

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Cured by Cuticura.

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, six boxes of Ointment and two bottles of Resolvent. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago. The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable. W. M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

Difference in Bills.

Borroughs—Say, old man, got a ten-dollar bill about you?

Brokeleigh—No, but I've got a nine-dollar bill.

Borroughs—Come off! There isn't such a thing.

Brokeleigh—I wish there wasn't, but my tailor has me down on it: "Dr. to one pr. trousers."

Education in Sweden.

Nowhere else, unless in America, is education so universal as in Sweden. Every child must go to school between the ages of seven and 14, unless the parents can show that they are being privately educated. There are about twelve thousand common schools in Sweden, even the thinly populated districts having "ambulatory schools," held in various parts of the district. When this is the case the school term is reduced to about half the ordinary duration.—The Craftsman.

Neckties Women Buy.

Customer—Those are the fiercest looking neckties I ever saw. Why do you keep 'em?

Haberdasher—To sell.

Customer—Who on earth buys 'em? Haberdasher—Women, to give to their husbands.

Tyrant Cat.

"Do you really mean to say you keep a cat?"

"Yes."

"Well, well, I shouldn't think you'd want one about the house at all."

"We don't; but the cat insists."

Wanted His Cigar Boiled.

Kloseman—I gave you one of those cigars the other day, didn't I?

Wiseman—Yes, I remember it very well.

Kloseman—How would you like to have one now?

Wiseman—Boiled, I guess. They don't seem quite wholesome raw."—Philadelphia Press.

Champion Whittler.

B. F. Clay, of Philadelphia, a retired ship carpenter nearly 80 years of age, is said to be the champion whittler of the world. Aided only by a penknife and a piece of sandpaper, he has cut down a single block of wood to a quadruple-linked watch chain over three feet long and many other exceedingly delicate and difficult pieces of work. During the last few years, since retirement, Mr. Clay has cut scores of watch chains.—Technical World Magazine.
