For Governor of the State of Oklahoma,
Hon. John D. Benedict, of Muskogee,
I. T.

Give us a fire station on the West Side and give the Negro boys a chance to "fight fire." They will prove themselves worthy and will make a record of which the entire city will be proud.

We are still against the misfit constitution and also the patched constitution. We are against a ticket no matter who wants a job. We stand where we have always stood, that is for justice and right.

It is a pity that the city administration has no organ to defend it from the assaults of the enemy. The Phoenix gets the city printing, but its Democratic stockholders see that their masquerader does not support Republican officials.

The Republicans can carry this county and district if they are wise enough to do the proper thing now; if not, there will be trouble in the future. Let us have the right kind of harmony not the Douglass brand; the brand which seeks from us the harmony of voiceless acquiescence, but the harmony which comes from the recognition of the rights of all.

The amended, patched constitution is worse than the first effort; in fact, it reminds us of the bunglesome work of an inexperienced boy who tried to mend the rent in the rear of his trousers but who failed to cover the rent or to add to beauty and comfort of his apparel.

The mobbing of the Negro at Osage Junction is a sample of what Douglass and his Negro henchmen are working for. Doug. gave more space to murder without comment than he ever did anything that is elevating to the Negro.

Nobody knows who turned the Negro over to the mob at Osage. Yet the man was in the hands of an officer and of course the officer was asleep and does not know who took his prisoner.

The Hamilton Club proposes to dictate the politics of this county and Doug is dictating to the Hamilton Club. If you are for one you are for the other the Douglas platform and all.

Harmony.

The degree of harmony now existing in the Republican party is about nil. The fellows who aim to call a County Convention and nominate a ticket by reconvening the convention just adjourned will of course add to the harmonious condition of affairs. The conspiracy to commit murder by the assassination route also adds to the pleasant condition of things and the grand stand plays of the sprinting Colonel will put flavor in the harmonious pie.

The Grand chorus of the hamiltonians, "where he leads me I will follow," the solo by him of goatee fame, lends color and charm to the concordant chorus, while the bass solo by the borhorts recently admitted to the inner circles of the silk stocking outfit through the temporary suspension of the color clause adds diversity and picturesqueness to the well attuned whole. This soothing melody will just naturally and irresistibly draw all the offices to the hamiltonians.

Everything is now serene. All is well from the captain of the squad of liftum dungi to the members of the congressional committee. It also made big chunks of harmony when chairman Falwell refused to order a roll call when Huck was defeated for member of the State Committee and declared Huck elected.

The party is now in good shape to face the enemy and give him a good drubbing. No doubt the Democrats are now trembling for fear they will be swept from the face of the earth by the silk sock brigade.
