

ISLAND LOCALS.

ABOUT TOWN. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones are passengers to-day by the Australia for San Francisco. Mr. Justice Preston leaves for Kauai, to hold a term of the Fourth Judicial Circuit Court. Rev. H. F. E. Whalley and family arrived Sunday from Kohala, Hawaii, and will soon sail for England. To-night a meeting of the electors of the Second Ward comes off at the Lyceum, for the purpose of organizing. The Band gave its usual Saturday afternoon concert at Emma Square, and presented a usually good programme. A dump of the city, showing the voting districts, is on view in Hewitt's window, and attracts considerable attention. The Likelike returned to port Saturday morning, and the Kinoh on Sunday afternoon—the latter from the Volcano. It is rumored that Captain H. S. Swinton, of the Canute, will replace James Keen as night Station House keeper in this city. Mr. E. D. Preston and party are now at Kaupo, Maui, prosecuting their labors, and may be looked for here the coming week. The dredging apparatus is now being put in readiness for work, and will soon be called into requisition in deepening the harbor. Saturday night and Sunday forenoon, the city was visited by slight showers, which tended to lay the dust and cool the atmosphere. Mr. A. Wenner, jeweler, has returned to town from Waialua, looking the picture of health, after a few holidays in that breezy locality. The weather still continues oppressively warm during the day, while the nights are pleasant and cool, with occasional light showers. Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, who has been enjoying a season of rest at the Islands, returned to San Francisco on the Zealandia last Saturday. Chief Engineer Ezra J. Whitaker, of the U. S. S. Adams, was a passenger by the steamship Zealandia, for San Francisco, on Saturday last. Judge Preston observed, during the trial of the Dodd divorce case: "I shall hold that no aggravation in law will justify a man in striking a woman." On Monday, 25th inst., Hon. Sam. Parker entertained the officers of the U. S. S. Adams and H. B. M. S. Conquest at dinner at his King street residence. Nuuanu street is now receiving the attention of the Road Supervisor. That portion between King and Hotel streets is being leveled and made to look like a street. Mr. A. Marquis, editor and publisher of the O Lano Hawaiian, of this city, who is now traveling abroad, has been heard from, and was about to visit Lisbon, Portugal. Rev. Geo. Walker, the incumbent of St. Andrew's second congregation, this city, and family, sail in the Australia to-day for a short vacation in the Eastern States. On Friday the schooner Mana, Captain Nelson, sailed with the 133 South Sea Islanders, whose contract term has now expired, and who will be landed at their several islands. Last Tuesday the Post Office boys had a big day—a large foreign mail to sort and the island mails to dispatch. The foreign mail matter for the other Islands was also sent forward the same day. The death of A. Rosenberg—formerly apaiser in the Custom House—here, and better known under the cognomen of "Holy Moses"—is announced in the San Francisco Weekly Bulletin of the 13th inst. Hon. G. W. Macfarlane has kindly forwarded to this office a copy of the Justice number of the London Times, containing full details of this great peasant in and about the great metropolis. The Hawaiian Opera House has been renovated, including a new stage and refitted scenery. A new stage is over, and a small but select dramatic or operatic company would probably do well for a short season. Mr. W. L. Kerr, the tailor, received another large importation of cloths by the Australia, direct from the manufacturers in England. Many of the patterns are single suits, and some of them are daisies in neatness. A letter from Capt. Bray, of Oakland, Cal., in answer to inquiries, states that to the best of his knowledge C. K. Miller, formerly of Honolulu, is conducting himself in a proper manner, and is living up to his professions of faith. On Thursday evening an alarm of fire was sounded, which proved to be some bedding in a blaze in a Chinese shop on Maunakea street. No 2 was quickly on the ground and with a well-directed stream soon had the fire subdued, and the Chinese, too. The report is current that the Board of Genealogy is defunct. It is not stated whether it died hard or not. The Ministry are to be congratulated, should the rumor prove correct, on getting rid of this formidable barnacle from the public treasury. Among the outgoing passengers by the Zealandia, Saturday, were Mr. W. W. Hall, Miss Sarah King, and Mr. E. A. Jones, who propose being abroad about three months, enjoying the cool and bracing autumn weather of the Coast and the East. Bon voyage. Advice from Maui state that Mrs. G. A. Ball, wife of Dr. Ball, Government physician at Makawao, met with serious injuries last week by being thrown from her horse while on riding. Just before the sailing of the Likelike her condition was somewhat improved. Owing to professional and business engagements, Dr. Jno. S. McGrew, one of the Vice Presidents of the International Medical Congress, to meet at Washington, on the 5th September, is unable to attend the meeting of that body. Mrs. McGrew and her two children, however, go to Paris and Europe. The Educational Societies gave a treat at the Palace on Saturday afternoon last, in honor of the return of Her Majesty and the Princess Liliuokalani from their foreign tour. A large assemblage was present, including the Kawalaha Club, which rendered some fine selections of vocal music on this occasion. By the Australia, Mr. D. P. Smith, the Agent for the Electric Light Company, received the necessary wire to complete the lighting of the city, and will immediately proceed to place the same in position. A new and powerful dynamo is also on the way, and will be here in time for use when the wires are up. This will complete Mr. Smith's duties in connection with the electric light here, after which Mr. Faulkner will have charge. Mr. Smith will probably next visit Japan in the interests of the company he represents. Mr. Robert Lishman is busy laying the new granite sidewalk in front of the Custom House and Harbor Master's office, and when completed will be a durable walk for many years. It is a great pity that the whole of Fort street is not to be paved with this durable material. The Minister of the Interior secured the whole lot of these superior paving stones, ex ship Mercury, and will be prepared to dispose of the surplus, and when the what is required for the Custom House premises, to any person who may require these paving stones.

HAWAII.

The Rail Road Survey party have almost reached Lanipahoehoe, Hawaii. They were two weeks enroute, the Manila Gale, as the rising land just beyond presented new factors to the problem that was unlooked for, but which will be overcome. Friday noon, July 29, a public meeting was held at 11 o'clock, at which the piano of the Hilo Piano Association was passed over to the Book Association. Practice at the Hilo rifle range is kept up. J. A. Beckwith leading with 87. H. Hitchcock following with a possible 82. Captain James A. King. Advice from Captain King state that on reaching San Francisco he found orders awaiting him to proceed on to Liverpool. It is rumored that the gallant Captain will return to Honolulu in command of a fine, large steamer, which may ultimately do duty between Hilo and San Francisco. The Blue Ribbon League. This organization had a highly interesting meeting on Saturday evening. Every number on the programme was enthusiastically enjoyed, and Commander Miller, of the bar Iron Crag, with his violin solo, being twice recalled. A brief but powerful address was delivered by the Rev. H. H. Gowen, in response to which eleven persons came forward and signed the pledge. The Dodd Divorce Case. This case, which occupied the attention of the Court Friday and Saturday, was finished on the latter day. A cross bill, charging Mrs. Dodd with adultery, was dismissed by Judge Preston at the stage of the proceedings. The Judge will render his decision on his return from Kauai. The evidence on both sides was voluminous and spicy. The Gibson Breach of Promise Case. On Saturday, Mr. W. A. Kinney, counsel for the plaintiff, in the case of St. Clair vs. Gibson, presented an order fixing the trial "peremptorily" for the October term, which was objected to by defendant's counsel, Messrs. Neumann and Hatch. His honor modified the objection, and the hearing was postponed accordingly, and the case will be heard at the October term. Mr. Q. I. Tewksbury. This gentleman, who is well and favorably known as the "Store-keeper at the Custom House," has been granted a leave of absence for a short time, and proposes taking a run to Frieso, to recuperate his emaciated form to its wonted avoirdupois. Mr. Tewksbury will be accompanied by Mrs. Tewksbury, and their many friends here join in wishing them a pleasant time during their absence, and a safe return home again. Dance to the Naval Officers. Friday evening, Mr. T. R. Walker, Acting British Vice-Consul, and Mrs. Walker, entertained the officers of the U. S. S. Adams and H. B. M. S. Conquest at a dance at their seaside residence, Waikiki. The notage and lanna were brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. A large number of the city residents were also present, and the whole formed one of the pleasantest parties of the season. The music for the occasion was furnished by Berger's string band. Return of Queen Kapiolani. On Tuesday morning last, shortly after 8 o'clock, the steamer Australia was signaled from the light from Waiananaloa, and after the people began to assemble on the wharf to receive Her Majesty, the Her Appear, General Dominis, Governor Iaukea, and the other members of the Royal party. On nearing the land the steamer was noticed as flying the Royal standard of Hawaii, which indicated that the Royal party was on board. The steam tug Eleu was soon in readiness, and with Acting Governor Cleghorn and others on board, proceeded outside to receive the Royal party, and convey it from the steamer to the landing at the foot of Fort Street. At the Royal buoy the tug came alongside of the steamer, and the Royal Standard and party were safely transferred on board the Eleu, which immediately steamed at a rapid rate for the harbor. The two war ships in port were gallily decorated with bunting which the merchant vessels also had a creditable display in honor of the occasion. In addition to the above the war ship Conquest and Adams manned their yards. On the tug reaching the light house, the shore battery received the party with a royal salute of twenty-one guns, which was quickly followed by a similar salute from H. B. M. S. S. Conquest—the U. S. S. Adams not being a saluting ship, did not fire. The tug then steamed to the Inter-Island wharf, where Her Majesty and suite were received by His Majesty's Ministers, Acting Chamberlain Hon. A. Rosa, Hon. C. R. Bishop, and other notables. Marshal Kaula and a number of police maintained order, and cleared the street for the royal party. On landing the Queen and party embarked in carriages and were rapidly driven to the Palace, amid cheers from those assembled to welcome her return to her native land. The party seemed to be in the best of health and much improved in general appearance by the trip abroad. Reform in the Fifth Ward. A large and enthusiastic meeting of young men of the Fifth Ward was held at the Honolulu Rifles Armory, on Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing a Reform Club. The meeting was opened by Colonel Ashford, after which Mr. George McLeod was called to the chair, and Mr. Alex. Robertson was appointed secretary. A committee on permanent organization was appointed, consisting of Colonel V. Y. Ashford, F. W. Wendenberg, W. F. Allen, Dr. J. G. Tucker, and W. G. Armstrong. The committee, after a few minutes' private conference in an ante-room, recommended as the permanent officers and committees of the Club: Mr. George McLeod, President; Mr. M. D. Monsarrat, Vice-President; Mr. W. H. Hoogs, Secretary; Dr. J. G. Tucker, Treasurer; T. J. King and F. W. Wendenberg, Committee on Credentials; George McLeod, M. D. Monsarrat, W. H. Hoogs, W. F. Allen, V. Y. Ashford, F. W. Wendenberg, E. Muller, J. H. Fisher, Dr. J. G. Tucker, George Stratemeyer, T. J. King, L. C. Ables and Chas. J. McCarthy, Executive Committee. The report was adopted, and the gentlemen above named were elected to their several positions by acclamation. His honor further recommended that the ward be divided into five precincts, and a committee of six be appointed to each precinct, to canvass the same thoroughly, ascertain the names of residents, and endeavor to secure a full and complete registration of all persons eligible for voters at the coming election. The precincts and committees are: A—Between King, Beretania, Nuuanu and Alakea streets: M. D. Monsarrat, L. C. Ables, W. Wright, G. H. Martin, Andrew Brown, and C. Ziegler. B—Between King, Beretania, Alakea and Pooehouli streets: F. Wendenberg, T. J. King, J. Knudsen, E. P. Low, J. Sullivan and D. McLean. C—Between Beretania, School, Nuuanu and Fort streets: M. Sanders, W. Jarrett, W. Wagoner, G. Stratemeyer, J. F. Smith and Henry Smith. D—Between Beretania, School, Fort and Emma streets: N. B. Emerson, E. F. Bishop, T. F. Lansing, B. Ordenslein, W. F. Allen and C. Nicoll. E—Between Beretania, Emma and Pooehouli streets: M. Reuenschneider, A. Robertson, J. M. Dowsett, W. F. Looe, C. J. McCarthy and N. Fyburn. Capt. Ashford addressed the meeting, and gave various items of important information relative to the election law and regulations, and the proper methods to be used in carrying out the purposes of the club. The roll was signed by one hundred and ten men, and the meeting adjourned to Thursday evening, at a place to be named by the Executive Committee.

Dismissal.

On Tuesday, Capt. Tripp, Jailor of Oahu Prison, was requested to hand in his resignation, and the following day Capt. Melvin Staples, formerly master of the schooner Mot Wahine, was named for the position. The reasons for Capt. Tripp's resignation are not publicly set forth, but it is generally considered they are amply sufficient to warrant his removal. Thursday, Mr. Julius H. Smith, Superintendent of Public Works, handed in his resignation. His successor has not yet been appointed. Another New Brick Building. Mr. E. B. Thomas, the builder, has secured the contract for putting up Mr. H. Maerten's new brick building on the Bethel Lot, King and Bethel streets. The building will be two stories in height, and in the form of an L, extending from King street to the line of the Friend building and thence out to Bethel street. The structure will be so arranged that it can be used as a single store, or two separate establishments. There will be ample cellage underneath for all purposes. The structure promises to be one of the finest and most complete in that section of the town. The Rifle. A shooting contest took place, Saturday afternoon, at the range on King street, between the members of the Hawaiian Rifle Association and a team of ten from H. B. M. Steamship Conquest. Every marksman had ten shots at each of 200, 400 and 500 yards. The total scores of the Association were: W. Unger, 128; J. W. Pratt, 124; F. J. Higgins, 134; J. J. Kook, 119; C. H. Fisher, 119; W. C. King, 119; C. B. Wilson, 117; Dr. Jno. Brodie, 115; E. Hingley, 113; C. H. Nicoll, 104. Grand Total, 1,185. The Ship Company's scores were: H. Chappel, 135; T. M. Dermott, 128; S. King, 124; E. Jones, 122; Lieut. Symonds, 121; J. Collins, 107; Noble, 102; Capt. Oakley, 99; Lieut. Clarke, 94; W. Mason, 87. Grand Total, 1,121. Entertainment to the Blue Jackets. The entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. to the crews of the U. S. S. Adams and H. B. S. Conquest, on Friday evening, was a decided success. The hall was crowded in every part. A solo by Miss Jennie Grieve, a reading by Miss Addie Peterson, and a song by the Y. M. C. A. band, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. A. F. Judd, were enthusiastically applauded. One of the sailors of the Adams and several of those of the Conquest contributed a good share of song-singing to the entertainment. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. P. C. Jones, S. D. Fuller and K. H. Gowen. After the literary part of the exercises the guests and other friends who remained were treated to ice-cream and cake. The New Loan. It is ascertained on good authority that the Ministry will place a portion of the Hawaiian Loan on the market here for acceptance by local capitalists and others who may feel disposed to invest their surplus capital or savings in securities, which ought, under good management, to prove the best investment not only to the holders of the bonds, but to the Kingdom as well—insuring the disbursement of the interest, and eventually the principal in the community, instead of being sent abroad. The bonds bear interest at 6 per cent., which, as they are free of taxes, is equivalent to 7 per cent. per annum. It is intended to use the receipts of the sales of the bonds to settle the claims for lands taken by the Government for streets in the burist district of Honolulu, for improving the roads of the Kingdom and the harbor of Honolulu. St. Louis College. Upwards of a thousand people assembled in the great Hall of St. Louis College to attend the closing exercises at this institution. The opening overture was played by the College Orchestra, in excellent time and good taste. The choir, composed of boys and small pupils, who had each a small white shawl hanging from his neck. The first one recited a verse, and then turning his shield around displayed the letter "W." Each boy had his turn until the word "Welcome" was proclaimed, which was a capital idea and met with the approval of the audience. Master Eli Crawford then came forward and delivered an address of welcome. The entertainment consisted of choruses, among which the voice of Master Cooper deserves special mention. Instrumental concert pieces and two little dramatic sketches, all of which were well rendered, and delighted and amused the audience in turn. The singing by the College Mission Choir of the "Little Trademen," was especially good and called forth an encore. On the conclusion of the exercises the Princess Liliuokalani, the Princess Kaiulani, the French Consul, the Hon. C. R. Bishop and the Bishop of Oahu were invited on to the stage. The Hon. C. Bishop being called upon to speak, said he had listened with much pleasure to the charming music. Whatever one undertakes it should be done with thoroughness. It was very evident that the teachers had taken great pains in their pupils, and that the latter had been very tentative. The exercises had been very creditable to all concerned, and he congratulated them upon the exhibition. A year ago he listened to the closing exercises, and then heard some of the boys speak in English with fluency and grace, and he had had good improvement in their pronunciation of English. He congratulated the teachers and all connected with the school. He hoped they would all enjoy their vacation and return with fresh vigor to their studies. The Lord Bishop of Oahu thanked the large number of those present, and expressed his gratifying to see that so many took an interest in the work of the school, and especially was it so to the faithful and devoted teachers. The prizes were then distributed and the audience dispersed. In Memoriam—Dr. Borland. It was with great surprise and regret that the public received the news of the sudden death of Dr. John Borland, on the afternoon of the 21st ult. On that day he had made his usual visits to his patients in Kekaha and district; he returned home and then proceeded to make a friendly call with his family. He had just left his friends' house and had driven a short distance, when he was seized with a very bad hemorrhage. He at once drove back; but, though everything was done, his mental and anxiety could suggest, he expired shortly after returning to the house. The suddenness of his demise startled all the people here who knew him (and these are many), for, though it was well known by his wife in a delicate state of health, yet no one had given it a thought that his hold on life was so slender. The deceased physician was a native of Greenock, Scotland, and studied medicine at Glasgow University. While an undergraduate, he acted as pro-secutor to the Professor of Anatomy, and after graduation, he became home surgeon in the Glasgow Royal Infirmary to Dr. Perry, and to Dr. Macneil, a man of world wide fame. After gaining much practical experience, he began practicing in Islington, London. There he was gradually building up a good practice and had just got well established, when, under the strain of his arduous labors, his health gave way. He was compelled to leave London, and he sought a more genial climate in the Hawaiian Islands. He came to Kilauea, Kauai, in 1853, having received the appointment of Government physician to the northern district. But the north was not so comfortable, and two and one-half years ago he came to Waimea, where his medical career has so suddenly and unexpectedly ended. By his death the community of Kauai has lost at once a faithful and a skillful servant; and those who knew him better, a general companion and a kind-hearted and true friend. In the midst of our own times he did his duty courageously and well; his natural cheerfulness of disposition sustained him when many another man would have broken down; and he went about his work, when many looking upon him thought him well and strong; but his last day's work has shown how delicate were the appearances of strength. The public mourn his loss and sympathize heartily with his wife and children, for whom he worked with perseverance and by whom he was sustained and cheered in his work. On View. The beautiful ice pitcher, presented to A. T. Atkinson, Esq., by the employees of the HAWAIIAN GAZETTE, may be seen in the window of Mr. J. H. Soper, Merchant street. Death of Mr. John Foster. On Tuesday, Mr. John Foster, a native of Pictou, Nova Scotia, a ship carpenter by trade, dropped dead at his work, at Sorenson & Lytle's shop, Queen street. He had just attempted to lift the end of a piece of timber, when he was noticed to fall, and shortly after expired. Drs. Trousseau and Gray were telephoned for, but death intervened before their arrival. The body was subsequently removed to the Station House, where a Coroner's inquest was held, which resulted in ascertaining that death was caused by "heart disease." Anti Constitution Meeting. EDITOR GAZETTE.—On Tuesday evening, July 26, a mass meeting was called by the natives for the purpose of discussing the new Constitution. A few office holders here (mostly policemen) under the old regime, have been stirring up the natives into protests against certain clauses in the new Constitution. Miscellaneous papers, printed in Honolulu, protesting against the new Constitution, and petitioning the King to call a convention under the old order of things, are being circulated, and it was to gain signatures to this paper that the meeting was called. A great deal of fizz and froth was fired off about the rights of Hawaiians. A few of the leading foreigners present, on being asked to speak, showed how to go on work to alter the new constitution in case it was found defective, and asked the natives to be careful about following the lead of those opposed to the new Constitution. Their remarks were well received. The meeting was peaceable and, but for the disturbance caused by an old kamama, who was evidently not a blue ribbon man, orderly and quiet.—A few signatures were obtained, mostly of boys and fellows "about town." The general sentiment of the better class of natives here seems to be for law and order, and though the rights of Hawaiians, amongst them that parts of the new Constitution might be better, the majority of the more influential natives discontinue the petitions which are calculated to make the kamaka restive and bitter. A political meeting at Lanipahoehoe Friday evening, July 29, ended in little better than a fracas among the natives. Certain parties were ordered out of the house and upon refusing to go the lights were extinguished, thus ending the meeting but not the loud talking which was kept up outside for some time. In Hanakoa the people have been stirred up and are pushing things for the coming elections. The feeling there is strongly in favor of the new order of things. At writing the Board of Inspectors here are busy swearing in voters under the new Constitution. Hilo, July 29, 1887. Inaction of the Kidneys and Urinary organs causes the worst of diseases which American Co's Hop Bitters cures. See Advt. Special Notices. DR. Keep Quiet a Few Days. London Times. This is what the good doctor and kind friends say time and again to those whose nerves are all unstrung, worn out with labor and care, sleepless nights, poor appetites, unable to digest the little they do eat, and a general miserableness all over. There is no doubt about the advice being good, but how many of the suffering thousands can follow it? Not one in twenty! The clergyman who keeps together a large congregation; the man that manages an important business; the poor man with his family to support, as well as the wife who presides over the rich man's household, seeing that everything is complete and in order; or the mother who can not afford a nurse, and is broken up by a frail baby, must all go on, notwithstanding the advice to Keep Quiet a Few Days. What then are you to do? To go on seems certain death. And drop all cares you cannot; the road looks dark, but 'tis before day. Will and determination have much to do with our existence. Never give up. Study to find where you have gone against Nature the hardest, and abandon all things possible that do you harm. You will find it necessary at times to depend on a good reliable medicine to help you out. Hops are a good nerve and tonic; Podopholin a cathartic and liver regulator; Buchu acts on the kidneys and urinary organs. These, properly combined with other ingredients, have proved the greatest medicine ever prepared, and is known throughout the world as Hop Bitters. Prosecute the Swindlers! If you call for American Hop Bitters (see green label) on the white label and Dr. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, you are out anything but American Hop Bitters, refuse it and shun that vendor as you would a viper; and if he has taken your money for anything else, indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindle, and we will pay you liberally for the conviction.
