The number of names on the list of persons qualifying to vote for Nobles was coming up towards 700 Saturday afternoon.

The clearing away of obstructions on the widened line of Bethel street has effected a striking improvement in appearances of the whole locality.

Mr. C. J. Lyons of the Survey Office, is going about the streets with his theodolite, establishing permanent points of reference for grading of streets.

Major Dane, who delighted Honolulu audiences last year, was lecturing in Auckland in July. He was gathering material for a lecture on New Zealand to be delivered in Honolulu.

A special term of the Third Circuit Court will be held at Waiohina, Hawaii, on Monday, September 19th, in place of the term regularly held at the same place on the first Thursday in September.

A three year old son of Mr. John Colburn got rather badly burned August 21st. His clothes caught fire from matches with which he had been playing. The burns were mostly on the arms and legs. Dr. Trouessart attended the case.

A prominent merchant was asked yesterday "How's business?" The answer was "No business at all. Everything is in suspense until the political atmosphere clears and the political situation of the Kingdom is permanently settled."

Mr. Hebbard commenced work on the Fall road on Monday. Twenty-five men were employed. The gang is working from the top where the material is obtained and will continue operations towards the city until the work on this side is completed.

Mr. J. F. Brown, of the Survey office, is engaged in laying out government lands up the Nuuanu Valley. An area of some 200 acres, opposite Mr. Wood's place, is being laid out into lots, preparatory to offering the lands for occupation under the homestead act.

His Majesty the King returned to town last Tuesday evening by the steamer Lehua, from Lahaina. His Majesty was accompanied by His Excellency, the Hon. Godfrey Brown, Minister of Foreign Affairs. His Excellency was one of the passengers by the Kinan on Monday evening.

The Kapena homestead was sold on Saturday at Levey's auction rooms for $3,750. Mr. J. T. Waterhouse was the purchaser. The lands to have been sold at the same time were withdrawn, the realized proceeds from sales made being sufficient to clear off the debts on the estate.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Louissou's silver wedding Friday eve, was the greatest social event of a long time. Among a large number of guests were the Hon. L. A. King, Governor and Governor DeLoach. Music was furnished by the Royal Band, and the entertainment closed with a dance.

A Reform ticket for Nobles on Maui is as follows: H. Bailey, Henry Baldwin, James Campbell, W. P. A. Brewer, John Richardson and Augustine Ecos. There will be a convention to finally determine the candidates for Nobles to-day, when it is probable that a change will be made in the last name above mentioned.

Mr. W. E. Herriek has turned out a handsome specimen of his handiwork, being a musician's baton in three different Hawaiian woods, of many shades of color, highly polished and ivory-tipped at both ends. It was made to the order of Prof. J. W. Yarnall for presentation to a friend in the United States, and is on view in Mr. J. H. Soper's window.

The funeral of the late John E. Bush, Jr., whose death resulted from the kick of a horse took place Friday afternoon from his father's home to Makiki cemetery. Rev. H. H. Parker, pastor of Kawilua church, conducted the services. Comrades of the deceased from Engine Company No. 4 attended the funeral in uniform, besides which there was a large concourse of relatives and friends.

M. S. Grinnam & Co. vs. J. W. and L. S. Thompson: bill in equity for foreclosure of mortgage. After hearing evidence the Court ordered that on presentation of deeds to that effect it would be signed, the property mortgaged to be sold after due advertisement. Defendants are sugar planters in the District of North Kohala, Hawaii, and are indebted in the sum of $30,000. F. M. Hatch for plaintiffs. No appearance by defendants, who were declared in default.

A new organization has been added to the many previously existing in Honolulu. It is musical, not political, this time. A number of German residents met at the house of Mr. E. H. Wolcott on the evening of the 6th and formed a German singing and musical club, with K. A. Schuler, President, J. E. Schuler, Secretary, and Mr. E. W. Walters, Treasurer. Seven members enrolled. A first class member is to be engaged. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wolters.

From Mr. W. H. Aldrich, the always courteous trustee of the estate of Kilauea, it is learned that the country along the Hamakua coast is looking very fine. Having had plenty of rain lately, the growing cane is thriving. All the plantations except Lanipaho have ceased grinding and begun planting. H. H. B. A. The cement was at Kilauea when the Kilauea Hot led on Wednesday, and was to sail next day for the completion of the tour of Hawaii and return to Honolulu.

Mr. Fankner, superintendent of electric lights, and Mr. Steie, engineer of the Palace electric lights, went up Nuuanu Valley the other day, to investigate the possibility of getting water power sufficient to run another dynamo when the intended system is started next month. They were satisfied that the force was there, and in all probability the water will shortly be used in supplying us with light. The writer of these lines long ago suggested in the press that such a thing might be practicable.

An amendment to section 25 of the rules and regulations under which the coming election is to be conducted has just been published. The amendment is for the purpose of requiring the dimensions, shape and color of the ballots, those for nobles to be blue, and for representatives white. Ballots must be of the regulation pattern or they will not be counted. There will be no difficulty in obtaining proper ballots, as the paper will be supplied gratis by the Minister of Interior to election officials.

A native woman ran away with leprosy was arrested above Judd street last week.

By Captain Tell of the city police and Officer C. B. Reynolds of the Board of Health staff. She was removed to the Kakaako branch hospital, her face being in a terrible condition. It appears that the sufferer had got wind of the intention to arrest her and took refuge in a neighbor's house, where she was locked up in a small room. The man of the house unlocked the room when requested, and the officers found the poor woman crouched in a corner behind the door.

Pacific Hose Company. A meeting of Pacific Hose Company No. 1 was held Monday, Aug. 5, at their hall, King street, the Foreman, Mr. M. D. Mousarrat, presiding. The object of the meeting was to disband the company. Foreman Mousarrat addressed the meeting on the question of disbanding, strongly urging upon the company the propriety of maintaining their identity. On being put to vote, the motion was defeated by an almost unanimous "No."

Leprosy in South America. The Medical Bulletin of Cali, Cauca, published June 1st, contains an interesting article on leprosy, of which there are many cases to be found in the interior of Colombia. The writer, however, believes the disease can be acquired without contagion, and cites the case of a man who has never been in a locality where the disease exists, and yet became afflicted with it through falling into a river while heated from a hard day's sport. No attention was paid to the disease, but in every house in which he resided, and with the members of families in which he was brought in close contact, several cases occurred.

Letter from Lahaina. Ed. GAZETTE: The usual quiet of Lahaina has been broken the past two weeks. On Thursday, the 4th inst., a meeting of those who are eligible to vote for Nobles was held here, for the purpose of endorsing the nominations already made of candidates for Nobles on Maui. Some twenty or more voters were present. Mr. W. Horner was elected Chairman and Mr. Evans, Secretary. After some remarks, the gentlemen already nominated were approved, viz: James Campbell, John Richardson, H. P. Baldwin, W. P. A. Brewer, E. Bailey and John Enos.

Free Pews. Two of the wealthiest Episcopal churches in New York City—Trinity and Grace—have decided not to rent their pews hereafter, but to make them free. Some of the pews in each of the above churches are owned by the congregation, and for the present cannot be made free, but will probably be eventually rendered by the owners, or purchased by the trustees, and thereafter be made free to the congregations worshipping in them. It indicates a progressive spirit, as the free pew system tends to attract the floating population, as well as those who seldom attend church, on account of the rigid exclusiveness of the present system.

A Violent Collision. Major H. F. Hebbard, Road Supervisor, was driving round the Fashion Stables corner, from Union into Hotel street, when a horse ridden at full gallop over the latter thoroughfare struck the Major's brake and overturned it. The rider was thrown over the vehicle by the collision, and pinned on the ground on the other side. He proved to be Henry Williams, a driver employed on a road cart by the Road Supervisor. Major Hebbard when the brake went over landed on his feet, holding firmly to the reins and preventing his spirited horse from running away. The left shaft of the brake was broken off, and Williams was arrested by officer Hopkins and taken to the station, where the Marshal fixed his bail at $25.

Meeting of Engine Company No. 2. Engine Co. No. 2 met Wednesday evening for the election of officers and other business. Officers elected were: C. J. McCarthy, Foreman; Thomas Smith, First Assistant Foreman; James Campbell, Second Assistant Foreman; W. F. Leve, Secretary. The Foreman read an address to his predecessor, Mr. James Morgan, and presented him with a splendid gold watch, on behalf of the Company. The watch is engraved on the inner case with the words, "Presented to ex-Foreman J. F. Morgan by his friends of Mechanic Engine Company No. 2, Honolulu, August 16th, 1887."

Accident to Dr. Lowell Smith. On Saturday morning about 10 o'clock, the respectable Dr. Lowell Smith met with a very painful accident, which will no doubt lay him aside for some time, and that, at this time of life, leaves him in a very critical condition. The Doctor had driven into the yard at his residence, Nuuanu Valley, and while taking his horse out of his carriage was assisted by a Portuguese, who announced an errand to be to get some medicine. The horse by this time was all but loose from the carriage, only the shafts remaining in the loops. The Portuguese made a show of offering assistance by running round to the other side of the horse, where by some act of stupidity he frightened the animal, so that he lurched over against the Doctor, threw him down and upset the carriage, bringing it completely over him. The man who was after the medicine took to his heels, left the premises and has not been seen since. The horse, however, stood quietly, and the doctor called for assistance first to some boys who were up in the mango trees near by, but the boys afraid of being cashed for depredations got down and made good their escape. After lying under the carriage, as he thinks about a quarter of an hour, Dr. Smith, a native man passing and obtained his assistance.

The main injury sustained by Dr. Smith is the fracture of the neck of the humerus or upper bone of the arm inside the sheath of the socket.

He was removed to the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. Dillingham, where he was attended by Dr. Tucker.

His condition was remarkably favorable at 12:45 last night, at which time he had been resting quietly for about five hours.

The King vs. Moeo (k.), housebreaking and larceny in Hawaiian part. Formal guilty and sentence at hard labor. A. P. Peterson for the Crown, J. M. Poepeo for defendant.

Swift, Garstin et al. vs. Kilauea Sugar Co. Bill in equity for injunction. Injunction granted.

A Night in the Crater of Haleakala. On the first of the month, Professor J. D. Dana, the eminent scientist of Yale, with Mrs. Dana, Miss Dana, Professor Merritt of Oahu College, Mrs. Merritt, and Professor Alexander, of the Survey Office, took passage by the Leleka for a visit to the great crater of Haleakala. As Haleakala and its approaches are among Professor Alexander's most familiar stamping grounds, he went along to act as company for the rest of the party, taking along with him, among other things, the necessary tent accommodations. The party landed at Kahului, and at the plantation men and mules were obtained. Mrs. Dana not feeling equal to the task of making the ascent, the remains here. Mrs. Merritt staying with her. Manager Walsh, of the Paia plantation, and Miss Benton of California, joined the expedition. The weather was splendid. On the way up a rest was taken at Olanda.

Five mules were obtained, the company going partly round it outside, and down into it, where they camped on the night of the 4th-5th, near a little spring. It was a glorious night, full moon and fine weather. Being well supplied with blankets and provisions, they were quite comfortable. Next day, they made their way back to Paia. Professor Dana, though 74 years of age, stood the trip well and enjoyed it very much. After going Haleakala, Professors Dana and Merritt with "father" Bailey as guide made an excursion up the Waiau Valley. On the way, they made their way back to Paia. They joined the Kinan Monday night, they were joined by Mrs. Cornwell at Waikapu. Professors Dana and Merritt and ladies went on to Hilo, to spend a week at the volcano of Kilauea. Professor Alexander returned to town Saturday morning.

Ed. GAZETTE: The usual quiet of Lahaina has been broken the past two weeks. On Thursday, the 4th inst., a meeting of those who are eligible to vote for Nobles was held here, for the purpose of endorsing the nominations already made of candidates for Nobles on Maui. Some twenty or more voters were present. Mr. W. Horner was elected Chairman and Mr. Evans, Secretary. After some remarks, the gentlemen already nominated were approved, viz: James Campbell, John Richardson, H. P. Baldwin, W. P. A. Brewer, E. Bailey and John Enos.

Mr. W. Y. Horner then suggested, as the object of the meeting had been accomplished, that the meeting be adjourned, and that the meeting take some action regarding the selection of two candidates to represent Lahaina in the Legislature. A committee of five was then named to inquire and report to the next meeting the best men to nominate for Representatives.

Short addresses were made, urging all to unite in support of the ticket which shall be put forward, when the meeting adjourned. The unexpected arrival of His Majesty the King, on the 5th, caused some sensation, as no announcement had been made of his visit. On the following day, Saturday, it was given out that he would be in Lahaina on the 7th. On Sunday, on account of this notice a very large crowd filled the church, including both natives and foreigners. His Majesty attended, accompanied by Governor Baker and Hon. L. A. King. After a short discourse by Rev. J. W. Walker, who is staying here at present, the King came forward to the platform below the pulpit, and spoke at some length regarding the changes that had lately taken place, advising the natives to go to the proper officers and take the oath to support the new Constitution, and thereby qualify themselves for Nobles. His address was listened to very eagerly by his hearers.

Mr. Aholo and the Governor also made short addresses, approving of the King's advice to them.

His Majesty was planning to proceed on to the Kinan on Monday night, and for this purpose went down to the wharf, where he was met by Minister Brown, from Honolulu, who took him aside and persuaded him to remain and not proceed on to Hawaii, as had been his plan. In the morning, it transpired that he and Mr. Brown would return to Honolulu in the steamer Lehua, but for what reason has not yet been learned here.

Ed. GAZETTE: H. M. S. Conquest arrived in port Sunday morning, with Minister Wodehouse on board. The officers and men are having a run on shore. Seven of the officers left for the plantations. Mr. Conquest returned on Tuesday another party of fifteen started. The Conquest will leave here tomorrow, stopping at Kealahou Bay, and expects to reach Honolulu on Saturday afternoon.

Earthquakes are becoming more frequent here of late. A very heavy shock occurred on Sunday night at 1:30, which shook things up considerably.

The Blue Ribbon entertainment, which was postponed the week previous on account of the watery condition of affairs, came off on Saturday evening at the Court-house. The audience was large and appreciative and the program was an excellent one. A piano duet by Mrs. Parker and Miss Grace Porter was admirably rendered. A solo, with violin accompaniment, was given by Mrs. H. C. Austin and Mr. L. Severance, and was well received. A trio, "O Restless Sea," by Messrs. A. J. Boehner, and L. and E. Lyman, was given as an encore. Recitations by Mr. Boehner and H. C. Austin, and recitations by Hy. Akau and Ernest Lyman completed the program, which was very interesting and well received throughout.

Mr. Fuller, of Honolulu, addressed the meeting very briefly, after which it adjourned.

Dr. C. N. Spencer, Inspector-General of Immigrants, is in town, except an official visit to the plantations. He and Mr. Irwin also arrived overland from Hamakua.

The meeting for the nomination of Nobles for the Island of Hawaii was held in town on Thursday, attended by representatives from Kohala and Hamakua. The ticket for Nobles, as agreed upon, is as follows: John Parker, Waimea; S. G. Wilder, Hilo; Chas. Notley, Hamakua; Dr. Wright, Kohala; D. H. Hitchcock, Hilo, and W. Goodale, Hilo.

The representatives selected by the League of Hilo to represent this district are William Vannatta and D. Kamae.

Mr. Geo. C. Beckley is reported to be aspiring to represent Hawaii as a Noble, but if I might be allowed to make a wild cast at George's horoscope, I would say that he will likely be placed on the shelf to dry for seed.

The Kohala and Waianai plantations have finished the present crop, the net being over 4,000 tons and the latter 2,800. Lanipaho is still grinding, as they were closed a long while on account of the shortage of water. The Waianai mill will finish its crop of 3,500 tons in another week or ten days.

Hilo, August 11, 1887.

Reform Candidates. Hawaii's list of candidates for Nobles is given in our Hilo correspondent's letter. These Reform candidates are as follows: John Kamae, Hilo; Wm. A. Kinney, Hilo; Wm. Vannatta, Hamakua; Wm. A. Kinney, Kohala; John Magnire, South Kohala; J. D. Paris, Jr., Kaa; J. Kaunaha.

The next convention, at its adjourned meeting on Saturday, nominated the following ticket: Nobles—E. Bailey, H. P. Baldwin, P. N. Makae, James Campbell, John Richardson and H. A. Widemann; Representatives—Makawao, E. Helekanui; Waiuku, O. Kawahini and W. H. Daniels; Hana, J. U. Kawahini; Lahaina, C. F. Horner.

Portuguese Meeting. There was a large meeting of Portuguese yesterday at the Honolulu Rifles Armory, to take into consideration matters relative to the political situation. An attempt to agree on the name of a Portuguese to put forward as a candidate for the Legislature resulted in nothing, as a week's heated discussion over several applicants. One speaker took a narrow view that they should cast in their lot with the side that offered their people the greatest advantages. There was a strong element, however, that looked to the main object as being to consider it essential to reform government. It is felt that the Portuguese should have special representation in the Legislature.
