

A "PSALM" OF BUSINESS.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers" Advertising doesn't pay. For the man's non compos mentis Who would such absurd things say.

VARIETY.

The man who doesn't think his baby is the prize baby hasn't got any baby. The man who leads a double life cannot be expected to be single in purpose.

as the greatest manufacturing city of this country, producing $178,148,000; New York, $172,000,000; Chicago comes third, with $68,000,000; then Brooklyn, with $61,600,000; Pittsburg, $52,600,000; St. Louis, $50,800,000; San Francisco, $35,300,000.

Quite a business has sprung up in Florida of hatching alligator eggs by an artificial incubator. Several incubators are always at work hatching out the ugly creatures, which seem to have a ready sale, and half the little darkies in the villages are poking in the sand banks all day long getting eggs for the artificial hatcher.

Mother: "My little girl goes to sleep so nicely every night when I sing to her. Isn't that so, Mamie?" Mamie: "Yes, that's so, ma." The mother leaves the room for a moment, and Mamie says to the visitor: "Don't tell ma, but I only make out that I'm asleep to get her to stop singing, she sings so awfully bad."

English Investments in the U. S.

The English seem alive to the claims and advantages of America, and now have in their possession many of our best paying mines and some of our most beautiful localities, as well as extensive manufacturing enterprises. The Soda Lakes of Natrona county, at Casper, Wyoming, have lately been reported sold to an English syndicate for the sum of $2,000,000. These lakes form circular basins, in which sulphate of soda has filled to a depth of twenty feet. It has been suggested that Congress should enact laws restricting the transfer of our natural sources of wealth and beauty from American owners. Estes Park, one of the most beautiful spots in the Rocky Mountains, was secured some years ago by an Englishman, the Earl of Dunraven, to the great displeasure of most Americans of that section. It will be remembered that at one time several wealthy Englishmen desired to purchase Yellowstone Park, but Congress, realizing the rapidity with which our public lands were passing into foreign hands placed the park in the possession of the government. The Yosemite Valley and Calaveras Big Trees have also been set aside as government property. As such they are protected from any serious alteration, and are to be kept in their native beauty for the benefit of any and all who may visit them.—[S. F. Grocer.

A Husband Who Takes a Prize.

The New York World's Christmas prize of $100 for the best description of a model husband has been awarded to a Brooklyn woman, who wrote the following letter. The judges, Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, Mrs. Chauncey M. Depey, and Mrs. William C. Whitney, after careful examination, unanimously decided in favor of this model:

Free from all manly (?) vices, perfectly clean and orderly; into our utmost privacy he brings the tender courtesies of a gentleman. Our home-making is delightful partnership, one supplementing the other with every assistance; he is always considerate of a woman's responsibilities, but leaving at his office the annoyances of a business man. In sickness or health there is always a responsive throb of a single interest. Perfect love casteth out fear, and our freedom of speech and action leaves no occasion for any petty tricks of deception, alas, so common. Above this is his high ideal of woman that helps me produce something better than before recognized in myself. Receptive to my aspirations, no new thought of culture is attempted but meets his approval and encouragement, while a noble, spiritual atmosphere lifts my daily life from a common routine into a loving pleasure. Taking my face in his hands, he has lovingly said: "Would I had wealth that I could place you a queen among women." With such a king for a husband, am I not walking in a queen's garden?—[Farmer and Dealer.

A Georgia editor gives this good advice: "Thump your head, and if it thumps like a ripe watermelon, keep your mouth shut."

When a man is injured in a railroad wreck the managers of the road know that, if he fails to recover, his relatives will try to.

The active locomotive is of few years and full of trouble. One lasts about thirty years and the annual repairs cost about 15 per cent of the original cost. But there is waste whether you go or stand still.

A bill before the Indiana Legislature provides for the assessment and taxation of the capital stock, franchises and privileges of street railway, manufacturing, mining, turnpike, savings bank, insurance and like corporations.

The sale by Mrs. King of Corpus Christi, the "cattle queen" of Texas, of 15,000 2-year-old steers is probably the largest single order for cattle ever filled in Texas. The consideration was $82,000. Mrs. King's ranch is worth $900,000.

"Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I thank you. Nothing but a morbid regard for the truth deters me from saying that this is the proudest moment of my life!" With which laconic acknowledgment of the toast of his health, he sat down, wearied with the nightly iteration of the same formality to which an official position condemned him.

At Toronto on Wednesday week there was a parade of unemployed workmen, who bore a flag with the motto, "Bread or Work." About 2,500 assembled at the City Hall to express their wishes to the Mayor, and threats of violence were made. Philadelphia maintains her rank
