McGuire of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup."

In order that people may have sharp carving knives and thus appreciate the good meat set before them, we have imported a stock of "Frank Walcott's Knife Sharpener." This contrivance is made of compressed emery and is shaped like a scythe stone, but much smaller in size. It far surpasses the conventional carver's steel for the reason that the action is quicker and the edge more even. This instrument is much harder than steel and will sharpen anything from the blades of the finest scissors to the wits of a dullard. As it will "file a file," it will be found particularly useful among the hands on sugar plantations for sharpening hoes or cane knives. One of Frank Walcott's knife sharpeners will outwear many dozen files. We are sole agents for the article.

The Student Lamp has for years been the favorite among the people who read or write much at night. They are not quite so elaborate as some of our banquet lamps, but for service they fill the bill in every respect. We have recently added to our stock an assortment of these student lamps having the genuine Rochester burner, the burner which won first prize at the Columbian Exposition, and we can guarantee them to be a superior article in every respect. We have three varieties varying in price according to the size of the burner.
