HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

An Interesting Session Held Last Night.

Quite a large number of persons gathered at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night to hear Prof. Alexander's paper. The following persons were voted into the society as members: Miss Jenira Henry and Mrs. Emma Nakuina, corresponding members, and the following as active members: Mrs. H. A. P. Carter, Miss Helen S. Judd, Mrs. Haalele, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Messrs. Chas. W. Booth, C. S. Bradford, A. W. Carter, J. L. Carter, Antonio Fernandes, W. M. Graham, L. T. Kennedy, L. B. Kerr, Dr. J. Mott-Smith, C. A. Peterson, R. P. Myers, T. R. Mossman, C. A. Luther and John Kidwell.

On motion of Mr. D. Logan, Dr. Emerson seconding, Robert Louis Stevenson was unanimously elected a corresponding member of the society.

After the reading of the paper of the evening, the senior vice-president presiding, Joseph Emerson, drew the attention of the society to the plentiful lack of funds. The purchase of books made constant demands, and a very elaborate catalogue had just been completed, which naturally cost money.

The Board of Managers held a business meeting just before the regular session of the society, at which the following resolution was adopted:

MR. PRESIDENT.—We live in historic times. The events that are now shaping themselves in Hawaii are of the highest interest to us as individuals, as a community, and as parts of a nation.

We should deem it a good fortune that this Historical Society was seasonably brought into existence and charged itself with the duty of collecting and keeping material and data to be used by future writers and historians in formulating Hawaiian history.

It would probably be no exaggeration to say that during no twelve-month in Hawaii's last hundred years of history has there been a tithe of the attention given to this group and its affairs by civilized nations that has been directed to it during the past year.

The amount of attention given to Hawaii by writers and publicists abroad has been almost paralleled by the activity of writers for the public press and for pamphlets on the spot.

Much of this work may seem to us now of ephemeral value. Experience, however, teaches that on such a point the snap judgment of those who are themselves actors on the stage and are in the thick of the fight is likely to be at fault, and the fact is often drolly true that late for repair that important evidence has been lost, and the truth of history sometimes obscured through a failure to preserve some seemingly insignificant proclamation, poster, pamphlet, or other printed page. Time alone can determine the true value of such things.

In view of these facts:

Resolved, That the librarian of the Hawaiian Historical Society is hereby instructed to use his best efforts to collect, obtain and preserve in the library of this society:

1st. Copies of all newspapers, periodicals and other publications published in Honolulu or elsewhere in the Hawaiian Islands since January 1, 1893.

2d. Copies and samples of all proclamations, posters, public announcements, etc., especially those that are of political significance, that have been published since the above date or that may hereafter be published, etc., etc.

3d. That in fulfillment of this purpose the Librarian is authorized to expend the sum of $—.

as they had reached this harbor, were obliged to run her aground. Kareimoku told me that he had kindly received the unfortunate Aleutians and Russians, as he did not wish to return evil for evil. Even Scheffer had been permitted to go on board of a ship from the United States, which a few days before our arrival had sailed for Canton.

"Kareimoku had scarcely finished his account when Mr. Tarakanoff, agent of the Russian-American Company, came on board with several of the company's officers. Tarakanoff, who, according to Baranoff's orders, had been placed entirely under Scheffer's command, expressed his disapprobation of the proceedings in Atooi, through which they had all been placed in danger of their lives, and he considered it a great miracle that, in their flight from Atooi, only three Aleutians had been shot, as Tamary (Kamualii), who regarded them as his bitterest enemies, might easily have killed many more.

"He also mentioned their dangerous voyage hither, and was now, with his people, in the most miserable situation, as, of course, they could not have provisions without paying for them.

"Fortunately I had laid in such a provision of stock-fish in Unalaska as enabled me to send these poor creatures provisions for a month. Tarakanoff, who seemed to me to be a very sensible man, had concluded a contract with Mr. Hebet (Captain Ebbetts), the owner of two ships lying here, by which he bound himself to maintain and clothe the Aleutians a whole year on condition that he should bring them to California, where they should employ themselves in catching sea-otters on the islands there.

After the expiration of this year, Hebet is to bring them to Sitka, and to give the company half of the skins obtained."

"Speaking of the new heiau at Honolulu, Capt. Kotzebue says: "This morai was very quickly erected near Hananura, because the natives had been obliged to destroy the old one, which had been profaned by the entrance of Dr. Scheffer's people. The fury of the natives at that time was without bounds, and Scheffer's men would certainly have lost their lives if it had not been for the interposition of Young." This must have been after their return from Kauai.

THE SUBSEQUENT HISTORY OF BARANOFF AND SCHEFFER.

Dr. Scheffer, as we have seen, after making his escape from Oahu, proceeded to Canton and thence to St. Petersburg, where he presented the memorial to the Minister of the Interior, which is mentioned above by Jikmeneff.

He left Russia in disgrace, but soon turned up again in Brazil, where he managed to ingratiate himself with Don Pedro I., who conferred upon him the high-sounding title of Count von Frankenthal, and sent him with a commission to Germany to recruit men for his body-guard.

Dr. Scheffer died peacefully in Germany at a very advanced age.

As for Baranoff, the old autocrat of Russian America, after nearly thirty years of arduous service, he was relieved at his own request, in January, 1818, by Capt. Hagemeyer, who had been sent out with a commission from the directors.

The property which he turned over in Sitka alone was worth two and a half millions of roubles. "In all the complicated accounts of this vast business," says Baranoff, "the new commissioner failed to find a single discrepancy. The cash accounts, involving millions, were in perfect order."

The task of transferring the property and accounts of the company occupied many months.

It seems, the weather-beaten old pioneer at one time had thought of sailing to the Sandwich Islands, to end his days at the court of King Kamehameha, with whom he was on friendly terms. But finally he decided to return to his native land, where his advice would be of great service to the company.

Accordingly he embarked on the "Kutusof" for Kronstadt, but his health failed rapidly on the voyage, and in the straits of Sunda, on the 16th of April, 1819, he breathed his last.

On the following day his obsequies were performed, and the waters of the Indian Ocean closed over the mortal remains of Alexander Baranoff."

George Ryan, the convict, was sentenced yesterday to serve eight months' additional confinement on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The offense was committed a week ago last Thursday, when he attempted to escape from the chain gang.

ARTHUR LIKES CRACKERS.

So He Lays in a Stock and Then Gets Arrested.

Arthur Fitzgerald used to hold the honorable position of horse trainer for W. H. Rickard. Lately Mr. Fitzgerald has been collecting bills—either for himself or for some one else.

A few days ago Fitzgerald went to collect a bill from Mrs. Percy Gardiner. Mrs. Percy did not feel in the mood for paying bills. Arthur insisted. Mrs. Percy insisted. Arthur became more insistent, and Mrs. Percy alegs, struck her and severely hurt her. Arthur says he didn't. Nevertheless, Mrs. Percy swore out a warrant for Arthur's arrest. Arthur did not want to be put in durance vile, and made it a strict point of honor to keep out of the way of the officers of the law.

All this happened some days ago. Arthur has been dodging the police, and Mrs. Percy has been swearing vengeance for these same "some days." Last evening Arthur grew tired of dodging the police. He decided to give himself up to the minions of the law and to stand his trial on its merits. But Arthur is dainty. The thought of staying in a dark dungeon with no comforts was discouraging to a man of Arthur's refinement. Mosquitoes also entered into Arthur's calculations, so he invested part of his hard-earned wealth in a voluminous mosquito bar, and when he decided to give himself up to the "peace-makers" he resolved that he would take this creature (comfort) with him. He also bought a box of fancy crackers with which to beguile the weary hours away. Then, being loaded down with luxuries, Arthur bled him to the police station, and explained to the officer on watch that he was "wanted." He was given apartments for the night, and slept the sleep of the just under his nice new mosquito net. Whenever he would wake up he would munch a fancy cracker, and reflect on man's inhumanity to man. This morning Arthur will appear in the District Court, mosquito net, fancy crackers and all, and will have a chance to explain to Justice the reasons why he is a much abused individual.

Postal Notes and Money Orders.

The United States Postal Department is about to abolish the postal note, which has been in use for several years. It will continue the money orders, with some improvement in the form and a reduction in the fee charged. The new money order, according to an American paper, will be a steel engraving, in the form of a commercial order—probably more like the Hawaiian money order—and at the left end it will have the device for punching the amount of the order. The Hawaiian money orders formerly were printed with a device for punching, but the postal orders being considered perfectly secure without them, they have been discontinued.

The schedule of fees to be charged for the new money orders has been reduced to the basis now charged by the various express companies for transmitting money, as follows:

$2 50 or less 3 cents
 $2 50 to $5 00 5 cents
 $5 00 to $10 00 8 cents
 $10 00 to $20 00 10 cents
 $20 00 to $30 00 12 cents
 $30 00 to $40 00 15 cents
 $40 00 to $50 00 20 cents
 $50 00 to $60 00 25 cents
 $60 00 to $75 00 30 cents
 $75 00 to $100 00 30 cents

The new rates are considerably less than the Hawaiian, as at present established.

A Bluebeard of the South Seas has been captured. He attempted to emulate William Tell, using his wives for the purpose that Tell used his son. He persisted in shooting a cocoanut from the heads of his spouses, each operation being followed by a funeral.—Ex.

Provided, however, if any such employer shall within thirty days after each failure show to said Board good and satisfactory reason for such failure, said penalties shall not be imposed.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect from the date of its publication.

Approved this 3rd day of May A. D. 1894.
