OPIMUM IN POSSESSION.

The Mate of the Velocity Arrested With Six Tins.

J. Murphy, a mate on the Velocity, was arrested last Friday about dusk with six tins of opium in his possession. Lieutenant Cordes had been watching the man all the afternoon, and followed him when he left the ship last evening. He arrested him on King street, near Nuuanu, with six tins of the drug in his possession. After this, Cordes and Captain Andrews searched the vessel, and found twenty tins more in the fore-cabin, and twenty-two tins in the mate's room. Murphy was released on $1000 bond, filed by the captain of the vessel.

The Velocity recently arrived here from China and has been searched twice since she has been in port.

WITH A FORK.

A Stabbing Affair which May End Seriously.

A serious stabbing affray took place Sunday morning about 1 o'clock. A man named F. Naylor, a professional trainer of prizefighters, was stabbed several times with a table fork, by Tom Carpenter, a hard character, well known to the police.

Carpenter was having a midnight meal in a restaurant, when Naylor entered, and asked him for a match. In some way a dispute was started, and Carpenter being enraged, seized a fork and stabbed Naylor.

Carpenter was arrested, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and still remains at the station house. Naylor was taken to the hospital for treatment.

A LIVELY LUAU.

A Native Has His Legs Toasted in Great Shape.

The lower limbs of a native were badly burned on Saturday evening, so much so, that it was found necessary to send him to the hospital. He had been present at a luau, given in a house near the St. Louis College, and after he had filled up on gin and swipes, he went to sleep. Nothing would wake him up, so a native woman grabbed a Japanese lantern and struck him with it; it did not take long for the paper affair to burn up and in the meantime the man's clothes caught fire. The attention of Simon von Topaz was called by loud shrieks and he entered the house and finally smothered the flames.

Ought not the Board of Health to inquire into this? Yours, etc.,

[The correspondent is wrong, Mr. Meyer did not receive his appointment until he had taken the oath.]

Their Distinguished Consideration.

Hawaii the Republic has been recognized. After all the round-about proceedings we are once more where we were at the commencement of the Hawaiian intricacy—on good terms with the existing Government, maintaining a practical protectorate, making a market for Hawaiian sugar, and attending strictly to our own business. To President Dole and all and singular his coadjutors and helpers in the scheme for annexation the people of the United States send assurances of distinguished consideration.—Philadelphia Record.

THE CHINESE THEATER SOLD.

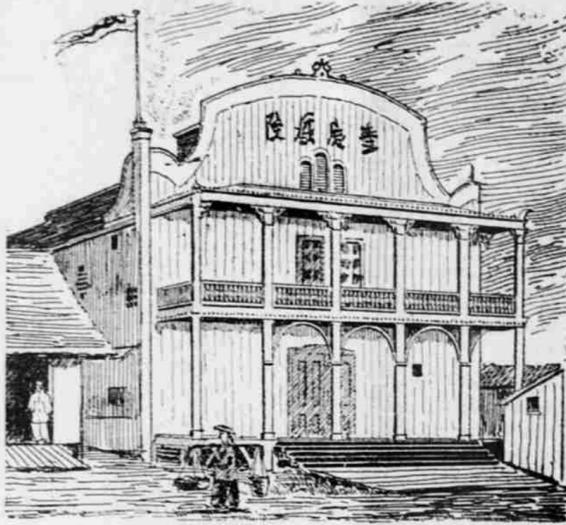

Celestial Performances Now a Thing of the Past.

GREAT PLACE FOR OPIUM SMOKERS.

The Building Being in a Dangerous Condition, the Government Sells it on Condition that it Be Torn Down—No Prospects of a New One Being Built.

Yesterday the Chinese Theater, on King street, was sold to Wing Wo, a Chinese merchant, for $650. The old building will be torn down in less than ten days, and another old landmark will be gone.

The theater used to be situated on the Esplanade. But at last the noise of the gongs and the general hubbub created by the Celestials in their Thespian efforts became such a nuisance, that complaints were made to the Government, and it was decided to compel the Chinese to move the playhouse. The present location was chosen, it being a long distance from any part of the city thickly settled with white people, and the playhouse which was sold at auction yesterday was built by the Chinese, on condition that in ten years from the time of its completion it should revert to the Government.

The place has always been a great resort for Chinese, and has paid its lessees well. The theatrical performances themselves were not, probably, very remunerative; but in the upper portion of the building, over the stage, there were nearly two hundred rooms, which were ostensibly rented to lodgers, but which really were used by those who were slaves of the opium habit. Here, nightly, "dope" smokers would congregate in force, and could rest fairly secure against arrest. There were three flights of stairs to go up before the smoking department was reached, and a guard was stationed at each landing place, ready to give the alarm on the slightest cause for suspicion. On the top floor, a system of wooden troughs was built, running down to an underground pool, and all the paraphernalia of the smokers could be disposed of at very short notice, so that when the police should arrive, a most innocent and greatly abused set of Chinamen would be in the rooms, each and all ready to swear that they did not know what opium was.

Of late, the condition of the building has been such that it was thought necessary by the Government to tear it down. After this is accomplished, the Government hopes to build a sea-wall along that portion of the river, fill up as much as necessary, and make a valuable piece of property out of it. There is no immediate prospect of a new Chinese theatre, and the celestials will have to depend on private theatricals for their amusements, and go to the other opium dens for their smokes.

A Cutting Affray.

Two Japanese got into an argument last evening which resulted seriously for both. One of them attacked the other with a knife, cutting him badly over the eye. He also amused himself by breaking his opponent's nose. The wounded man was taken to the hospital, and the other was lodged in the police station, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.
