A number of Honoluluites will return home on the steamship China, due here on next Monday.

Nick Braham's tall hustling did not win. He has been compelled to close up his business on Bethel street.

McCandless Bros. have taken a rig to Kamohili and will bore a well to irrigate rice lands for A. S. Cleghorn.

A "satisfaction of judgment" was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday in the Norris-deHerblay case. This ends finally the suit.

What is called the "gumming" disease is threatening Australian cane fields. It has appeared in the Mary River district.

The Board of Health will visit the Leper Settlement the latter part of next week. The steamer Iwalani will convey the party.

In the last number of the Sydney mail, one of the influential Australian papers, there is a picture and biography of President Dole.

The agricultural experiment station will be located near the Lunaliilo Home. The sugar and farming State of Louisiana has three of these stations.

The American League's anniversary celebration is underlined for the 19th inst., at Independence Park. Chas. L. Carter will be the principal speaker.

Diphtheria was assigned as the cause of a child's death at Kukuihaele last week. The district doctor could not be reached to attend the little one.

Three of the gentlemen who came by the Australia to engage in business here will open a tailoring and furnishing goods house in the old Boston lunch rooms on Fort street.

Handicraft announces the completion of a hospital at the Kamehameha Schools. The boys are to receive a training in nursing and hygiene under the direction of Dr. Day, the school physician and Mrs. Thompson, who has spent some time in a hospital training school.

PERSONALS.

Edwin A. Jones has been confined to his house several days with a fever.

J. J. Williams, who has been quite ill, is at his business place again.

Alex. Young will leave for an American and European tour about January 1st.

Theo. H. Davies will not return to Hawaii during the winter and may be absent a year yet.

Transit of Mercury.

People who are partial to astronomy will be interested in the following. The information is taken from Thrum's Annual under the head of "Eclipses of 1894."

"There will be a transit of the Planet Mercury over the Sun's Disc on November 10 (Saturday), visible at Honolulu as follows, local mean time:

"Ingress invisible, being before sunrise; Egress, interior contact, 10 h. 39 m. 25.7 a. m.; Egress, exterior contact, 10 h. 41 m. 9.7 s. a. m.

Bury at the Iron Works.

The force at the Honolulu Iron Works is now getting in full time. The rush is on account of the preparation of sugar mills for the campaign of 1894-5. All of the mills are taking unusual precautions against breakdowns. In some instances quite extensive repairs are being made. The managers and employes at the Iron Works are naturally happy, and only hope that business will continue to pile in. Orders are coming by nearly every island steamer.

Hallelujah Promotions.

William Higgins, of the Salvation Army, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant-Major. Mr. Higgins is an eloquent speaker, and has made for himself a large number of friends. He is the first Hawaiian who ever won an officer's place in the Salvation Army.

Peter Lee will be the next for promotion. Adjutant Enger has asked him to go to the training home in San Francisco. Mr. Lee has not yet finally made up his mind to accept the offer.

THE OFFICERS WERE CONVICTED.

Klemme and Cordes Must Pay the $50 Fine Each.

MULLER WANTED TO DROP THE CASE.

Story Told on the Stand—Statements and Denials—An International Massacre of the Language—Other Cases in the Circuit Court.

In the case of the Republic against Carl Klemme and Gus Cordes, the Circuit Court has affirmed the decision of the District Magistrate. A jury trial on the charge of assault and battery resulted in a conviction. The fines of $50 each were paid by the officers. Kauloukou appeared for the defense, and Deputy Attorney-General Robertson prosecuted. There was quite a crowd in the court room during the trial. These gentlemen were the jurors: J. W. Robertson, C. V. Sturdevant, J. M. Webb, Jas. Torbert, J. C. Quinn, C. B. Gray, Peter High, George Gray, William L. Hopper, C. F. Wolfe, W. H. Smith, J. M. Tracy.

The transcript of the evidence in the District Court was in the hands of the prosecution. Witnesses who testified orally for the Government yesterday were Muller and three native policemen. The defendants made statements for themselves. One of the witnesses for the defense was not used this time. Mr. Robertson was prepared to attack his credibility. Muller wanted to "drop" the prosecution. He so stated in court. The Government insisted on proceeding. The testimony was to the effect that Klemme and Cordes jumped on Muller at the main entrance to the police station and used him roughly. Klemme declared that he believed Muller was about to draw a pistol on him and use it. He had been told that Muller was armed. Cordes, who is lieutenant of the mounted police, came to the aid of his captain. He said he interfered when he saw Muller chewing Klemme's finger. He said he did not strike Muller at all; only shoved him.

There had been bad blood between Klemme and Muller about the politics of the Schuetzen Club. Muller says that on the street one day Klemme said to him: "I will blow your brains out." Muller had then asked permission of the authorities to arm himself, but this was denied.

Klemme and Cordes made a strong point of the fact that Muller had sent them a threatening message through John L. Xavier. The latter, it appears, was playing a double game. He was associating with Muller to get information for Klemme. Muller proposed to Xavier: "You go and tell Klemme that I am carrying a pistol for him. He will then arrest me. Of course I will not be armed and I can then sue him for damages." Xavier testified to this in the District Court. Another incident of the feud was that Muller's room at a lodging house was searched by a mounted policeman one night without a warrant.

With Kauloukou's attempt to conduct the case in English and the linguistic imperfections of several witnesses, the trial abounded in beautiful specimens of the pure and undefiled as "she is spoke." At one stage of the trial Cordes was making quite an address to the jury. The deputy attorney general called a halt on the orator. Judge Cooper seemed quite vexed over the determination of the larceny case against George Malina. The evidence was clear that the defendant had stolen goods from Wilder's warehouse. Nine of the jurors returned the verdict, "we let the defendant go." They were required to change the form, and made it "not guilty." A. K. Kuniaka, Moosman and Crowell were for convicting. The nine jurors will likely hear more of the matter next Monday. In a couple of other native cases this term there has been a marked miscarriage of justice.

The case in which these persons are defendants have been stricken from the docket on motion of the prosecution. E. A. Galaspo, liquor selling. Francesca Dias, liquor selling. T. Carpenter, assault with a dangerous weapon. H. Ah Neep entered a plea of guilty of gambling and was fined $150.

AT KAMEHAMEHA.

Ninety-nine Students and a Number of New Features.

The following news notes are from Handicraft, the newspaper of Kamehameha schools:

"Kamehameha school opens again after two long months of vacation. Seventy-two boys came back the first day and now we have ninety-eight boys and one girl. We are glad to see so many new pupils and hope they will find a pleasant home in our 'beloved Kamehameha,' and enjoy their school work. The boys have come from Hilo, Maui, Kailua, Honolulu and from Kauai.

"We miss our old friends, Mr. Babb and Mr. Ruevsky, but we are very glad to welcome our new ones. Mr. Perry came from Massachusetts and has charge of drawing and wood-turning. Mr. Penfield came from Ohio. We are happy to welcome them all, including Mrs. Dumas and Mrs. Penfield.

"Our hospital is not quite finished, but it is hoped it will be ready for use before any boy is sick.

"The afternoon prayer meetings are under the care of Mr. Penfield and are very helpful. Many of the boys are interested in them and others are becoming so.

"The evening service is now called 'Our Pleasant Hour.' The boys prepare a program of singing, story-reading and music, which all enjoy."

LINES FILLED WITH PATHOS.

Letter From a Lady at the Kalihi Receiving Station.

Would Like to be Called on by Some of Her Friends—Is Resigned—Mrs. L. M. Todd, a Nurse.

Mrs. L. Todd, who is at Kalihi receiving station, sends an extremely touching note to this office. The lady is of a sensible mind and must be of strong character. She accepts the situation with a surprising show of courage. Mrs. Todd is quite well known here and has many friends whose hearts will go out to her in this crucial trial. Her only desire is to speak to some of these friends before she leaves for the settlement.

Below are the principal paragraphs of the letter. "I may be sent to Molokai this week. I do not know about the time. I am only a suspect and may not be sent at all. I trust our Father in heaven will so direct that I may remain among friends and have the privilege of going where I like. If the Lord directs otherwise I shall bow to His will and accept it with resignation.

"I have been in the Kalihi receiving station six weeks and wish to inform friends of my whereabouts.

"I contracted the disease in San Francisco, nursing small-pox victims some years ago. I had lived on the islands quite a time, yet had never seen a case of leprosy.

"The time that Ashford and Wilcox got into that trouble and were put in jail, my husband, A. A. Todd, made his escape. He left at 3 o'clock in the morning, going to Apia, Samoa, on the steamer Alameda. What property he did not sell he leased. I left the little income for the children and went to San Francisco, thinking I could make money there as a nurse.

"They had small pox on the coast at that time, and I have always made a specialty of infectious diseases. I did not lose a case I had at the lazarette, though other patients died by scores. This lazarette was a wretched, miserable place, a disgrace to mankind. In this filthy den I did the best I could for suffering humanity. It was there I contracted this disease, if I have it, and I suppose I have.

"I would sooner go to the settlement and live quietly than to remain in Honolulu as a suspect. I would not like to go among my friends. I would be pleased to see any friends who can call, and will be grateful to them. I believe permission can be had from the Board of Health.

"I have nursed some of the best people in the United States, and some of the most pitiable subjects of poverty that can be imagined. Yet I never complain. I was the third person registered in the nurses' directory in San Francisco, and handled some notable private cases there. Yet I was never so happy as when in some public institution.

"If I can only see a few of my friends before leaving I shall be satisfied. Very respectfully, Mrs. C. M. Todd, Nurse."

COFFEE IN KONA.

The Subject of a Paper in the November "Paradise."

The Paradise of the Pacific for November has been issued and can be had at the newsdealers. It is a very good number and contains a great deal of matter that will interest people abroad. Of the contributed articles the story on "Coffee in Kona," written by Wm. G. Wait, is the most valuable. The author proves that he is thoroughly familiar with the subject and handles it accordingly. J. W. Preston furnishes a descriptive article and selects the Windward Side of Hawaii for his subject; H. W. Schmidt, one of Honolulu's best known citizens, contributes a poem which he has dedicated to Mrs. President Dole; then there are other readable articles including some valuable industrial statistics, compiled by H. M. Whitney, editor of the Planters' Monthly.

There are four excellent half-tone pictures accompanying the principal articles.

Manager Dailey is studying up novelties for his benefit next Wednesday. He will probably present a refined vaudeville programme.

MR. H. KLEMMER WILL CONTEST BY AUTHORITY.

Will Petition to Have the Election Declared Void.

Declares that He was Elected—Says They Counted Him Out—He "Will Not be Bull-dozed"—Is Mad.

Henry Klemme, the independent, will contest. He gives notice that he will sue to have the election declared void. Klemme claims that he was cheated on the 29th ult. He believes a recount will show that at least one A. U. P. candidate was beaten and that there were some flaws in the count. Klemme is the man who was advertised as "the people's representative." He was the avowed candidate of the Schuetzen Club from which the mounted police cut off. Klemme was defeated by four votes.

In an interview yesterday Mr. Klemme spoke with much earnestness and was somewhat bitter in his tone. He said that he knew and that every fair-minded person must know that he was elected. A correct recount, he declared, would show that he was entitled to a seat in the house. He wanted his rights and did not propose to be "bull-dozed." The Schuetzen Club, of which he is president, is pushing the matter and bearing the expense, so he says. Mr. Klemme added that people who thought that the two Schuetzen Clubs were at enmity would be fooled and would soon be treated to a surprise in political manipulation.

Mr. Klemme contends that he really had as many votes as the most popular candidate on the A. U. P. ticket. He claims that all the Portuguese voted for him, but that their ballots were unceremoniously tossed out. According to Klemme he was given credit only for the votes cast by "white men" and some of these were overlooked by the returning boards.

The contestant says that he has the sympathy of plenty of good people and mentioned the employees of a very large German wholesale house as having voted for him.

A LITERARY GEM.

A Colonist Who is Keen for Island Information.

Below is a verbatim copy of a letter of inquiry lately received at one of the Government offices. The man no doubt means well enough. He will be favored with "ful particulars":

Ivy Poisoning

Eight Years of Suffering

Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Dear Sirs:—We have tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it to be all you claim for it. My wife was poisoned by ivy when a young woman, and for eight years was troubled every season with the breaking out and terrible itching and burning. I thought hers was as bad a case as anyone ever had. She was in this distressing condition every year until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has effected a perfect cure, without leaving any scars, and she has had No Sign of the Poison Since. She is well and hearty. I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla after the grip with good results, and have also given it to our four children. We are all pictures of perfect health and owe it to Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. C. FREEMAN, Yandalla, Illinois.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other instead.

Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.
