

TO FRAME MILITARY CODE

Board of Officers Appointed by Minister Cooper.

Necessity for Established Rule—Will be Issued in General Orders—Orders That Will Stay.

An order was issued by Minister Cooper, as head of the military of the Republic of Hawaii, appointing a Board of Officers to meet at such time and place as may be found convenient for the purpose of recommending a code of regulations to govern the drill and general military administration of the National Guard of Hawaii.

The following officers will compose the Board:

Major J. W. Jones, 2nd Battalion. Capt. W. G. Ashley, Quartermaster.

Capt. John Good, Co. E. Capt. C. W. Ziegler, Co. F. Capt. E. O. White, Co. R.

These officers will recommend a code of regulations which, when complete, will be submitted to the Commander in Chief, and when adopted will be published in general orders.

This action is found necessary for the reason that an order issued one day and supposed to be final would, without any notification to the officers, be found entirely wrong a week later.

It is intended that the new regulations shall remain in force so long as they are to the best interests of the service and the men will always know what is coming next.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Mrs. Ludovick Found Guilty of Selling Spirituous Liquor.

Ewaloa plead guilty to the charge of selling spirituous liquor without a license and was sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor, and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Most of the morning was spent in the trial of Ah Sing, a Chinese laundryman, for embezzlement. Defendant plead not guilty. Mrs. Meek and detective Kaupa were the only witnesses on the stand. Defendant was found not guilty and discharged.

The case of Mrs. Ludovick, for selling spirituous liquor without a license, took up the greater part of the afternoon. Antonio Ross appeared for the defendant and W. Lana as translator. Professor Ingalls of Oahu College was placed on the stand to testify as to the liquor contained in the bottle obtained from Mrs. Ludovick by Gus Cordes' informers. Defendant was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

THEY WERE OVERLOOKED.

The Company A Election Last Night Ends in a Row.

Some of the members of Company A took a little too much beer last night after the election of captain, and in consequence got into a rather quarrelsome mood along about eleven o'clock. One of the bluejackets from aboard the U. S. S. Adams was in the crowd and tried to stop a fight between two of the members of Company A. He received a blow for his pains. The fighting humor became general and young Duchalsky, taking the lead, led others into a general fight, during which some very hard blows were exchanged. The more sober members of the Company succeeded in quieting the disturbance and sent the troublesome ones home.

The Craigmores.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Reinsurance on the British ship Craigmores, over due from Newcastle, N. S. W., was increased to 30 per cent. The report brought by the Robert Ferine and the Celtic Monarch, that arrived last night, somewhat strengthened the belief that the Craigmores is all right. The Ferine was out seventy days and the Celtic Monarch 77 days. Ten per cent. was paid on both ships for reinsurance.

A Cure for Muscular Rheumatism

Mrs. R. L. Lamson of Fairmount, Ill., says: "My sister used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for muscular rheumatism and it effected a complete cure. I keep it in the house at all times and have always found it beneficial for aches and pains. It is the quickest cure for rheumatism, muscular pains and lameness I have ever seen." WHARE AND WAVE.

The Doric, the next steamer from the coast, is due May 19th.

The steamer Waialeale was dispatched to Waimea with a load of coal yesterday instead of on her regular Hawaii route.

The barkentine Consuelo, Friis master, arrived in Mahukona May 11th, 12 days from San Francisco with a cargo of general merchandise.

The C. A. S. S. Miowera, Hay commander, arrived in port at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, having sailed from Vancouver on the 5th inst., and from Victoria the following morning. Following is the purser's report: "Fine weather and smooth sea were experienced on the passage."

The big steel ship Dirigo, Goodwin master, sailed for New York yesterday morning with 5,019 976 bags of sugar weighing 5,019 tons and valued at $359,793. The tug Eleu towed her out.

The steamer Kinau arrived yesterday morning, having been delayed on account of rough weather. The Kinau was forced to wait four days at Papaikou for sugar and was able to take none until Monday, the day before departure for Honolulu. At Onomea one of the boats was smashed in a cave and a native, who came near losing his life, was slightly injured.

The Clyde trade shows a wonderful expansion in shipbuilding. Orders for 40,000 tons of new shipping were placed there in April. Steel vessels are especially in demand. The greatest of the Japanese shipping companies, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, intends to start a line of steamers to Europe. It has ordered six vessels that are to be built at Belfast and on the Clyde. The contracts call for their completion by the end of the year.
