

LINES OF HANDS

Readings of a Few of the Palm Impressions.

MANY HAVE BEEN RECEIVED

A Quite General Interest in the New Cult—A Young Widow and a Few Others.

More than 100 palm impressions have been received at this office during the past few days. They will be read and the delineations published as soon as practicable. Those who are interested must remember that it is essential to send in the name as well as a fictitious title. Identity will not be disclosed under any circumstances.

PALMISTRY. "KNOW THYSELF."

Matron: Your hand indicates a dual nature. You are warm-hearted and impulsive, but have schooled yourself to act a part towards your friends which conceals the real earnestness and depths of your nature. You are fond of amusements, enter heartily into society. You have a secret trouble which your caution prompts you to hide. You appreciate attention and are a fine conversationalist. Your tastes are not domestic. Your magnetic personality causes you to be sought after in all society affairs. By nature critical, but not unamiable. Conservative and conventional, you will always go and say the correct thing.

X. Y. Z.: This is the hand of a dreamy, impractical, but withal clever young man. Talented, artistic and esthetic, you will always take with the girls and arouse the wrath and impatience of practical relatives. This palm indicates an early marriage; probably the object of your choice will be a widow. You will be a good husband, but your wife will be very jealous of you. You are an eloquent talker, have a fine command of the English language, and love to study the finest writers. You are always well dressed, well groomed and have the gift of looking interested no matter in whose society you may be. As the leading man in a society play, you would be without peer.

Eyelashes: Your character is deeply imprinted on your palm. Your heart line shows that you will not marry for money, though you may be lucky enough to fall in love with an heiress. Your tastes run towards medicine and curing the sick. Are probably a doctor. You have strong national prejudices and love to hate intensely. You prefer the society of married women and will not marry young.

Young widow: Your palm shows a light heart, a consolable nature and a fund of merry humor. You are a happy little widow. Many try to alleviate your loneliness. You have a weakness for boys and it is the only weakness you allow them to see in you for you know they can only deem it an excusable failing. The lines in your hand show only one marriage. You possess a capability for calculation which might be arithmetical talent, but more probably shows that you know a good thing when you see it.

Substance Authority: The lines in your hand show a stormy past and a future not too calm for your temperament. Your manner is easy and suave and it is evident that the intricacies of court etiquette could not phase you. You have traveled extensively and your palm evinces ethnological proclivities. You would be apt to do in Rome as the Romans do. You will not marry young; having enough of this world's goods to divide with another, you lack the incentive to matrimony attendant upon a limited income and the alluring delights of the unfeasible. Besides you have never been obliged to put the studs in your shirts or to pull off your own shoes.

Bachelor Girl: You are fleckle, roving and free; jolly and animated; prefer men in their prime, unlike young widow, who is appreciative of callow youth. You are very fond of animals, although you harbor no pets. Your personality is strong. If you were a man you would be "half fellow well met." The lines of your palm all go to show a warm heart and a generous nature.

Petite Sister: Your palm shows vivacity, bubbling spirits, and a willingness to adjust yourself to people's whims. You have never known poverty, and you have little knowledge of the value of money. Your head and heart lines leave in doubt your future course. Whatever sphere you grace you will be a good wife, having been trained to the self-denial necessary among a number of sisters. You are neat in dress, trim of figure, and you are well up in the fads of the day. You are apt to have a smattering of several accomplishments rather than any one to a marked degree.

Wela Ka Hao: The lines of your palm show that your hand class is warm and hearty, even tender. You are impetuous in the extreme; propose early and often. You are always ahead in athletics and are never a laggard in love. Your motto is: A girl in the moonlight is worth two in the electric light. You will never be poor. Will live to an old age and will be just as gay when you are seventy as you are today.

Glady: You are quick at repartee; sometimes too quick, thereby often finding yourself plunged into the embarrassment attendant upon "things

"THE MAN WITH THE HOE."

One of the most striking poems of the century is Edwin Markham's, "The Man With the Hoe." Nothing equalling it has appeared in the last quarter of a century with the possible exception of Kipling's "Recessional." It deals with one of the gravest problems in the world and in such a virile, yet sympathetic and meaningful manner as to stamp its author as one of the great thinkers of the age. The poem was inspired by Millet's great painting, "The Angelus."

Bowed by the weight of centuries he leans
Upon his hoe and gazes on the ground,
The emptiness of ages in his face,
And on his back the burden of the world,
Who made him dead to rapture and despair,
A thing that grieves not and that never hopes,
Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down this brutal jaw?
Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow?
Whose breath blew out the light within this brain?

Is this the Thing the Lord God made and gave
To have dominion over sea and land,
To trace the stars and search the heavens for power;
To feel the passion of Eternity?
Is this the Dream He dreamed who shaped the suns
And pillared the blue firmament with light?
Down all the stretch of hell to its last gulf
There is no shape more terrible than this—
More tormented with the world's blind greed—
More filled with signs and portents for the soul—
More fraught with menace to the universe.

What gulfs between him and the scraphim!
Slave of the wheel of labor, what to him
Are Plato and swing of Pleiades?
What the long reaches of the peaks of song,
The rift of dawn, the reddening of the rose?
Through this dread shape the suffering ages look;
Time's tragedy is in that aching stoop;
Through this dread shape humanity betrayed,
Plundered, profaned and disinherited,
Cries protest to the Judges of the World,
A protest that is also prophecy.

O, masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
Is this the handiwork you give to God,
This monstrous thing distorted and soul-quenched?
How will you ever straighten up this shape;
Give back the upward looking and the light;
Rebuild in it the music and the dream;
Touch it again with immortality;
Make right the immemorial infamies,
Perfidious wrongs, immedicable woes?

O, masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
How will the Future reckon with this Man?
How answer his brute question in that hour
When whirlwinds of rebellion shake the world?
How will it be with kingdoms and with kings—
With those who shaped him to the thing he is—
When this dumb terror shall reply to God
After the silence of the centuries?

Oakland, Cal.

one would rather have left unsaid."

You are fond of the opposite sex, fickle and yet with an overwhelming conviction of your own sincerity. You evidently prefer a novel to any household duty and are vain of your success in love affairs. Your favorite amusement is a boating party or any form of entertainment capable of admitting sentimental intercourse. You will marry after thirty-two, a stranger of whose past, beyond what he tells you, you will know nothing. This marriage will turn out happily.

DIRECTIONS.

Place a small piece of gum camphor (size of a pea) upon a tray, plate or saucer and ignite the same with a match. Hold a clean piece of white paper (foolscap size) above the flame, moving it horizontally and without a halt until one side is covered heavily with smoke. Then place this paper smoked side uppermost, upon a table, and holding fingers apart, place your open palm (left hand) upon the smoked surface. Then with the fingers and thumb of the right hand press upon the knuckles and back of the open hand, thus securing a clear, accurate impression. Lift your hand from the paper, and pour alcohol upon the smoked surface, thus hardening and fixing the impression. Let the alcohol evaporate, after which fold the sheet and sign it with your name. Address: Palmistry Editor, Advertiser Office. A fictitious name, or initials, must be sent and your proper name will not appear in the reading of your palm.

Jury Makes Partition.

In case of Lincoln L. McCandless vs. Sol. Mahelona, et al., action to quit title, the jury, after three days' trial, returned a verdict for the defendant for an undivided one-half of the property and for plaintiff for an undivided one-half. The land in controversy is situated down at Waianae, being about 6 acres in area. Cecil Brown for plaintiff, J. M. Poopoe and Robertson and Wilder for defendants.

TOOK A SEVERE COLD AFTER THE BIG FIRE.

After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help; the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cold and cough left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good.—G. B. Henderson, Editor Daily Advertiser, Cripple Creek, Col. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents for H. I., all druggists and dealers.

WOMAN'S FATE.

From the Record, Bushnell, Ill.

No woman is better able to speak to others regarding "woman's fate" than Mrs. Jacob Weaver, of Bushnell, Ill., wife of ex-City Marshal Weaver. She has entirely recovered from the illness which kept her bedfast much of the time for five or six years past, and says her recovery is due to that well known remedy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Weaver is fifty-six years old, and has lived in Bushnell nearly thirty years. She is of unquestioned veracity and unblemished reputation. The story of her recovery is interesting. She says: "I suffered for five or six years with the trouble that comes to women at this time of my life. I was much weakened, was unable much of the time to do my own work, and suffered beyond my power to describe. I was down-hearted and melancholy. 'I took many different medicines, in fact I took medicine all the time, but nothing seemed to do me any good. 'I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and some of my friends recommended them highly. I made up my mind to try them. I bought the first box in March, 1897, and was benefited from the start. 'A box and a half cured me completely, and I am now rugged and strong. I have not been bothered with my troubles since I began taking the pills. 'I have recommended the pills to many women who are suffering as I suffered. They are the only thing that helped me in the trial that comes to so many women at my age.' MRS. J. H. WEAVER.

Mrs. Jacob Weaver.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23rd day of October, A. D. 1897. O. C. HICKS, Notary Public.

When woman is passing beyond the age of motherhood, it is a crisis in her life. Then, if ever, proper attention to hygiene should be exercised. The attendant sufferings will disappear and buoyant health will follow if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are used. These pills exert a powerful influence in restoring the system to its proper condition. They contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood.
