SEMI-WEEKLY. ISSUED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS. WALTER G. SMITH, EDITOR. FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 7

AN AFFRONT TO HARMONY.

The proposition to nominate three candidates for the Senate in the Fourth district and three in the Fifth on a ticket which the whole Island will vote, comes from a few Republican politicians who have scant respect for the wishes of the majority. The fair way to proceed is to give every Republican a chance to frame the ticket he is expected to support.

THE HILO SCHEME.

The Bulletin states the claims of Hilo upon the Republican Convention as follows: The first and all-important claim Hilo has to make for the Territorial gathering is the utter lack of aggressive activity among the Republicans of the Hilo district.

Judging from John Wise's open letter in the Independent it looks as if the hoaxes who thought they had educated him got hold of a gold brick.

Japan has won more military laurels in China than any other power and is likely to emerge from the war greatly strengthened in her diplomatic position.

Trouble in the Balkans has been threatening for two decades but it is doubtful if any of the little powers in that quarter will ever get Russia's permission to fight.

The sentence of Bresci to imprisonment for life is the same as that imposed upon the assassin of the Empress Elizabeth of Austria. Neither in Italy nor Switzerland is regicide punishable by death.

A temperate climate is no guarantee of safety from the bubonic plague. Cities like Glasgow, Hamburg, Sydney, Kobe and San Francisco catch the disease as easily as Singapore, Canton, Manila and Honolulu.

The Boers are being caught so fast that it looks as if they meant to be. There is nothing to the war now but finishing touches and the average Boer, whose house has not been burnt, longs to get back to it with a whole skin.

The French people are waking to the fact, long clear to the outside world, that Russia is in alliance with France for revenue only. Russia does not like a republic, her traditions are anti-French and she does not hate Germany.

BRYAN TO THE POPULISTS.

Mr. Bryan's address to the Populists, which appears in the latest files, is a characteristic piece of special pleading—a lawyer's ex parte brief which can only be dealt with intelligently by taking into consideration the facts on the other side.

The increase in the volume of money since 1896 is an increase of stable money, of gold from Alaska, Colorado, California and from the markets of Europe, Asia and Australia. On this account it has helped to make better times throughout the country.

The Republican party is now committed to a currency system which necessitates a perpetual debt, while the Populist finds himself in agreement with the Democrats, who believe in paying off the national debt as soon as possible.

The Republican party has no new currency system. The one it advocates was in force during the two-thirds payment of the national debt and it will not prevent the payment of the remaining one-third.

The trusts have never got protection from the Republican party save such as all business corporations have the right to expect of their common government, namely, the reservation of the home market for home manufacturers.

Since he (the farmer) sells his surplus in a foreign market, he is not a beneficiary of the tariff, and since he produces merchandise and not money, he does not profit by the appreciation of the dollar.

The farmer tried to sell his surplus in a foreign market during the years of the Democratic tariff but found to his dismay that the foreign producer was underselling him in his own market. Every year he was worse off than in the year before.

If 100,000 men are withdrawn from the ranks of the producers and placed as a burden on the backs of those who remain, it must be longer hours, harder work and greater sacrifices for those who till the soil.

There is no proposition to have a standing army of 100,000; none at least which commits the Republican party. The present army, with war going on, is not that large and this army will be reduced nearly one-half within a year.

So far as the farmers getting nothing out of the army is concerned, Mr. Bryan knows better. They have to feed it; their sons constitute now, as always, the majority of commissioned officers.

But even the menace of militarism is but a part of the question of imperialism. The policy contemplated by the Republican party nullifies every principle set forth in the Declaration of Independence.

The policy of the Republican party is the policy of which the Democratic party boasted in its platform of 1884; a policy Col. Bryan volunteered to assist by force of arms; a policy that is spreading our institutions to the remote parts of the earth.

Carefully analyzed Mr. Bryan's address is a tissue of assumptions and false logic. Great orator as he is, he ought to be a plaything of any well-informed Republican debater in this canvass.

MISTAKEN LENIENCY.

It is a question whether the allies, by not occupying the palaces of the Imperial Clan, do not make a mistake which will weaken the force of the lesson they have tried to teach the Chinese. The latter have a curious originality in explaining away their military defeats—'saving their face' as it is called in the vernacular.

Most Chinamen believe this tale and they will credit an even more fantastic one about the present invasion if the allies stop before they complete their work in the way that seems most impressive to the Mongol mind.

have the foreigners halt, as if timidly, before the 'last ditch' and go without the signal triumph which the Chinese themselves, if placed in a similar situation, would assuredly exact.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad denies that it is building ships to carry coal to Europe.

ALL COONS LOOKED ALIKE TO THE MOB

Ernest Hogan, the negro minstrel who played so long in Honolulu, narrowly escaped destruction at the hands of the mob which attacked colored men in New York City during the last days of August.

The rioting was wholly unknown to Hogan, when he left the Cherry Blossom Grove, where he had been doing his turn as usual.

ROOKER'S COMMISSIONS

He Will Bring Back Some Good Steeds for Lovers of the Sport of Kings.

Mr. A. F. Rooker, the well known horseman of San Francisco, who has been staying for several months past in Hilo, returned to the Coast on the Australia.

McManus, well known here as the former handler of Our Boy and Loupe, is doing well in Hilo. The Wilson-Rooker stable, consisting of Billy McCloskey, Watassa, Virgie A and Coast Range or General Cronje, as he was renamed, has been turned over to him.

Mr. Rooker declared himself well satisfied with Monday's racing, but said that Honolulu with its fine track, would have to play second fiddle to Hilo with its little half-mile circuit if interest in the sport was allowed to languish.

The Rejected has been sold to Mr. McLennan of Laupahoehoe for $30. J. R. Horner of the Kukui ranch has placed a large order for racing and breeding stock, and intends to patronize the sport still more extensively than in the past.

Uncle True is now in town. George Rodiek of Hilo is going to Europe next month, and has disposed of the hurdle racer, Van Wagner, to Dr. Reed, who is at present using him as a hack.

Manuel and Mystery have been matched at three-eighths of a mile for $100 a side; each must carry 140 pounds.

A three-cornered race is being talked between Dan McCarthy, Mongoose and Walter P.

Mr. L. H. Dee's many friends will regret to hear that he was rather severely kicked yesterday afternoon by his horse Albert M, while looking him over at the track.

Mr. L. H. Dee wants to see a three-cornered race a month hence between himself, Dan McCarthy and Artie W. He says that he will put up $100 and take Captain Soule's horse, only he must know quick if it is to be.

"Necessity Knows No Law."

But a law of Nature bows to the necessity of keeping the blood pure so that the entire system shall be strong, healthy and vigorous.

To take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is therefore a law of health and it is a necessity in nearly every household. It never disappoints.

Blood Disorders—"My step-daughter and I have both been troubled greatly with blood disorders and stomach troubles, and several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla have been of great benefit." James F. Thompson, Wilmington, Ohio.

Hood's Pills are for the bowels; the non-drowsy pills are only calculated to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Isn't this a significant fact? These merchants bought our registers only after careful investigation, and being convinced that their investment would be a profitable one. Now what our registers are doing for others they will do for you. THEN WHY NOT INVESTIGATE?
