

THE WEEK ON MAUI

A Chinese Junk is Wrecked at Huelo.

MAUI, April 26.—Wednesday evening, the 25th, the April meeting of the Hawaiian Literary Society took place at the residence of Manager H. P. Baldwin of Spreckelsville.

The evening's program, every event of which received an enthusiastic encore, was as follows:

Hano Solo... Mrs. Dora von Tempky Duet... Mr. Dowdle and Miss Dowdle Vocal Solo... Miss Huntington

The "Elocutionary Potpourri," which created much amusement, was participated in by Messrs. D. C. Lindsay, J. J. Hair, W. O. Aiken, S. R. Dowdle, George Baldwin and F. A. Alexander.

Before the "Magic Mirror" stood a bachelor seeking a wife (W. O. Aiken), while the wizard (Dr. G. S. Aiken) conjured up thirteen apparitions of beautiful women.

In the first tableau the youth selects a representative of beauty and fashion, but in the second—as an old man—he chooses the type of domestic womanhood, armed with broom and dustpan.

CHINESE JUNK WRECKED. Yesterday, the 25th, the Chinese junk belonging to Awana of Makawae was totally wrecked on the rocks at Huelo.

On Monday, the 21st, Captain A. J. Taithe and a Chinese crew were to start in the junk from Maliko for Keane to obtain a cargo of rice.

TEACHERS' MEETING. Monday afternoon, the 21st, twelve Government teachers met in the Makawao school house, the occasion being their regular monthly meeting.

POLITICAL GOSSIP. In political circles there is already some talk of candidates for the next Legislature.

STRAY NOTES. The cane at Kihel is reported as looking unusually fine.

A BITTER RATE WAR IMMINENT. The S. P. Examiner of a recent date says that a bitter freight rate war between the steamship lines and sailing vessels that ply between San Francisco and Hawaii is imminent.

On Sunday, the 13th, Kukahiko, 70 years of age, died at Makana, after a very brief illness.

Miss Mary Alexander, of Oakland, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, of Spreckelsville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, of Hanalei, returned from Honolulu today. Mr. Baldwin was a member of the Federal grand jury.

Inspector of Schools C. W. Baldwin has been spending his Easter vacation at Haiku. He returned to Hawaii this week.

Tax Collector W. O. Aiken, of Paia, and warrants served on fifteen employees of the plantation for non-payment of poll taxes.

Soon after nightfall last evening, when the wind sprang up, the note of sea birds, seeking the mountains, could be heard all over the city.

CAMP AT MAKUA

How Kamehameha Boys Enjoyed Outing.

On Saturday afternoon the boys of the Kamehameha Schools returned to Honolulu from their annual outing vacation of a week at the little village of Makua, about eight miles from Waianae.

Makua is an ideal place for camping, being close to the ocean and the mountains and only about a hundred yards from the Makua railroad station.

The students left town last Monday on the 9:15 a. m. train, in charge of Major Wilson and all the male teachers.

At 5:30 the next morning, the boys were roused from their slumbers, had breakfast at 6 and shortly afterward a small army carrying rifles was on its way to the mountains in quest of wild goats.

On Wednesday morning a big imu or underground oven was prepared in which to cook the pigs that were to be brought from Honolulu.

That evening the Senator organized a team among the teachers to pull in a tug-of-war match against the heaviest team of the boys.

THE HAYWOOD DINNER. Mr. Haywood's dinner of next Monday evening, at which Governor Dole is to be the guest of honor, will be given at the Metropolitan Club.

HACKFELD LIGHTER SOLD. Mr. Haywood has sold to the Navy Department the lighter owned by Hackfeld & Co., according to information received from the Navy Department.

HER SON'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

HOW ROOSEVELT GOATED HIS FRIEND GOV. DOLE

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10.—It's all over. The bulletin burst so quickly that the anti-Dole men here at the Capital are wondering what has happened to them.

Before this reaches Honolulu Governor Dole will have been given a ringing send-off by some of the most prominent officials in Washington at a dinner to be given Monday evening next by Hon. William Haywood at the Metropolitan Club.

The Governor takes his vindication modestly. He went to the White House at 5 o'clock last evening (Sunday) for his first interview with the President.

That broke the ice and indicated how the President weeks ago had had his temporary misinformation regarding the Dole administration corrected.

KAULA'S FUNERAL

Hearse Drawn to Grave by Long-shoremen.

Thirty sturdy longshoremen in white duck trousers and black shirts honored the memory of J. K. Kaula yesterday when they drew the hearse, containing the remains from Kaunakapili church, to the cemetery in Nuuanu Valley.

TAKEN FROM SCHOOL

There has of late been considerable trouble in the schools and not a few girls have been kept at home by their parents on account of it.

One of these is Grace E. Locke, a prepossessing miss of sixteen years. Her mother, Mrs. Alice M. Locke, during an interview on the subject said:

Best at the lowest price at Hopp's Oak Chiffoniers. There is no place in the world where a chiffonier is so much needed as in Honolulu.

Extension Dining Tables. Mither round or square and a new stock of Round Card Tables.

Portiers and Rugs. Come and see these goods—they include all kinds and the prices are low.

Our Upholstering. Is considered—and deservedly so—to be the best in the city.
